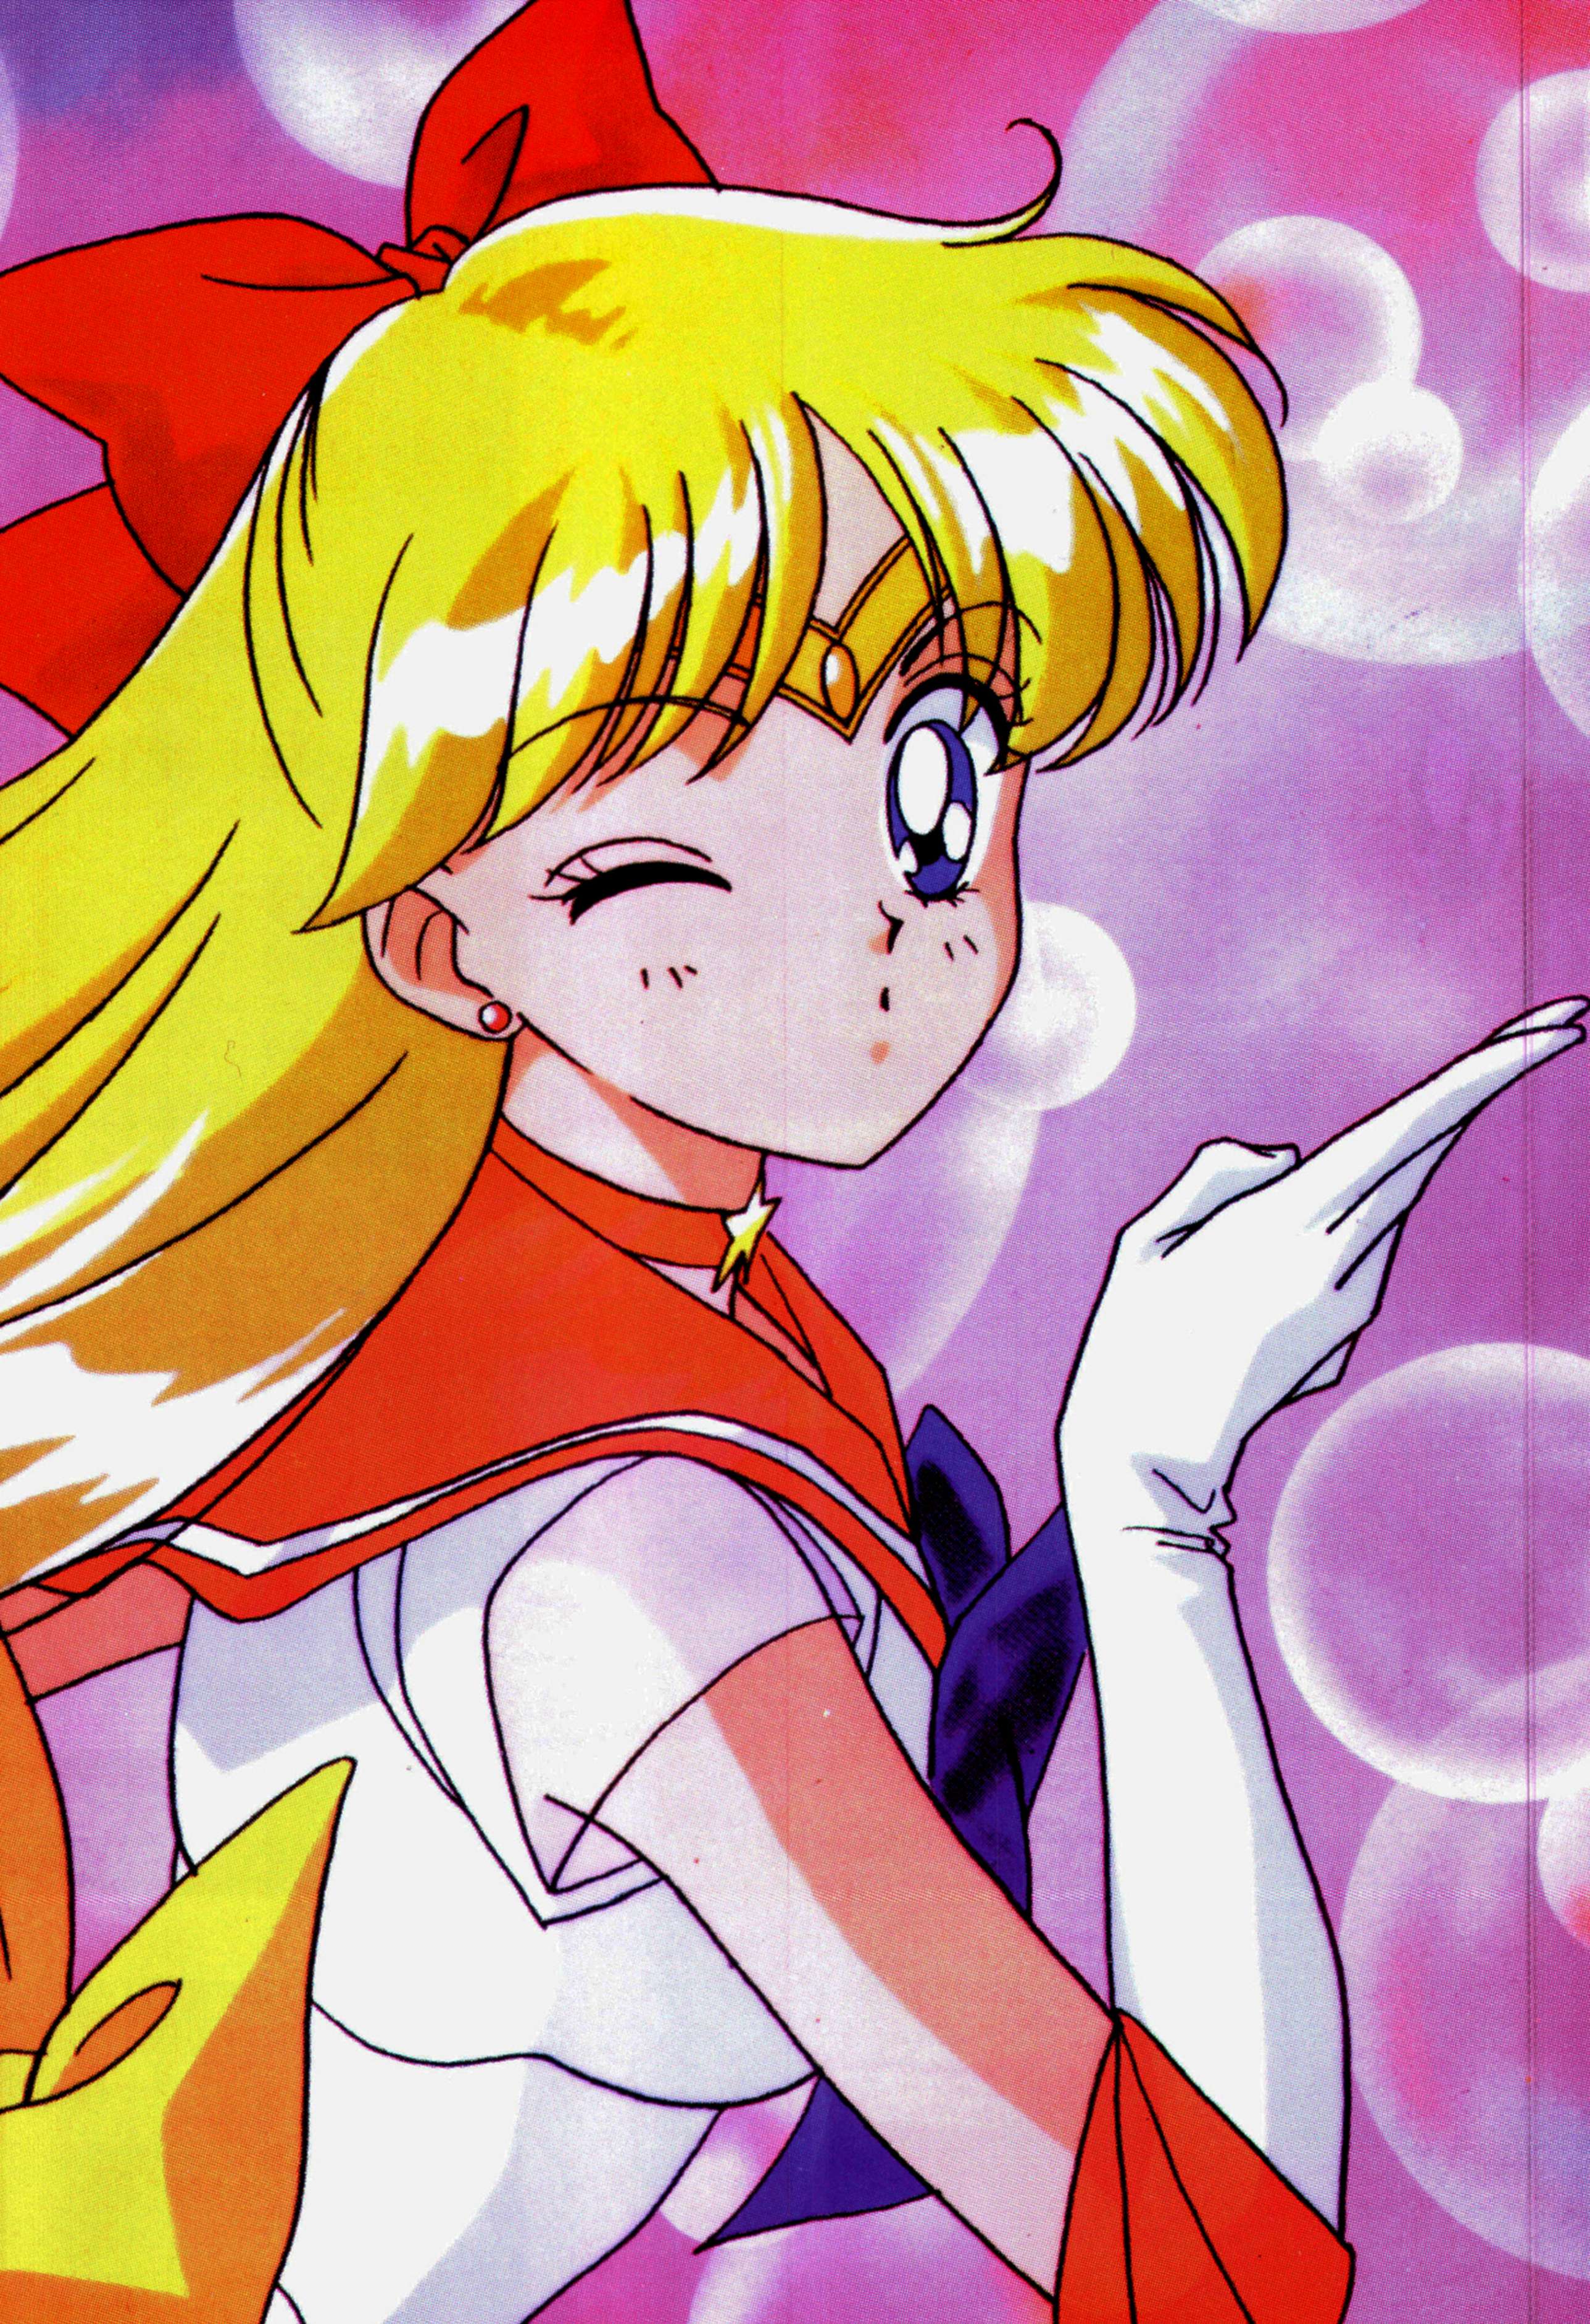
SAILOR VENUS

Sailor Venus

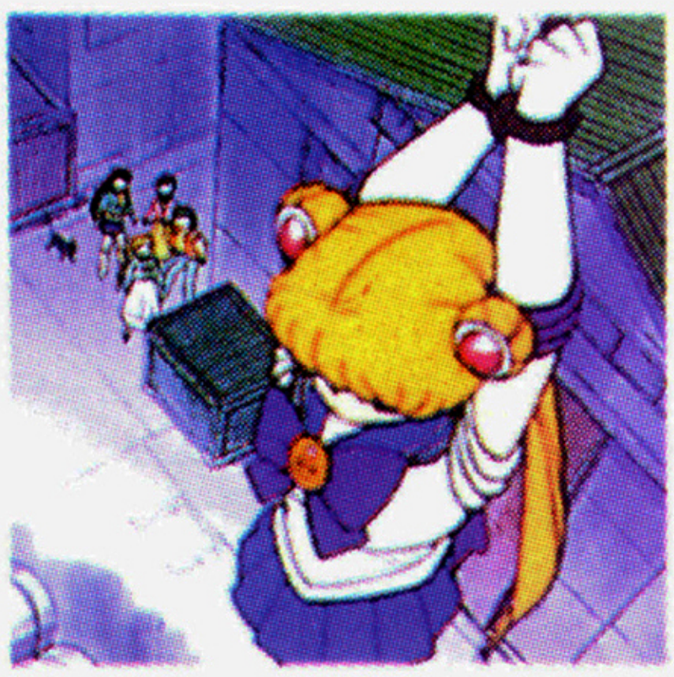
How is everybody? I'm Mina Aino. Today, I'm going to give all of you Sailor Venus fans out there a sneak peek into my impressive transformation and secret fighting moves. In this guidebook, I'll even give you a look at my keen fashion sense!



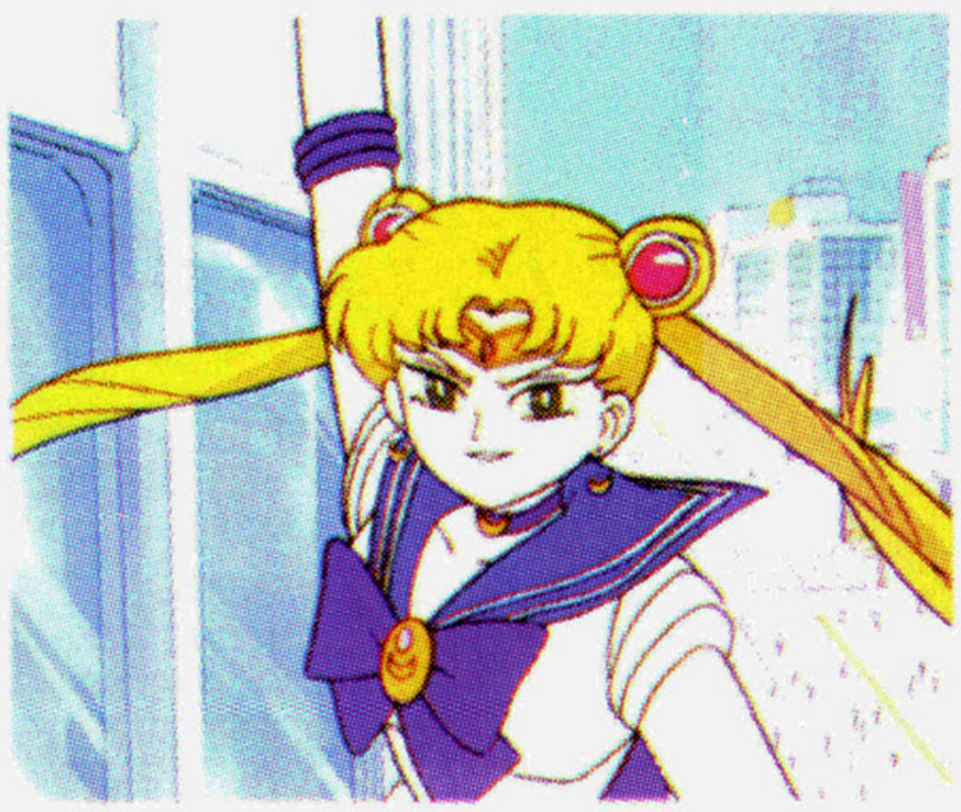
The Secret Origin of Sailor Venus

I came to save the suffering.
It's a pretty cool mission!

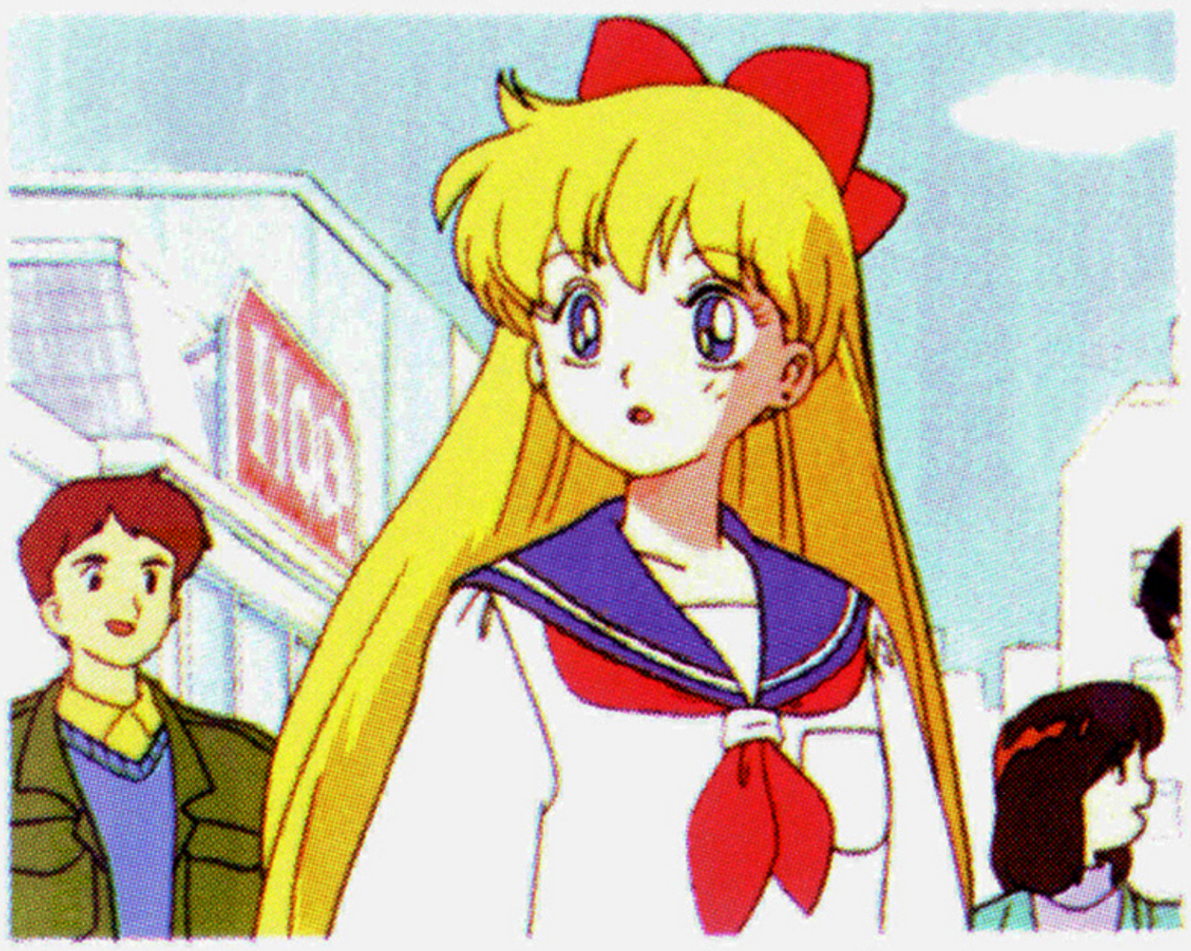
Scout Guide



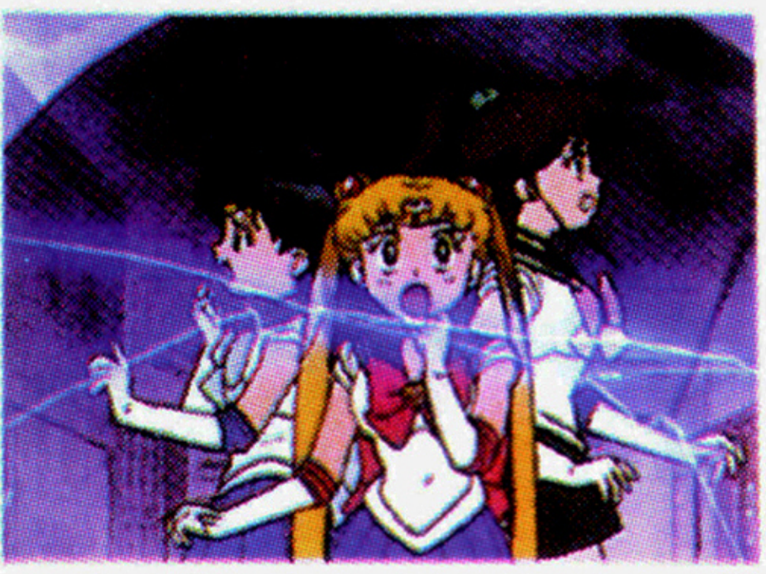
Serena and her friends spot the fake Sailor Moon in danger.



A fake Sailor Moon is at work.



A mysterious girl keeps watch on the imposter.

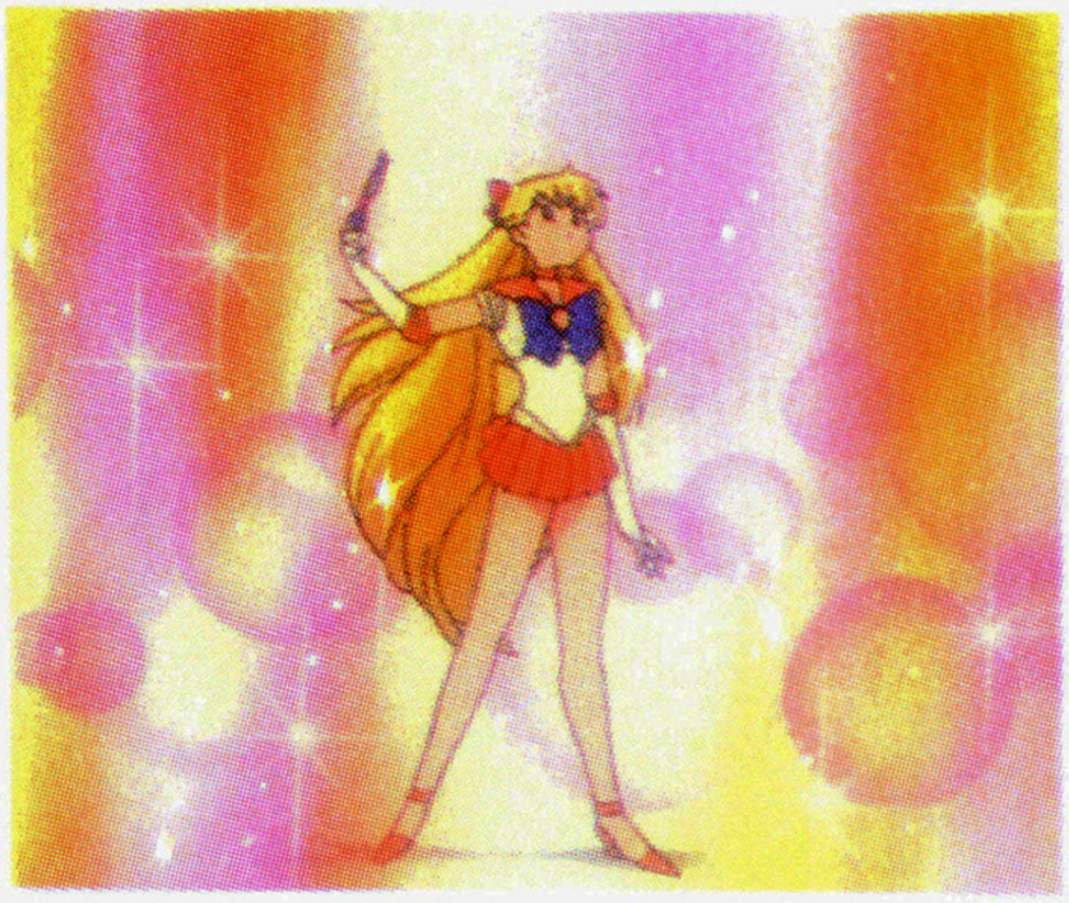


The four Sailor Scouts are imprisoned by magic.

Unaware that it's a fake Sailor Moon, Tuxedo Mask saves the imposter.

The Five Sailor Scouts unite to become the Sailor Team!

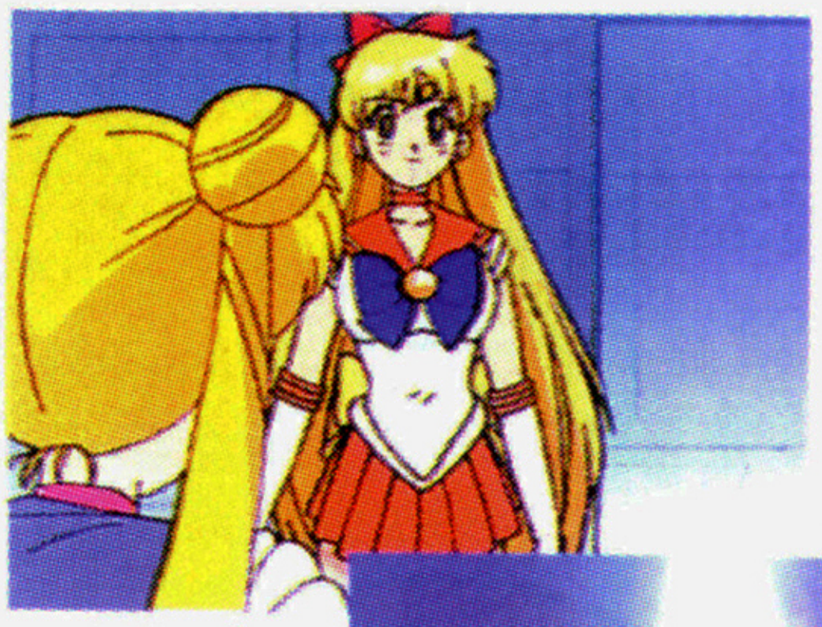
Serena and her team chase after the fake Sailor Moon, not knowing that it's a plot by their enemies. They arrive in time to see the fake Sailor Moon has been tied up. Serena and her friends transform to save her, but when they face Kunzite and his dark power, they're in trouble. Zoicite holds the Sailor Team hostage, forcing Tuxedo Mask to surrender. But just in time, a yellow beam strikes Zoicite, forcing her to run away. The fifth Sailor Scout is revealed, Sailor Venus, uniting the five Sailor Scouts for the first time.



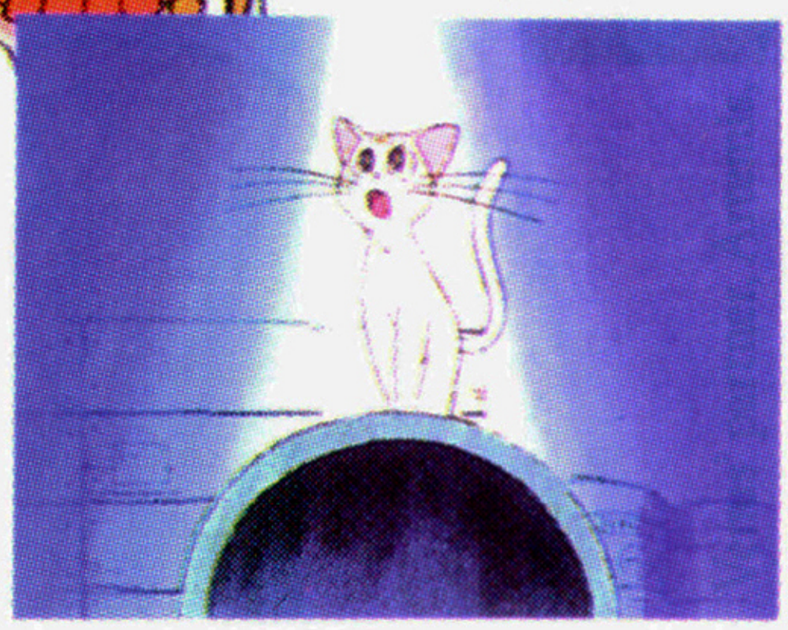
The mysterious Sailor Scout takes off her mask and introduces herself as Sailor Venus. The Fifth Scout has arrived.

The Sailor Scout who saved Tuxedo Mask...is she friend or foe?

The yellow beam hits Zoicite, the one pretending to be Sailor Moon.



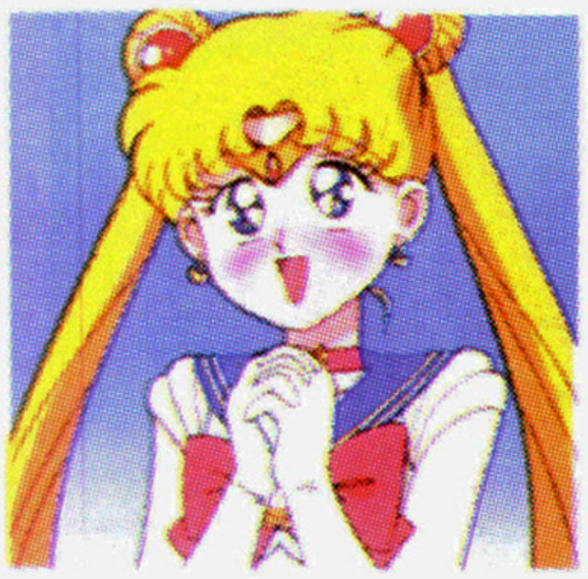
Were Sailor V and Sailor Venus one and the same?



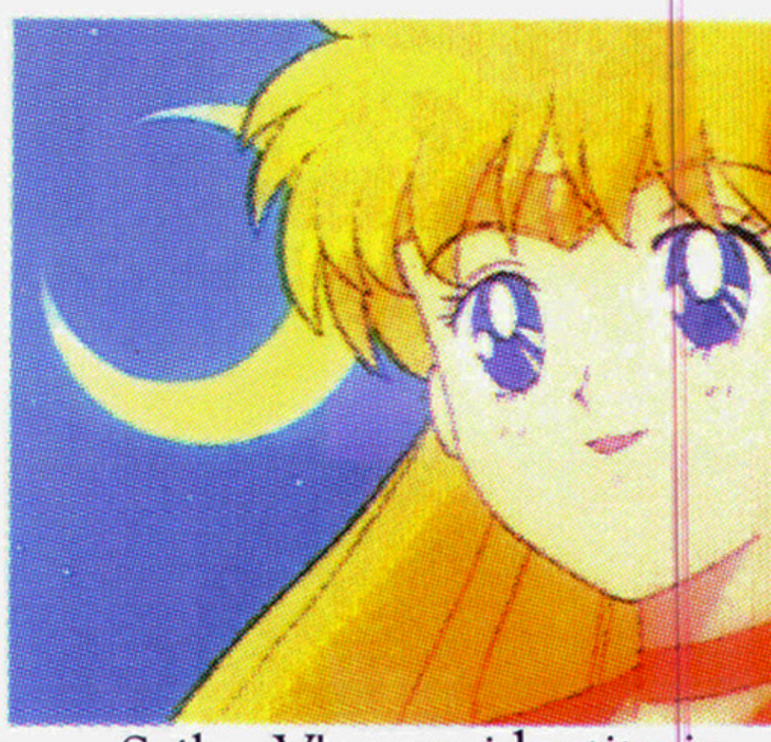
Venus' partner, Artemis, also appears.

The masked crusader who saved the Sailor Team has a secret identity.

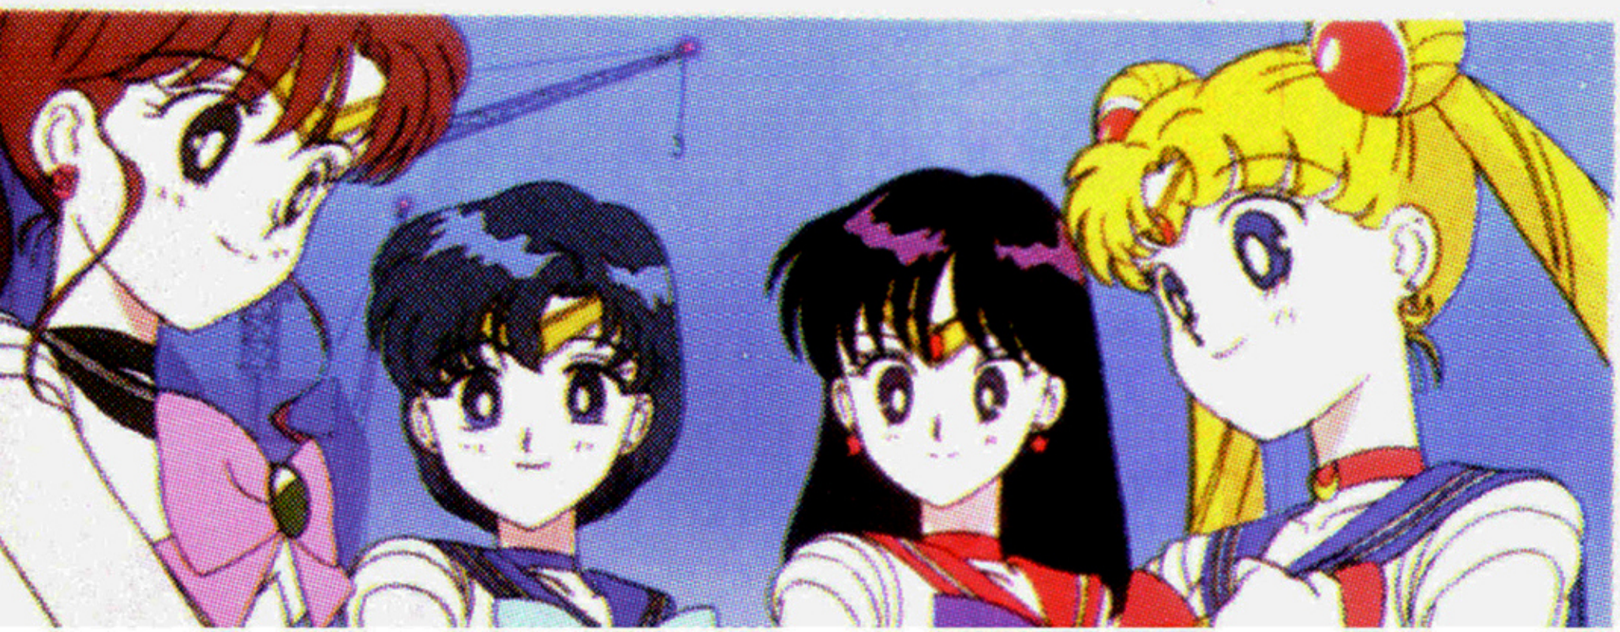
Venus is actually a Scout, not a Princess.



Sailor Moon believes Sailor V is the real Moon Princess.



Sailor V's true identity is Sailor Venus.



The four Scouts greet their new member: Sailor Venus.

Sailor Venus Transformation Gallery: Make up!

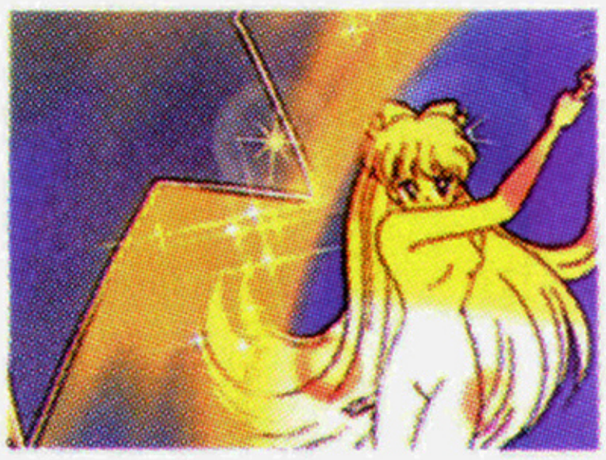
Voila! Now I, Mina Aino, will show you how I transform into Sailor Venus!

Scout Guide

Whenever I run into one of the bad guys, I change right into Sailor Venus. Don't I look like a goddess when I'm in the middle of my transformation?

Venus Power, Makeup!

Even when transforming, Mina is dazzlingly beautiful.



The Sailor Team gained a lot more power when they gained the strength of Pegasus.

Transformation Pen

Artemis gave me the Transformation Pen I used to use. One day it just powered up.

This is my Transformation Pen after it got the "Star Power" transformation.

My previous Transformation Pen. It forms a set with the other 3 pens.

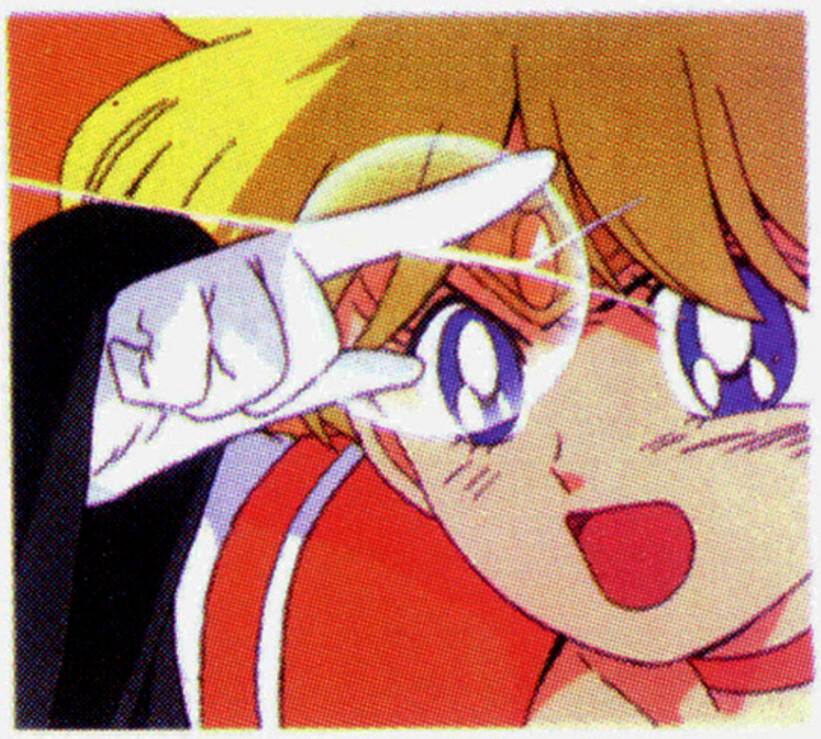
SAILOR MOON

Sailor Venus in Action

Revealing Sailor Venus' celestial power of love. Now I'll have an even bigger following! Hee, hee.

Scout Guide

It's created by concentrated energy from the power of the crescent moon symbol, and released instantly through my fingertips in a beam of light. My Venus Crescent beam is super-fast! It's the fastest power possessed by any of the Sailor Scouts! Oh, by the way, it's called "crescent" as in "crescent moon."

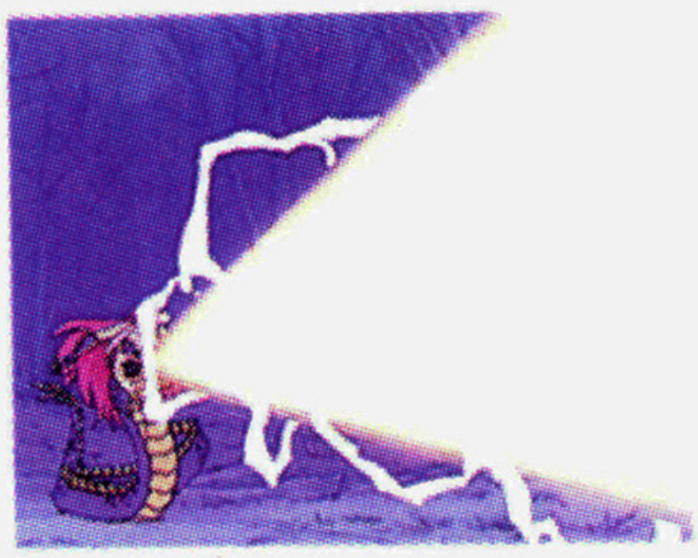


Sometimes, when an adversary is close, the beam releases right from the jewel in my tiara.

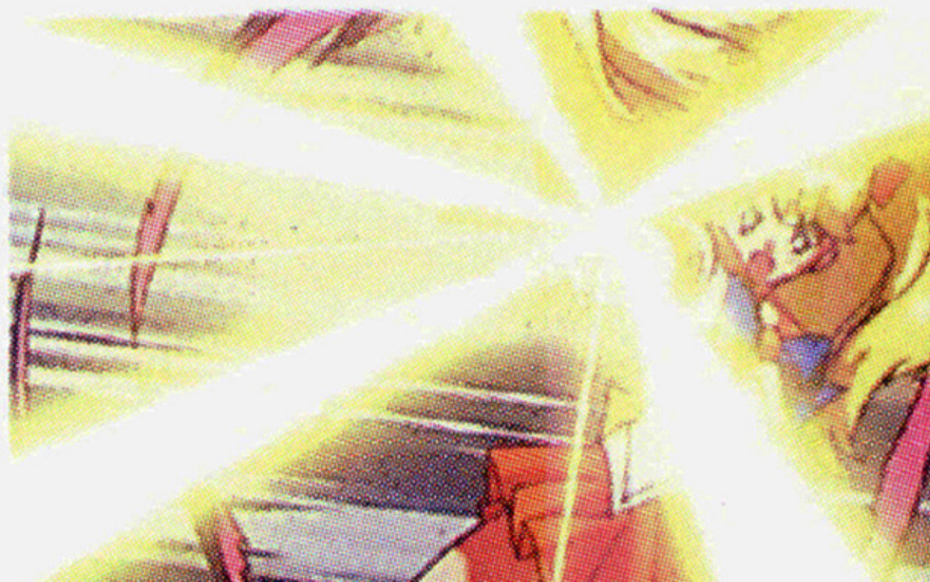
Crescent Beam Shower

I can also use the Crescent Beam as a shower so that it covers a wide area.

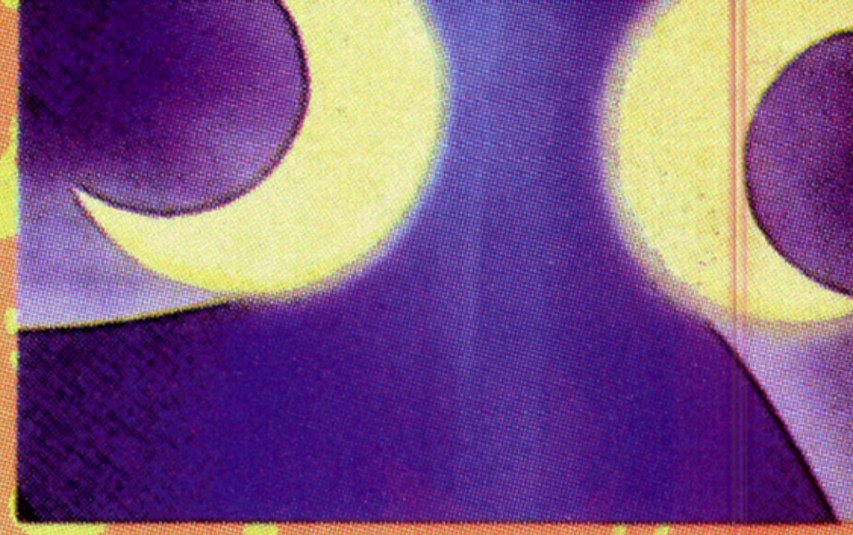
I used it for the first time when I fought the two cardians.

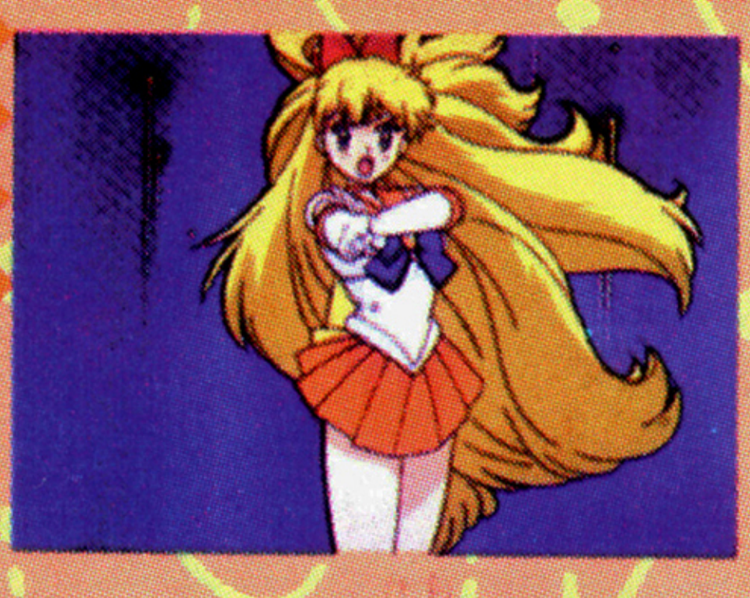


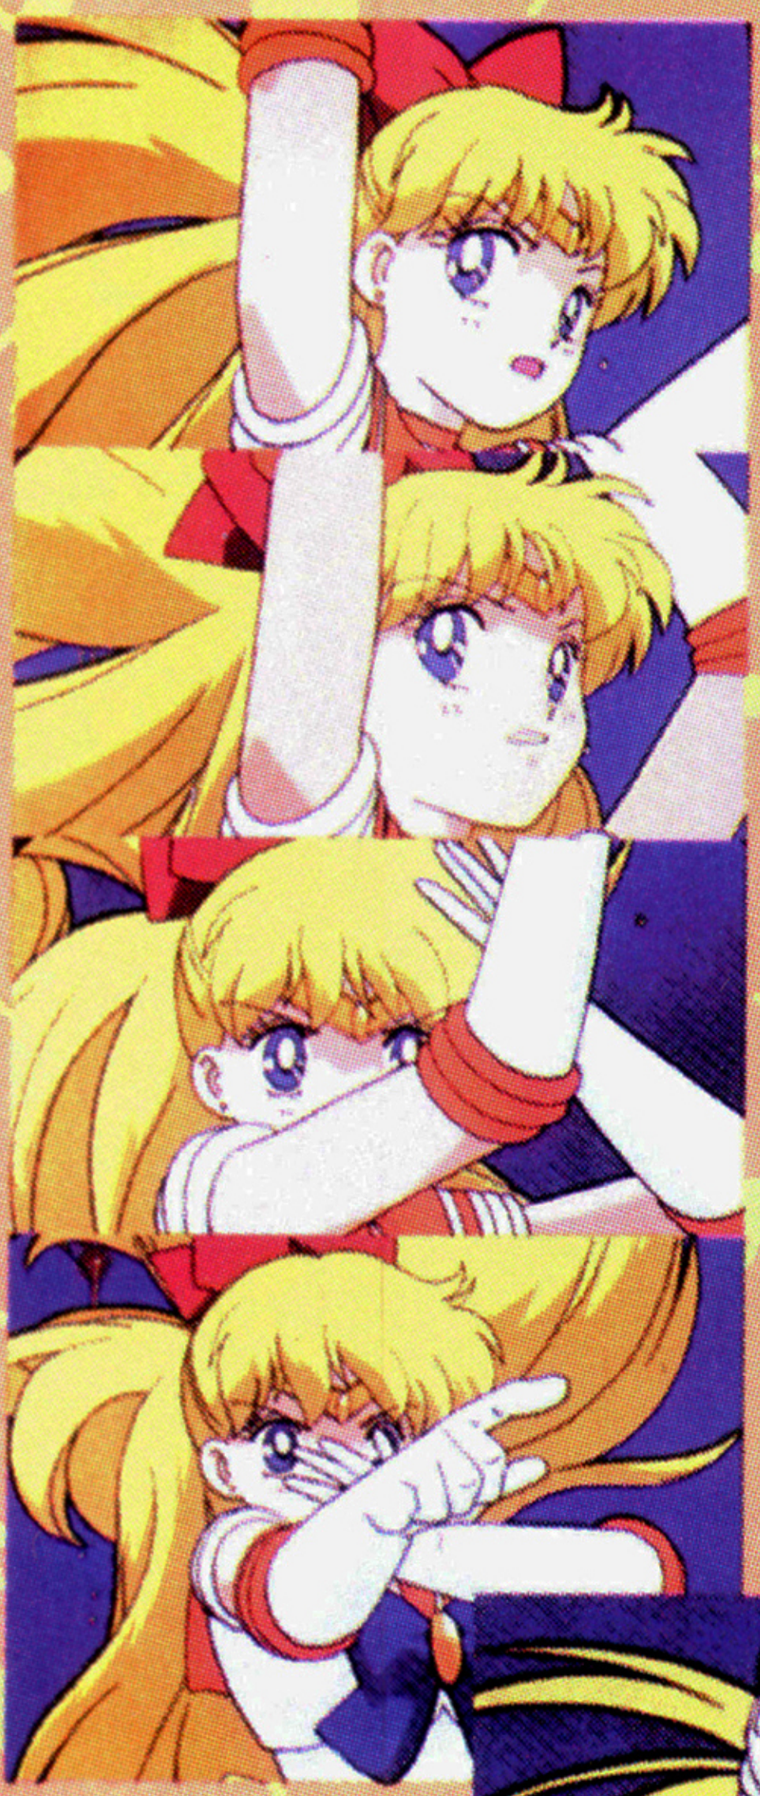
I'll often use my powers together with Sailor Jupiter.

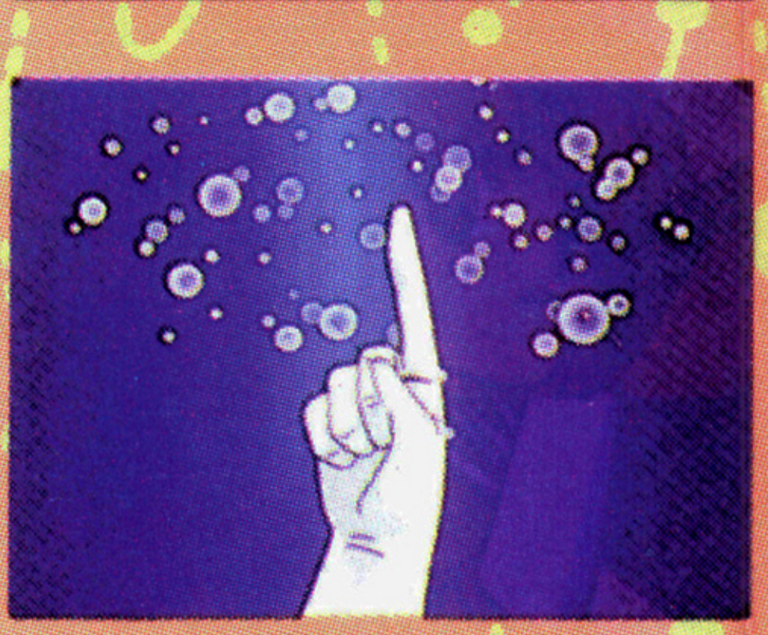


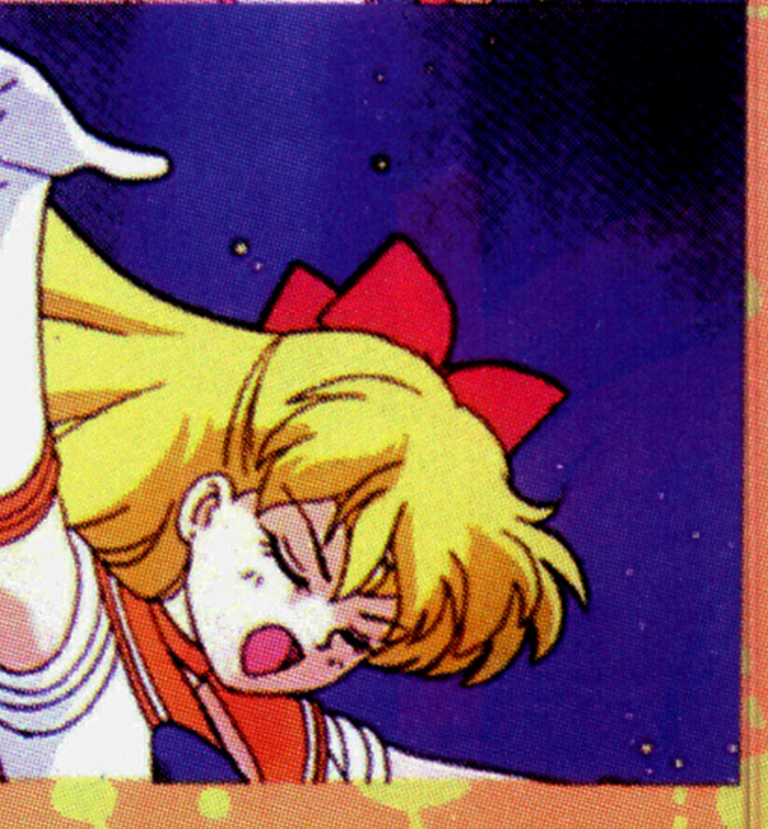
This attack can destroy lots of monsters all at once.





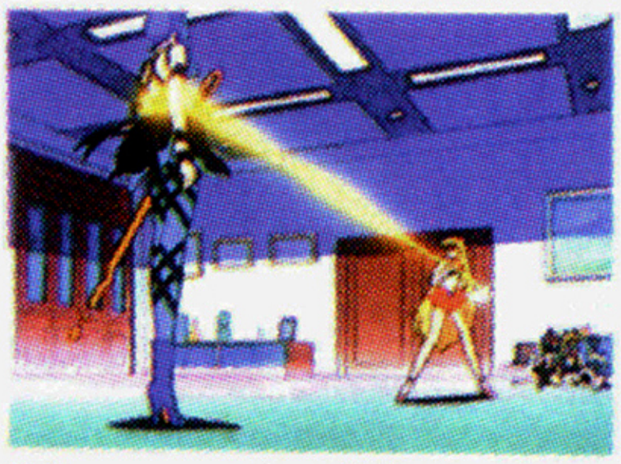






Venus Love Chain Encircle

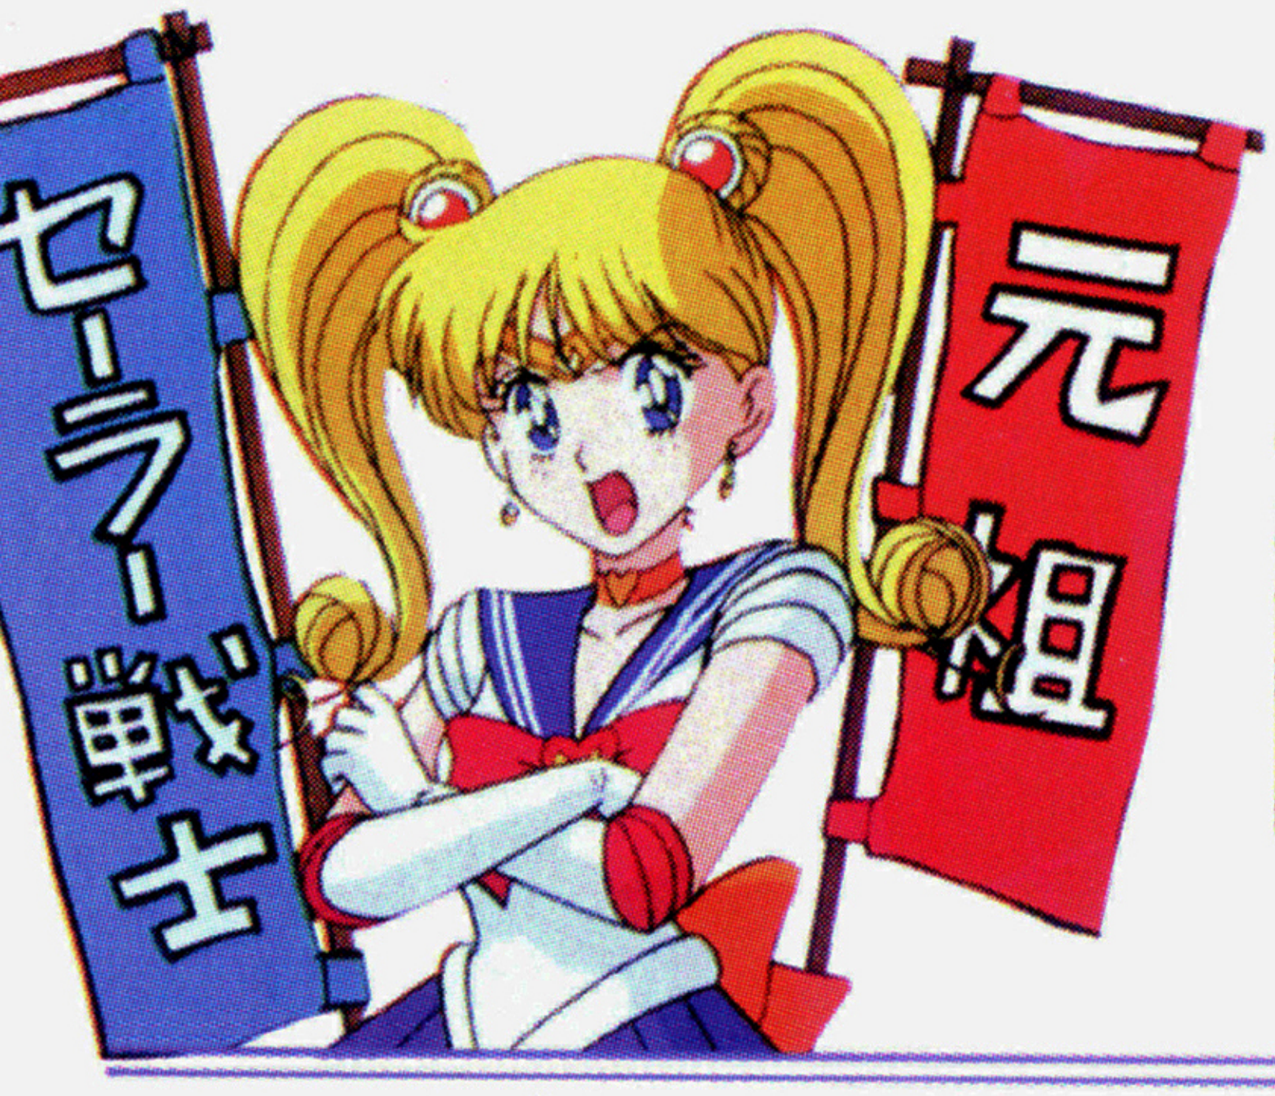
This Chain of Light shoots in any direction at Sailor Venus' command.



It's so powerful, it can hold enemies high up in the air.

The chain can be thrown and twirled around. By whipping it around in circles, it's fighting power increases exponentially.

I got my Venus Love Chain power at the same time as my transformation pen. I can just tie up an enemy in the heart-shaped chain!

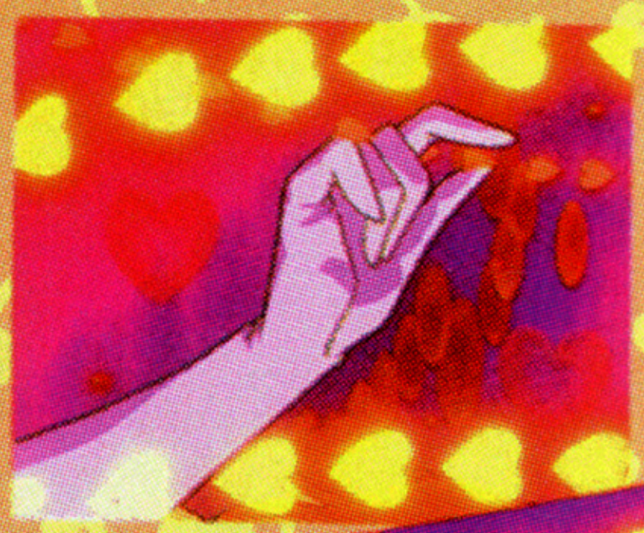


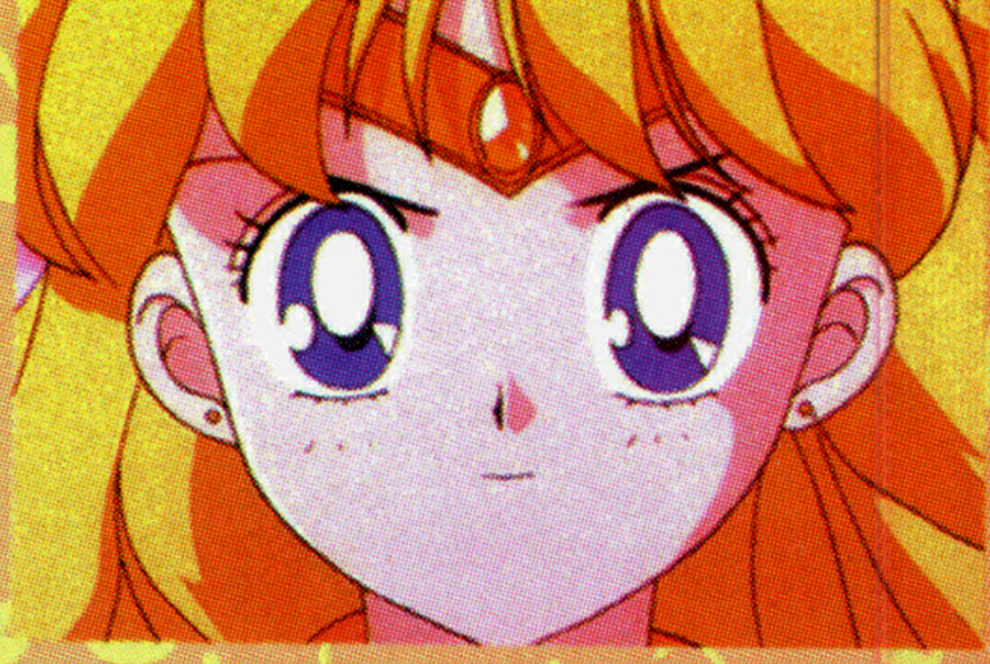
Sailor Mina Moon

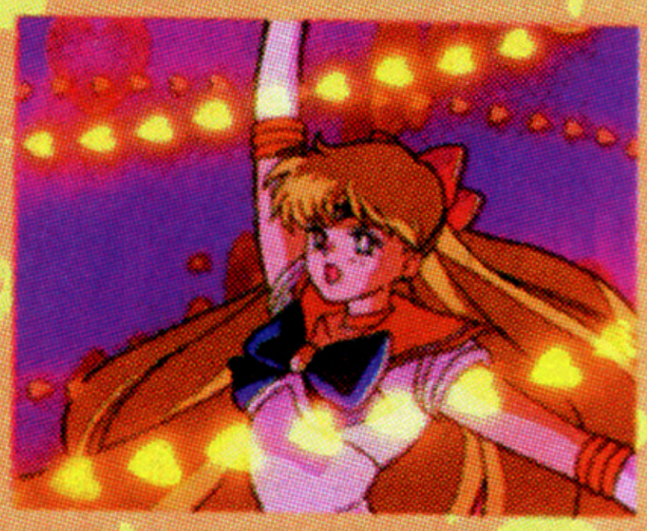
This is my third transformation look, after Sailor V and Sailor Venus. All I did was borrow the transformation pen, really!

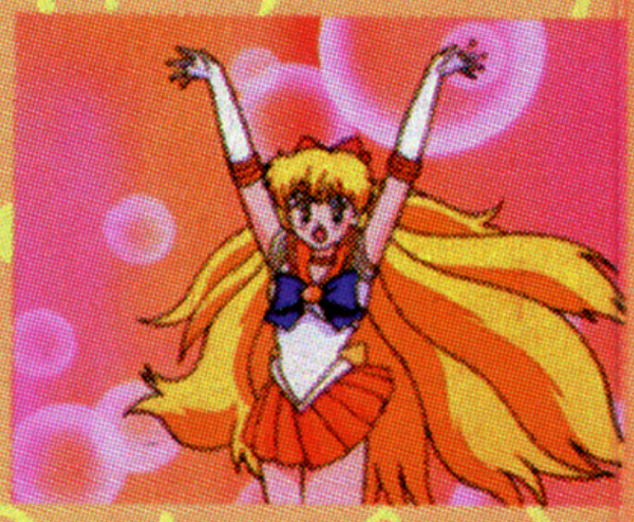
A monster gets a fatal kick.

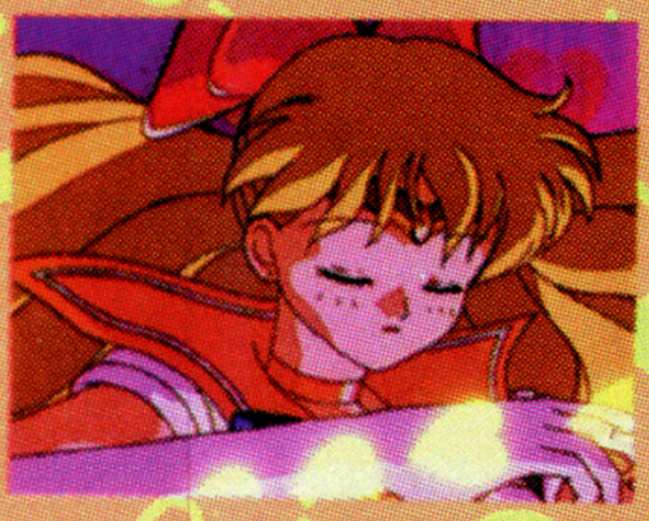
Sailor Venus is a fierce fighting machine!

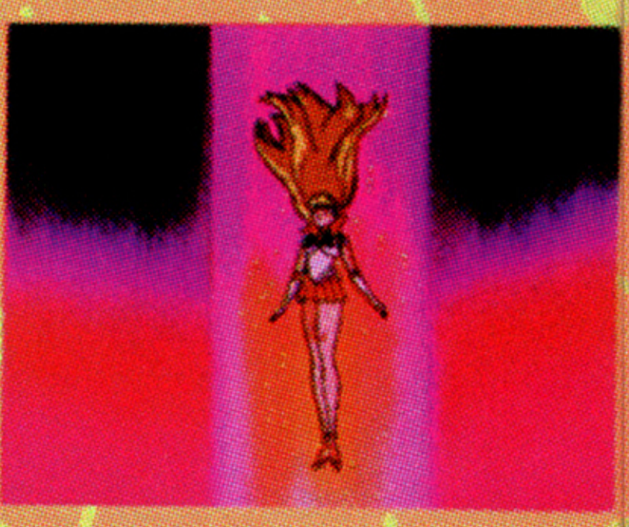




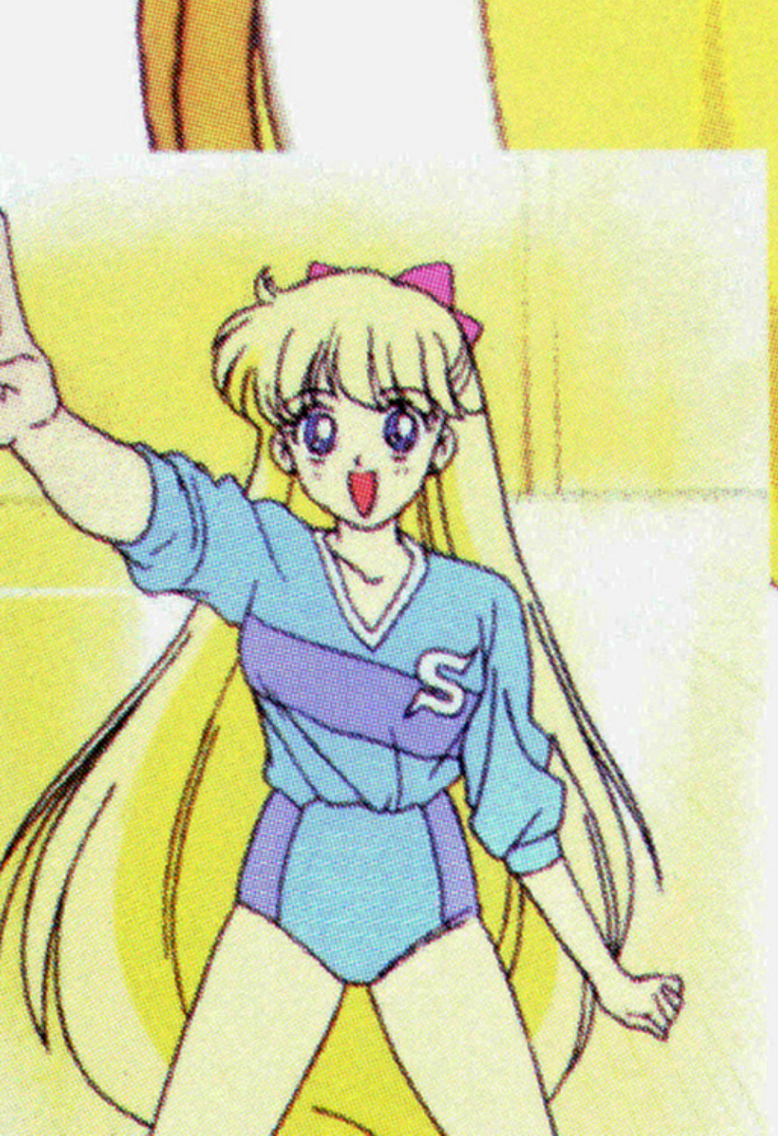








I'm Mina Aino!

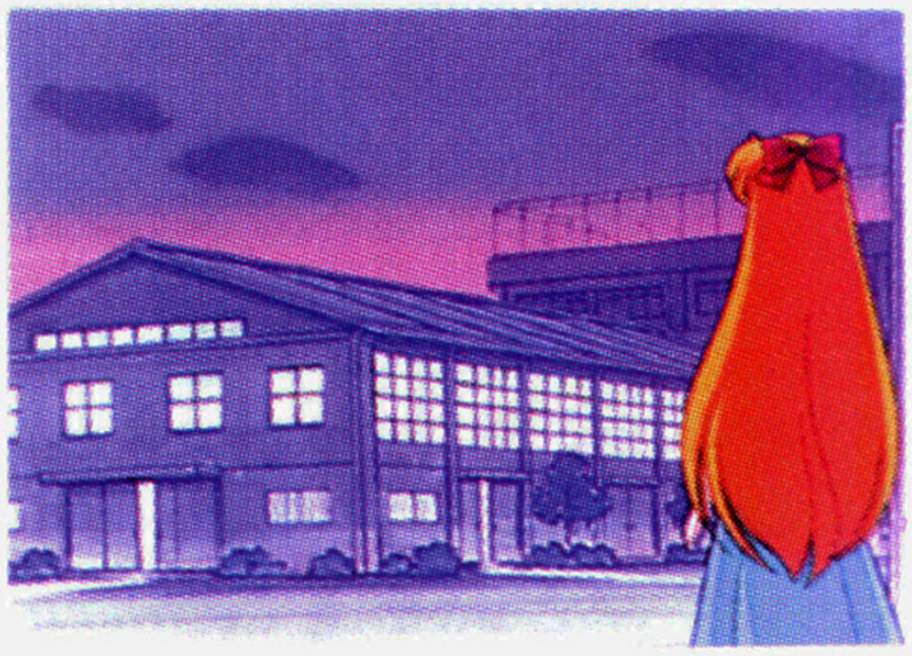


I'm a talented volleyball player.

Introducing the Sailor Team

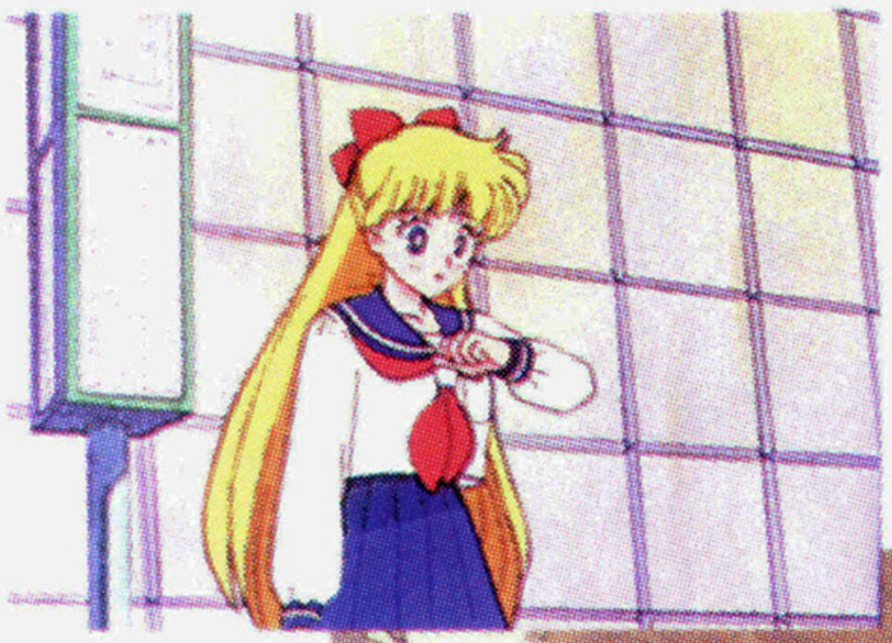
Want to know more about Mina Aino, a.k.a. Sailor Venus? Go ahead and ask about anything!

Scout Guide



This is the school gym where Mina practices volleyball.

I work side by side with a strange little cat named Artemis. When I'm not working as Sailor Venus, I'm a charming junior high school student at Grass Valley Junior High.



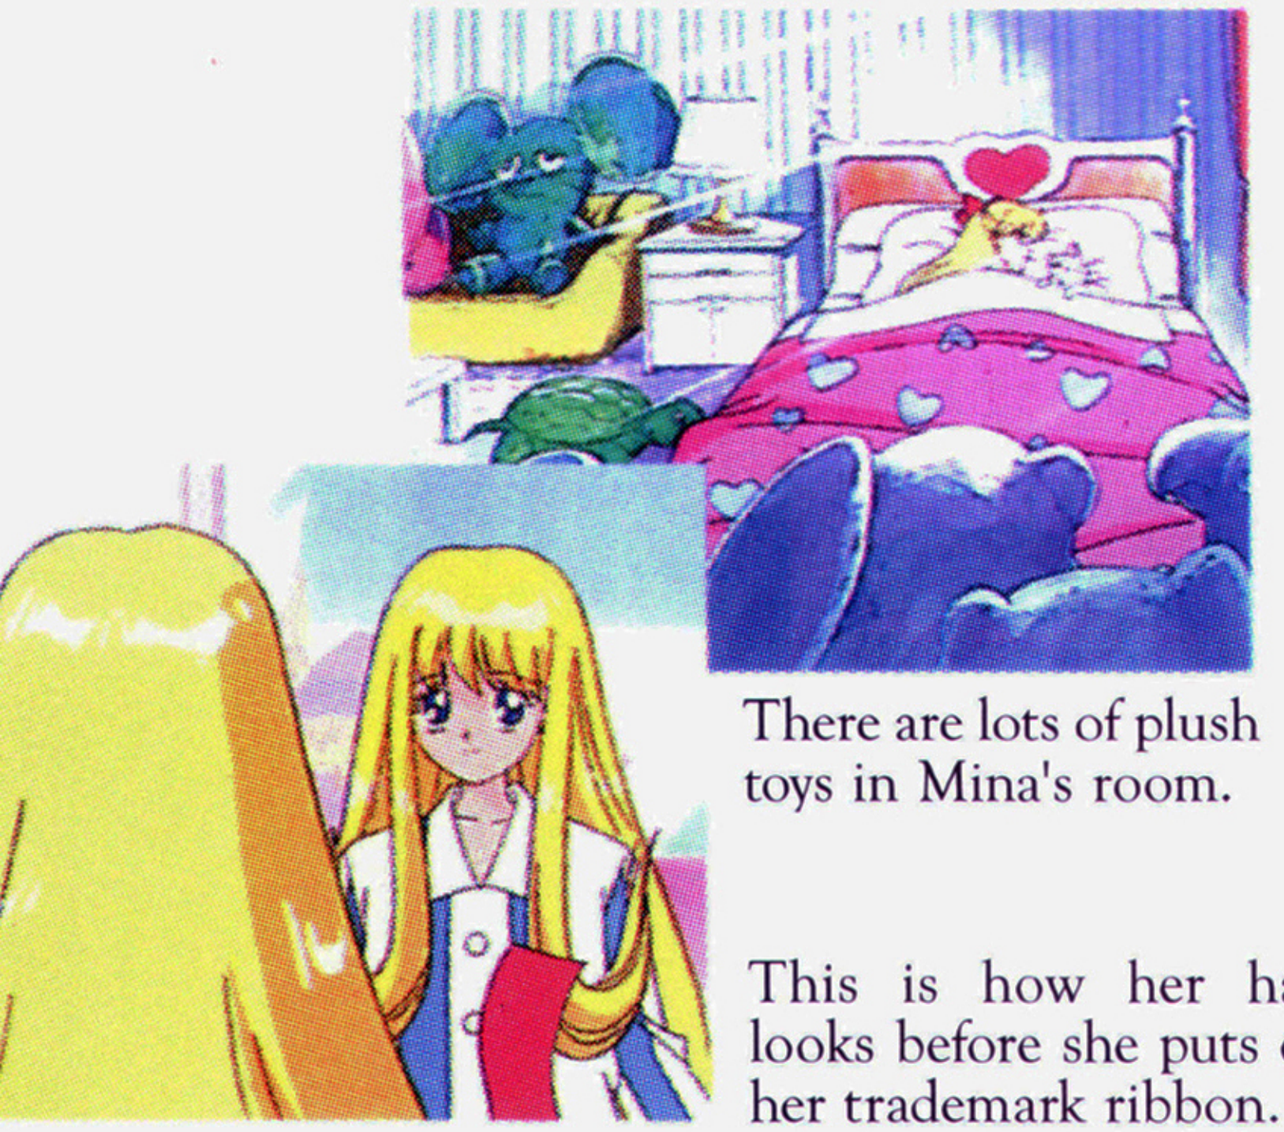
This is my School uniform. It's a sailor suit, so it kind of looks like Serena's school uniform, but the design is different.

Here's Mina on her way to school. She often oversleeps and has to run to school, just like Serena.

MINA

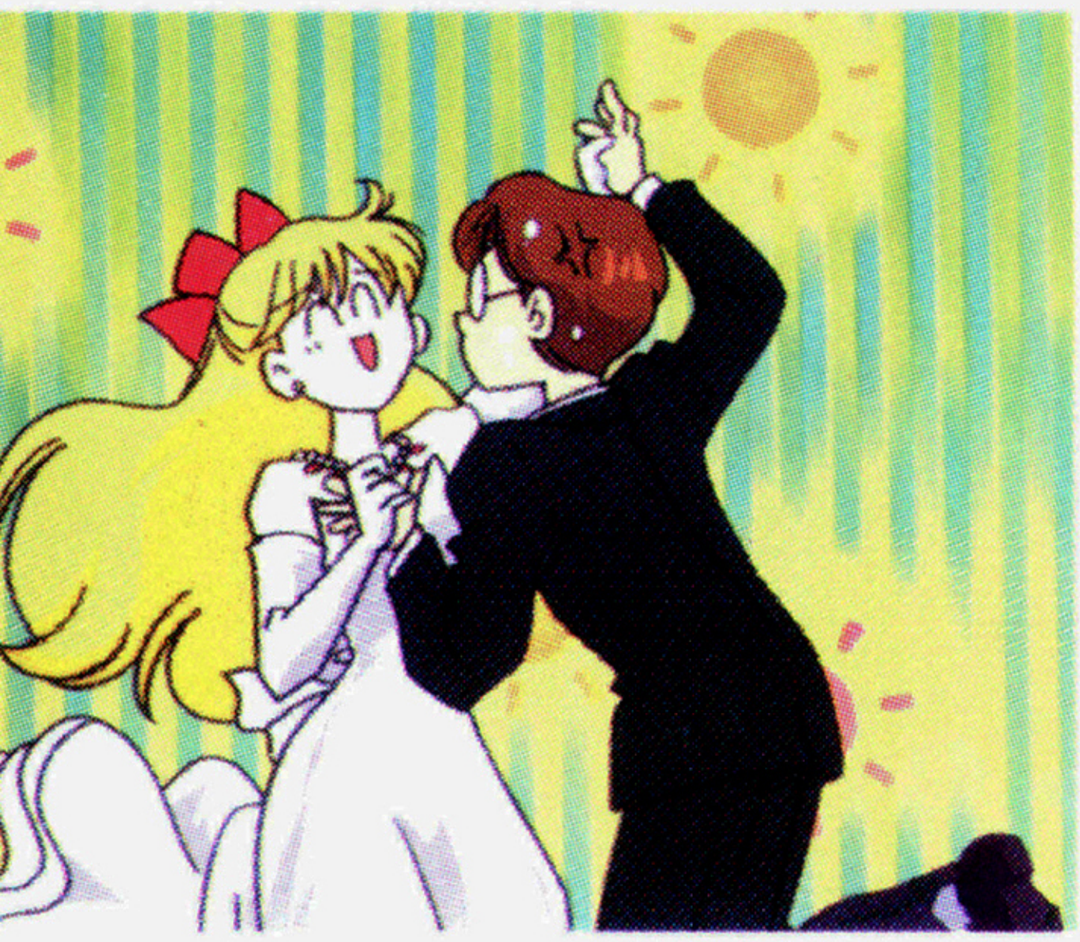
Mina's Days Off

Since I've been a Sailor Scout the longest, I truly treasure my days off! Anyway, besides being young, I'm also a girl--and girls just want to have fun! I want to fall in love someday, too. Oh, but I never seem to find the time!



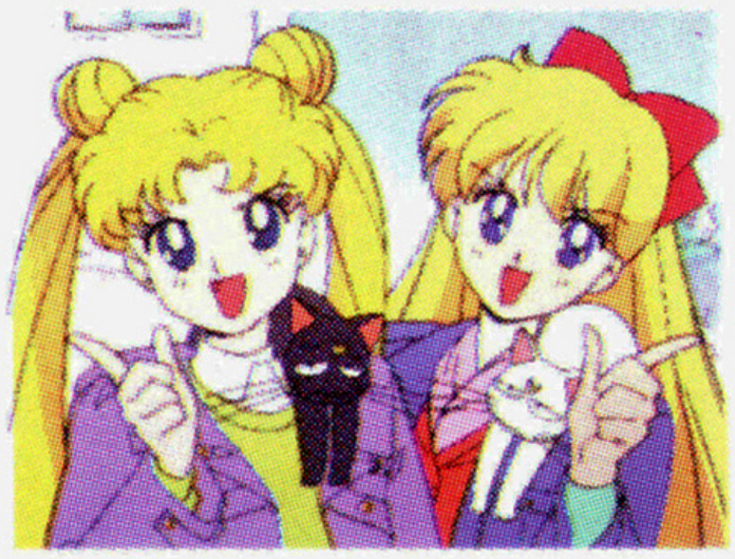
There are lots of plush toys in Mina's room.

This is how her hair looks before she puts on her trademark ribbon.



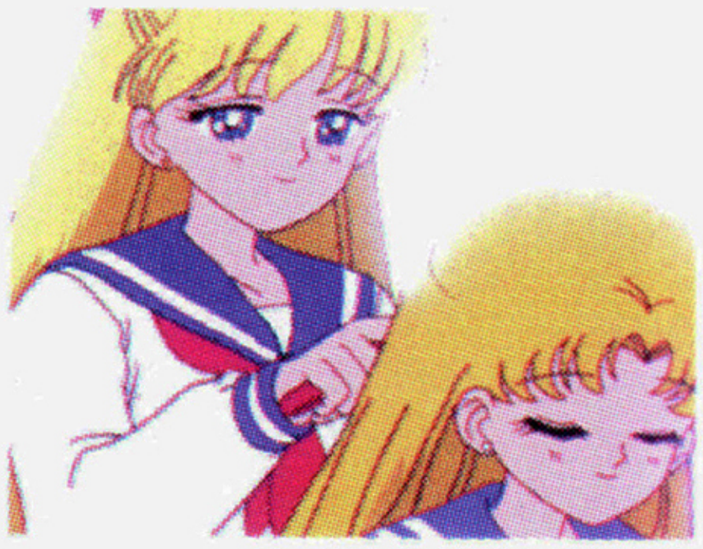
Mina may not be the world's best dancer, but she makes up for it with her beautiful smile.

Mina's cooking skills are still evolving. Let's keep trying, Mina!

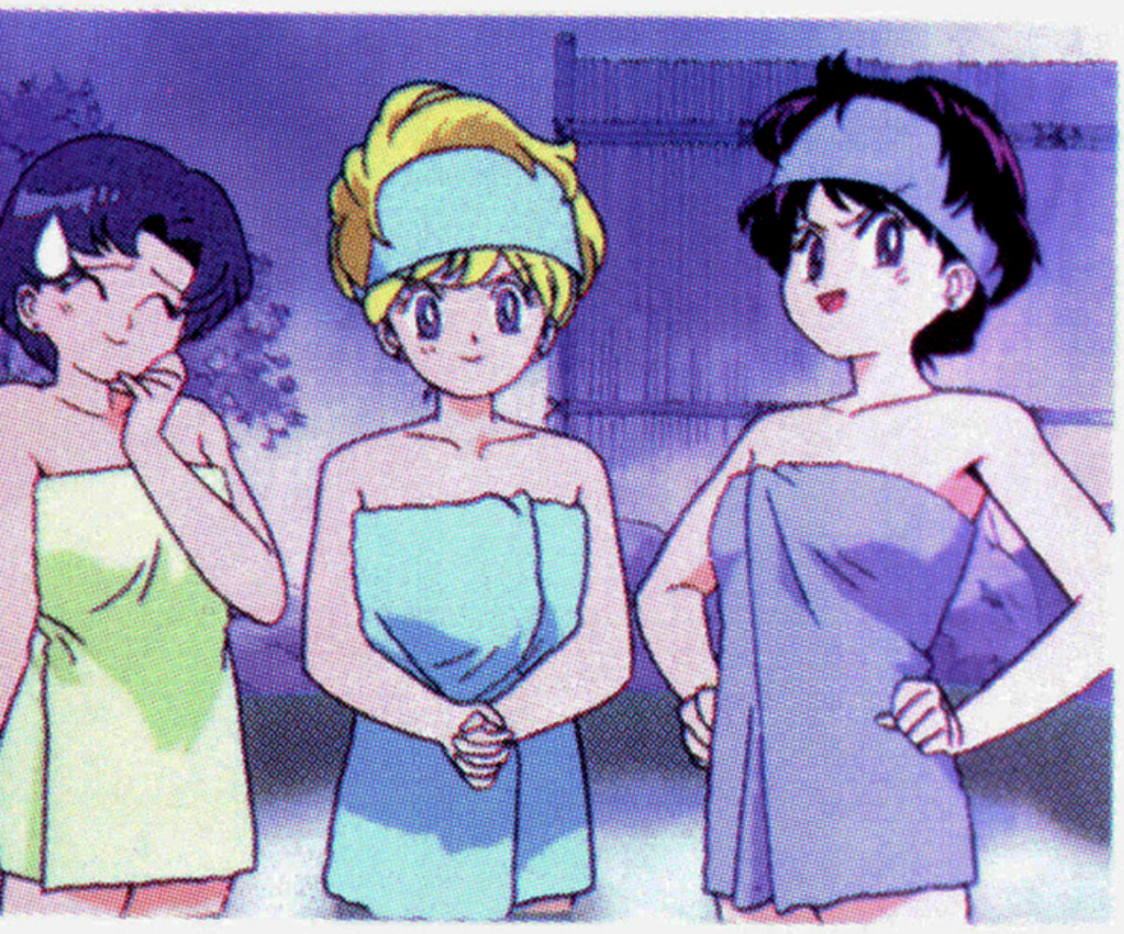


Mina and Serena look like twins.

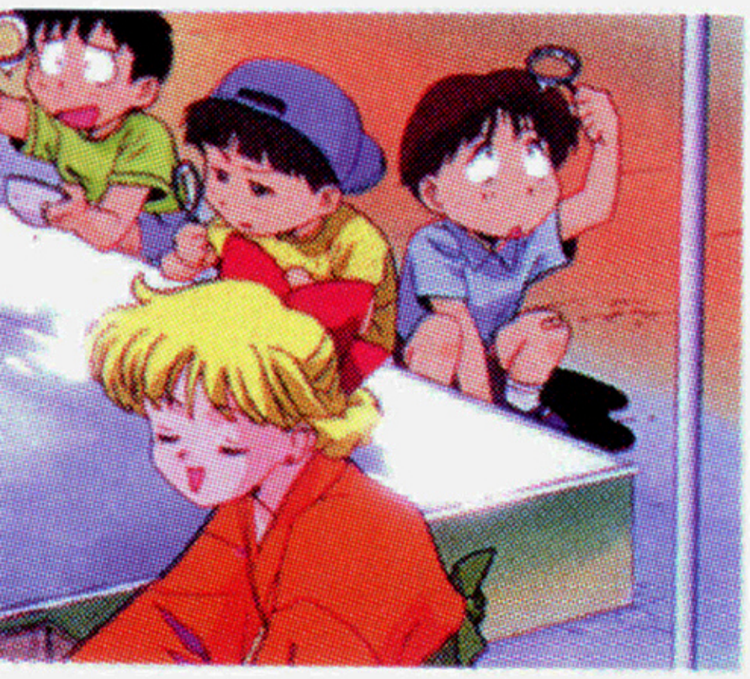
On a date with Takano, the second love of Mina's life.



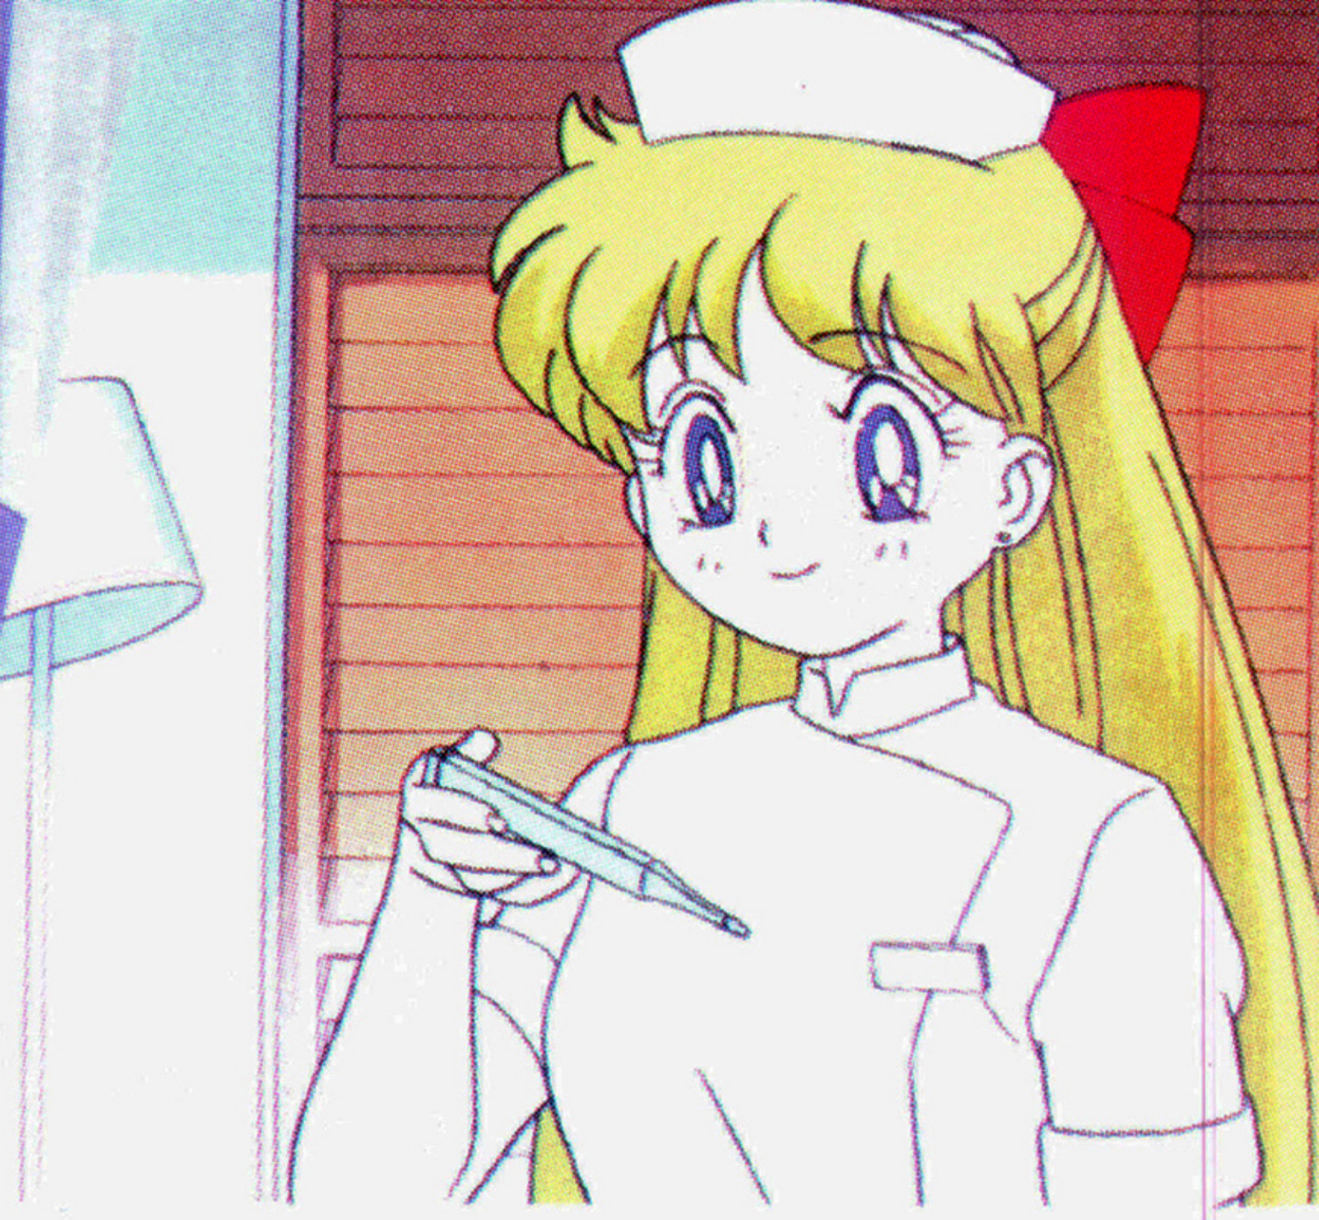
Mina plays hairdresser, combing out Serena's hair.



Mina bundles up her prized long hair in a towel when she takes a bath.

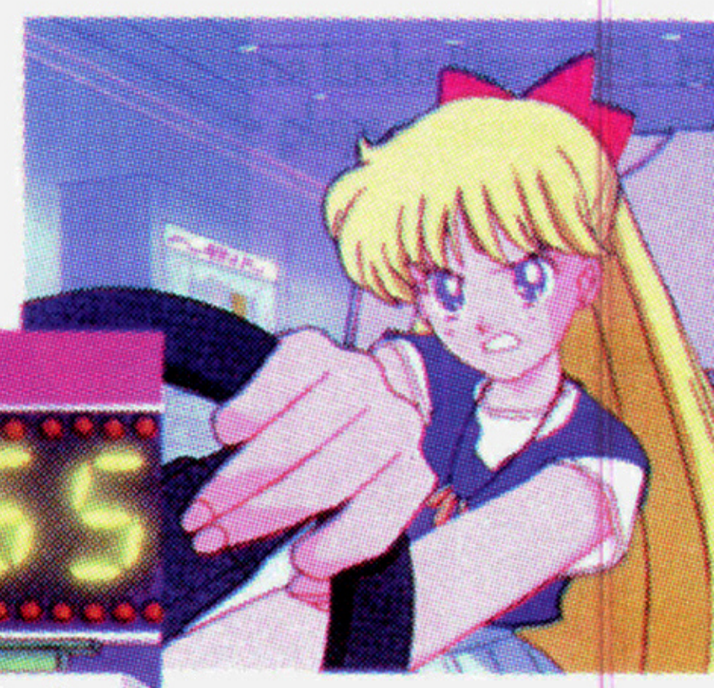


Mina at the goldfish-catching booth-those obnoxious little kids are driving her crazy.



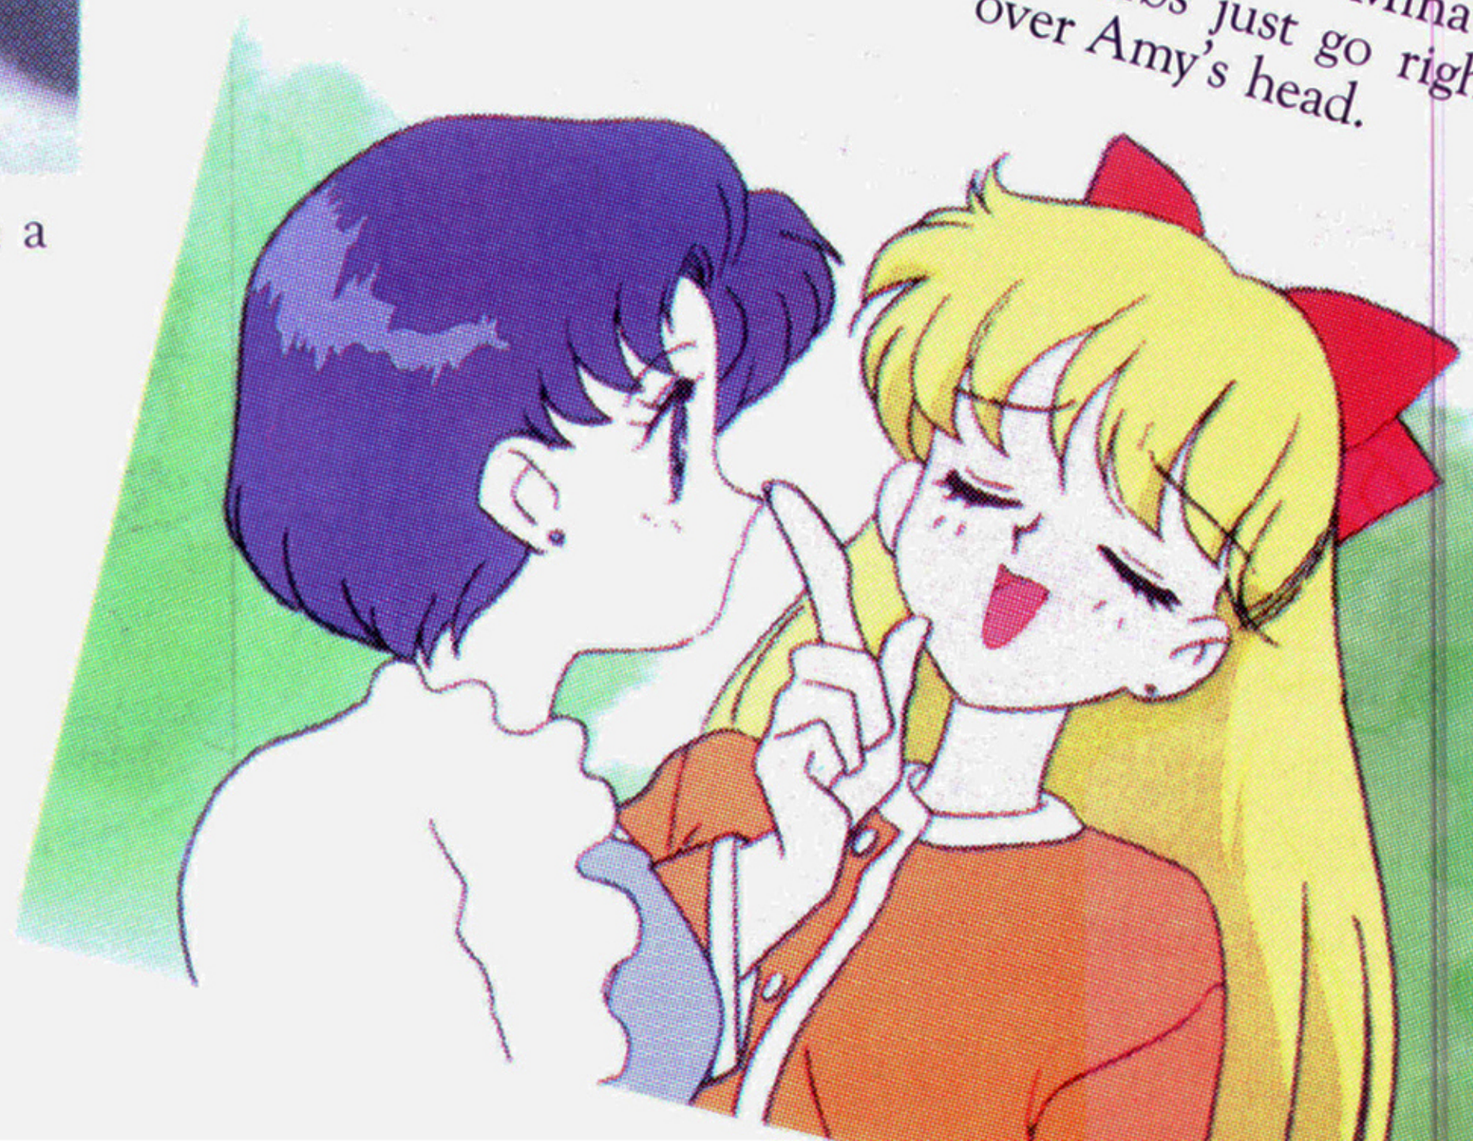
Mina nurses her sailor colleagues back to health. Doesn't she look stylish in her nurse's uniform?

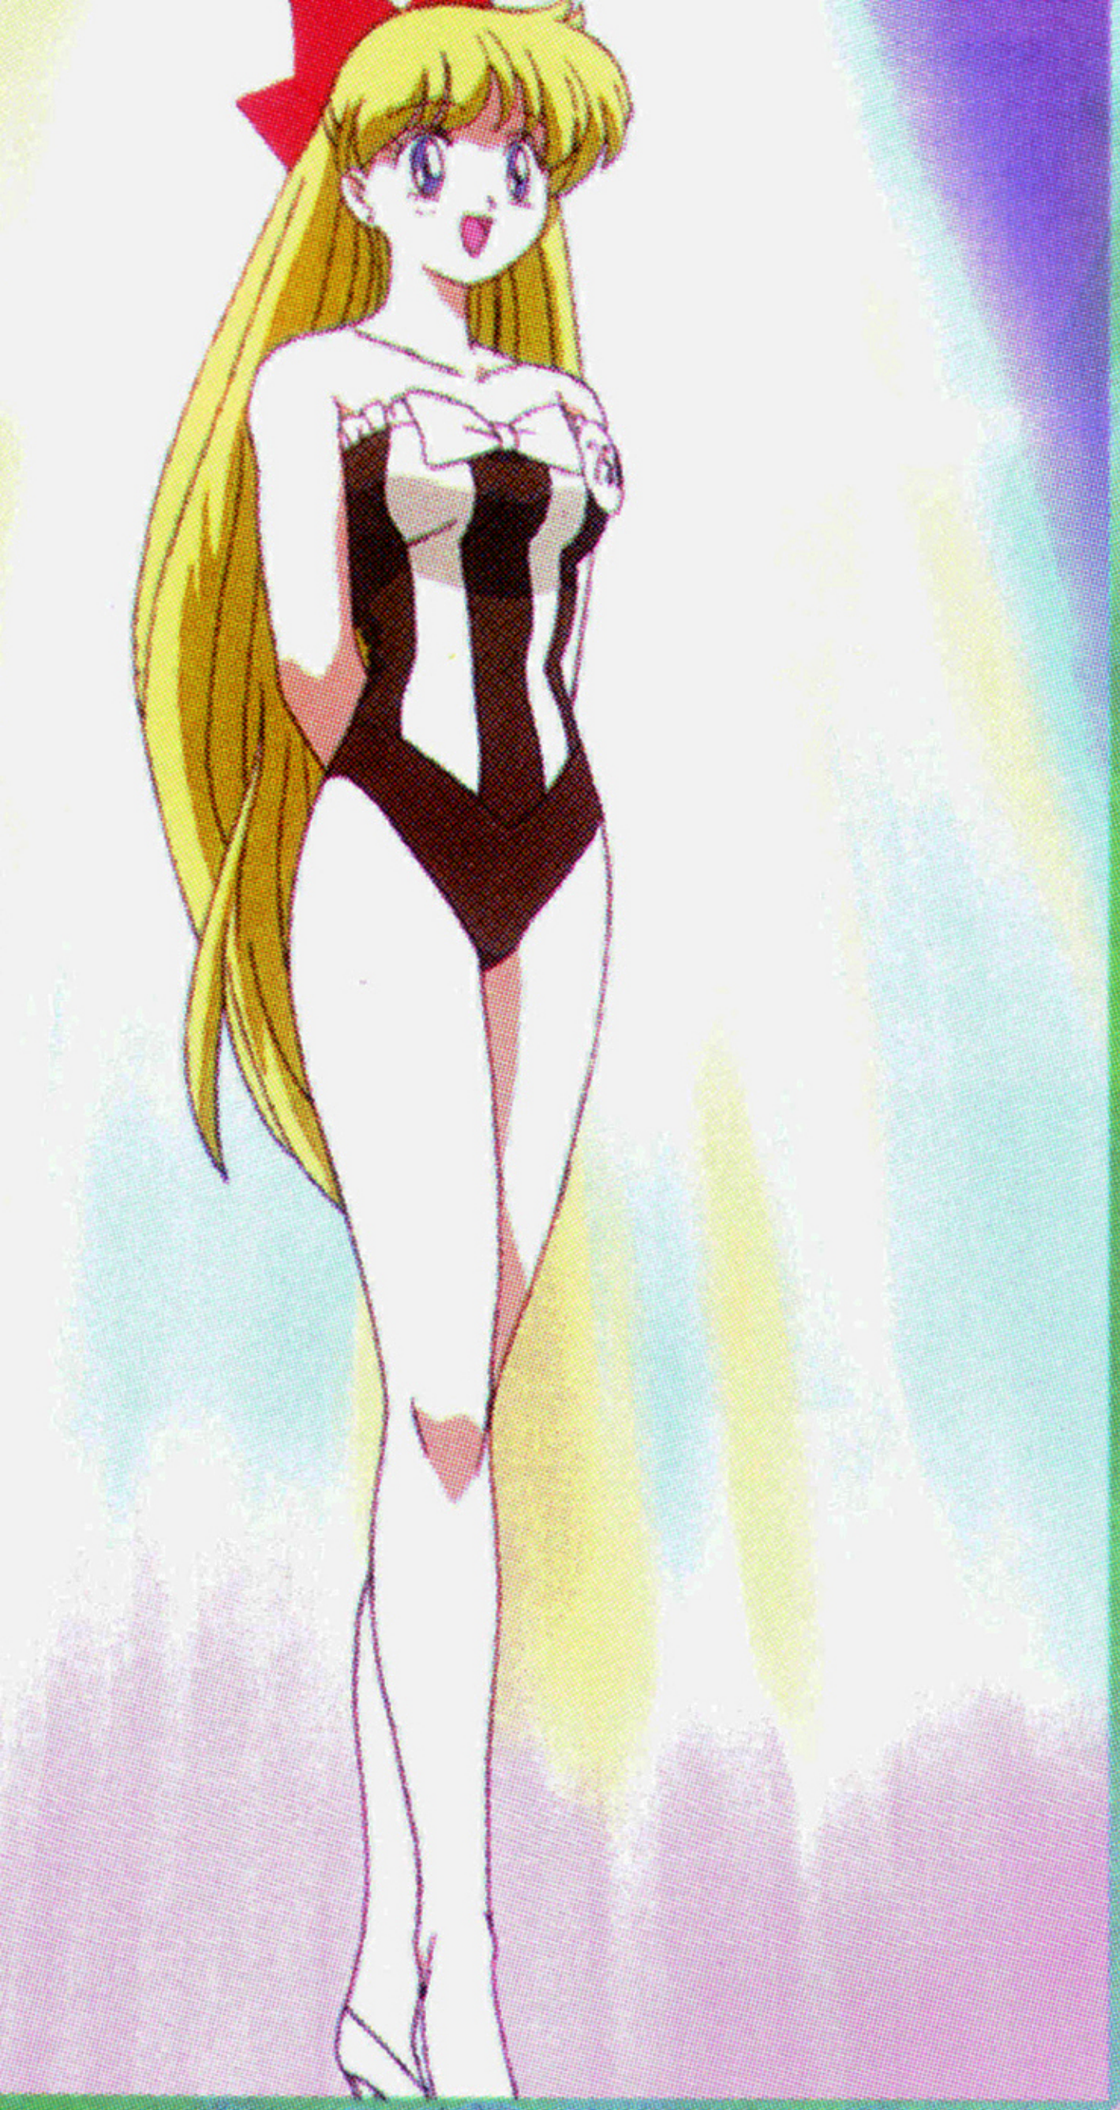
Mina looks like an F-1 racer as she plays a racing video game.



What a knockout!

Here's Mina sharing her advice with Amy, but some of Mina's proverbs just go right over Amy's head.



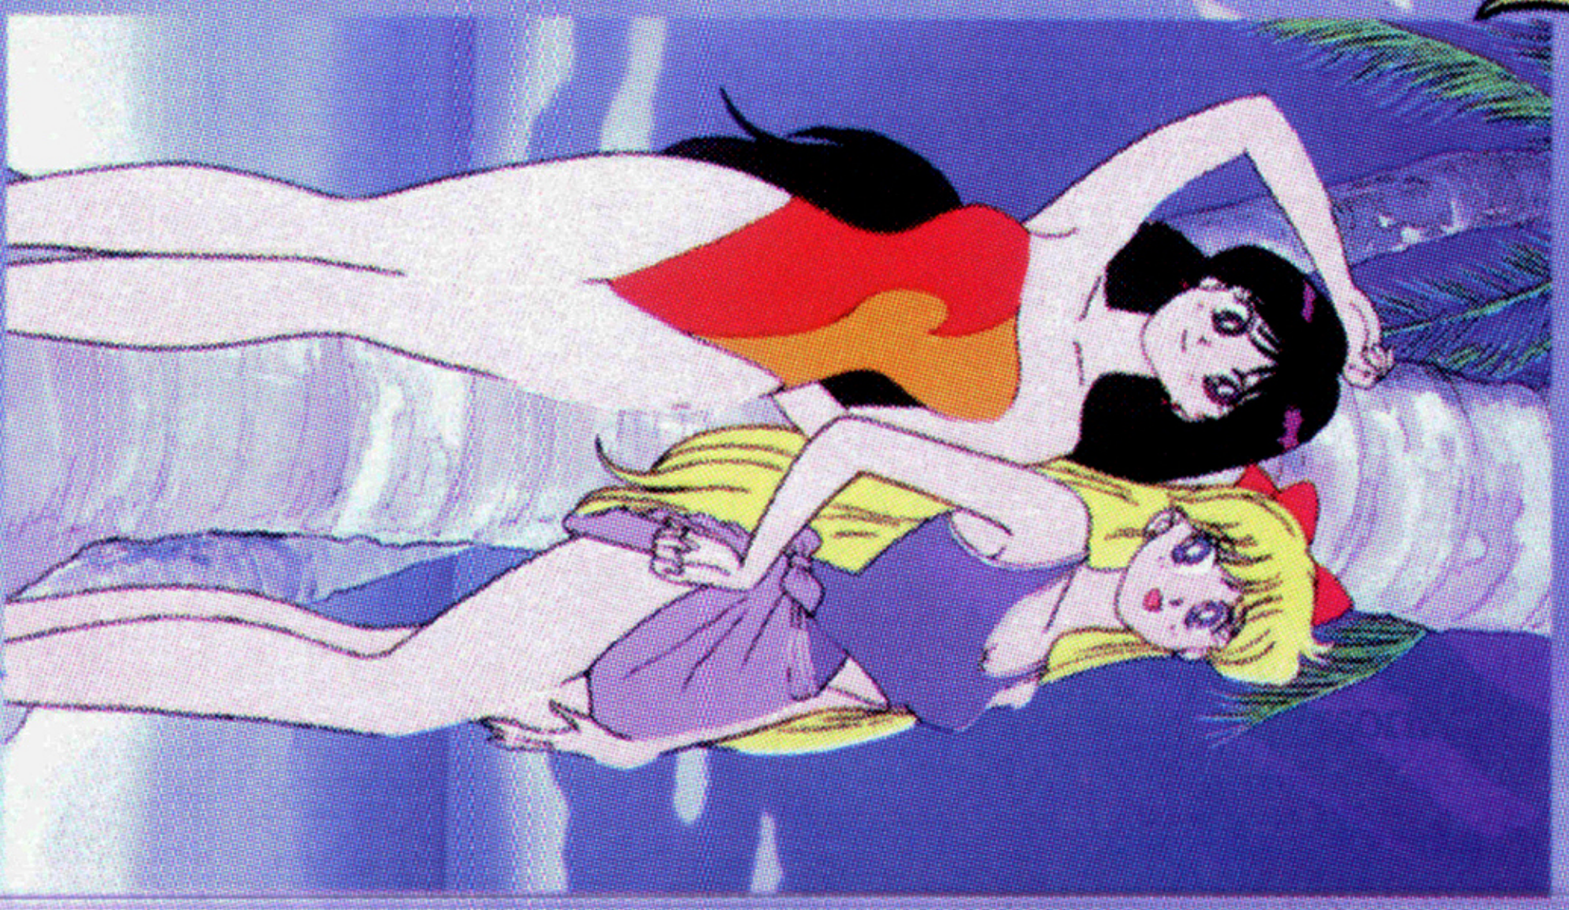


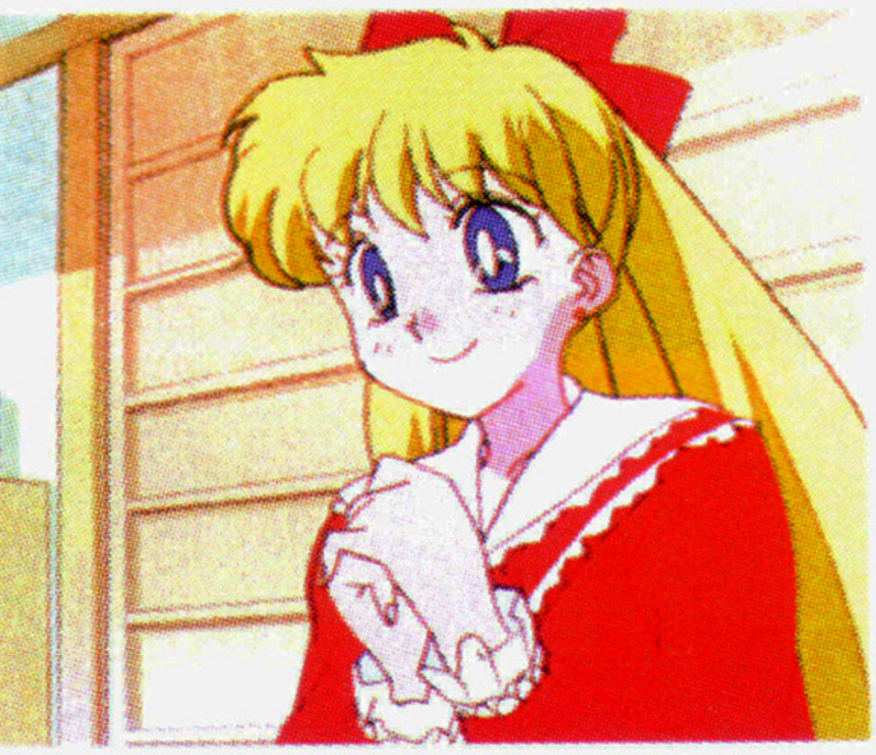
I'm a real fan of the ocean. Relaxing on a boat with the midsummer sun shining above and an iced tropical drink in my hand, it's just the best! It would be great if I could just stop time! Now, if I had a cool boyfriend at my side, it would be just perfect! But then, spending my incredibly valuable private time on myself isn't all that bad either, is it?

This is the bathing suit I wore to audition for the role of sidekick to that popular star Jinta Araki. Aren't the ribbons and trim just lovely?

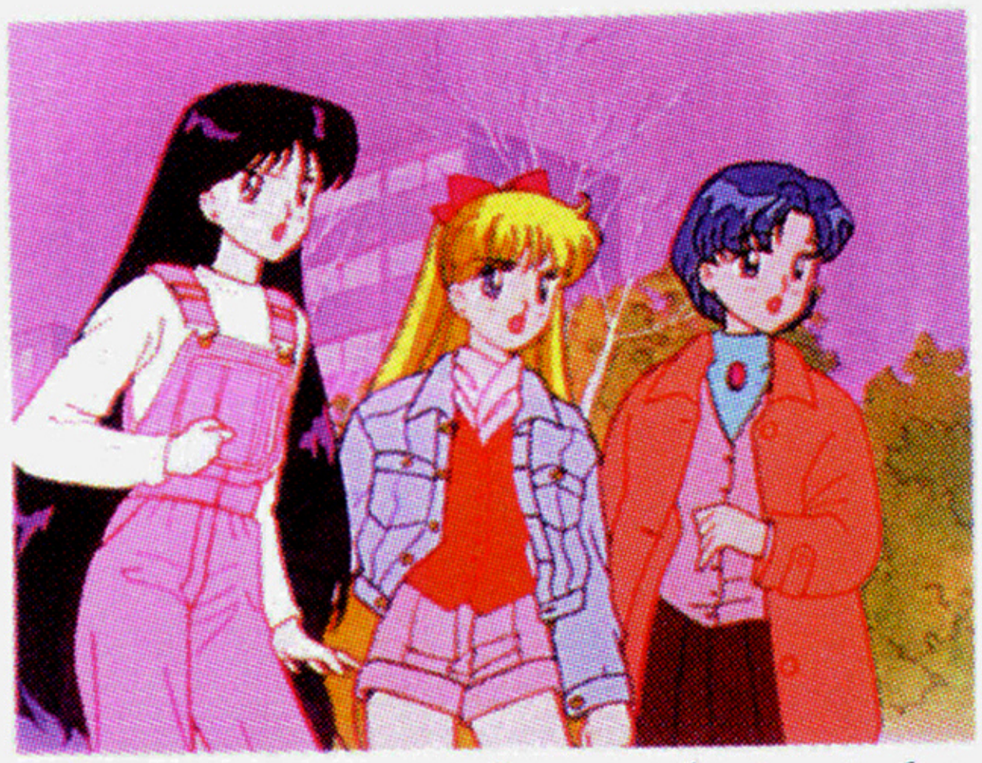
Mina's Summer Fashion!

Say "Cheese!" Raye and Mina at the shore. My bathing suit is a purple one-piece, with a midriff section cut-out. I accessorize with a sarong tied around my waist..





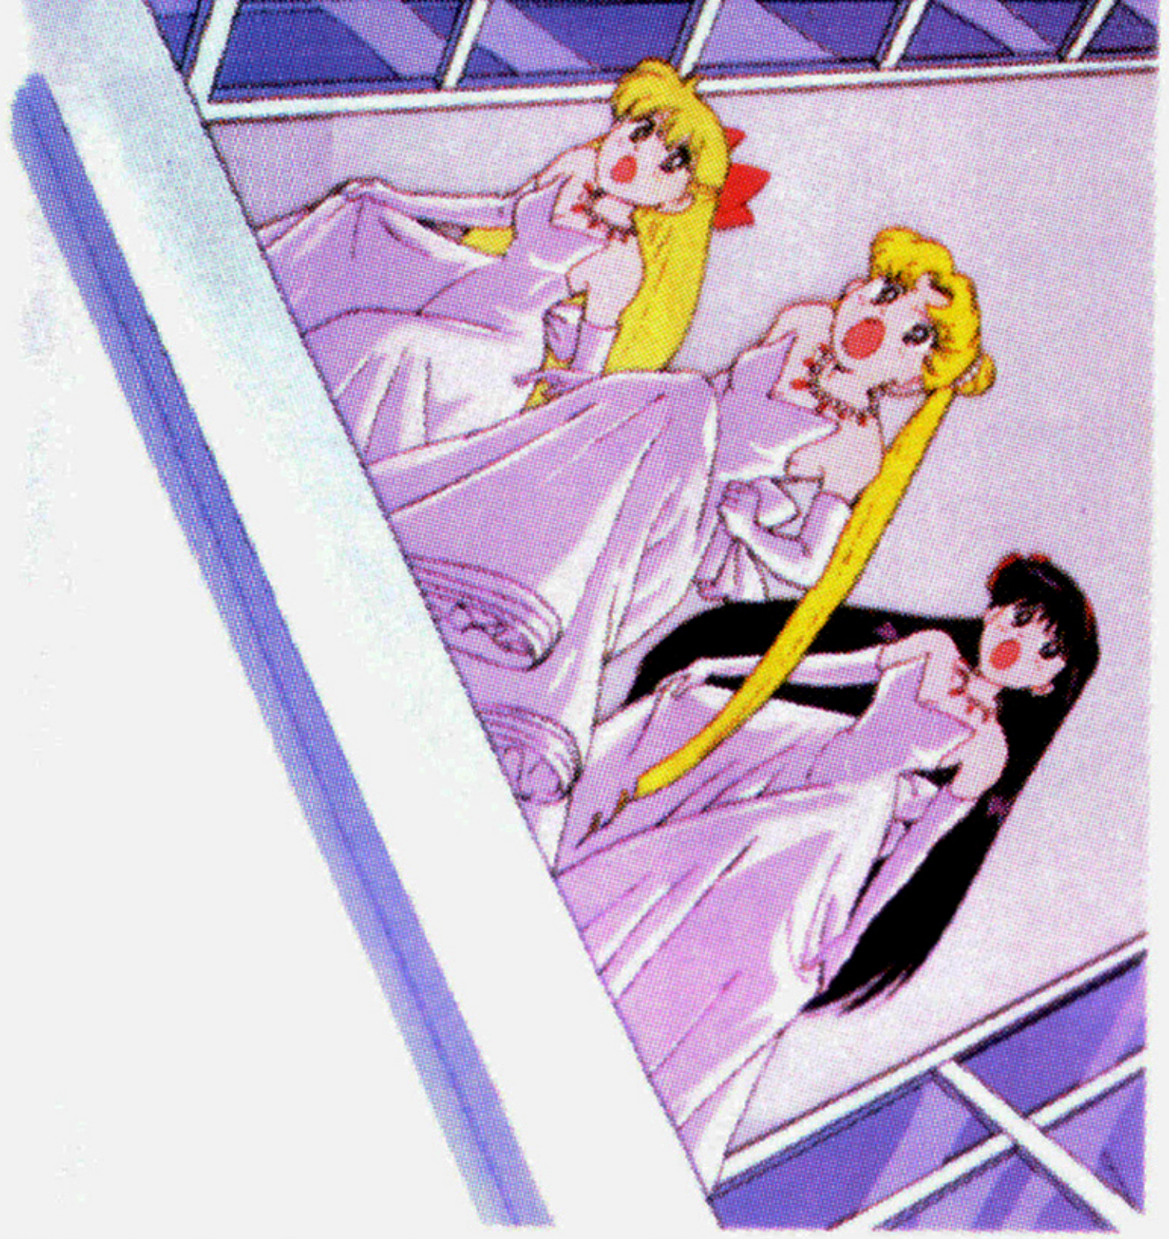
My favorite red dress--the frills make it really special.



In my denim jacket and mini-shorts, I'm ready for anything!

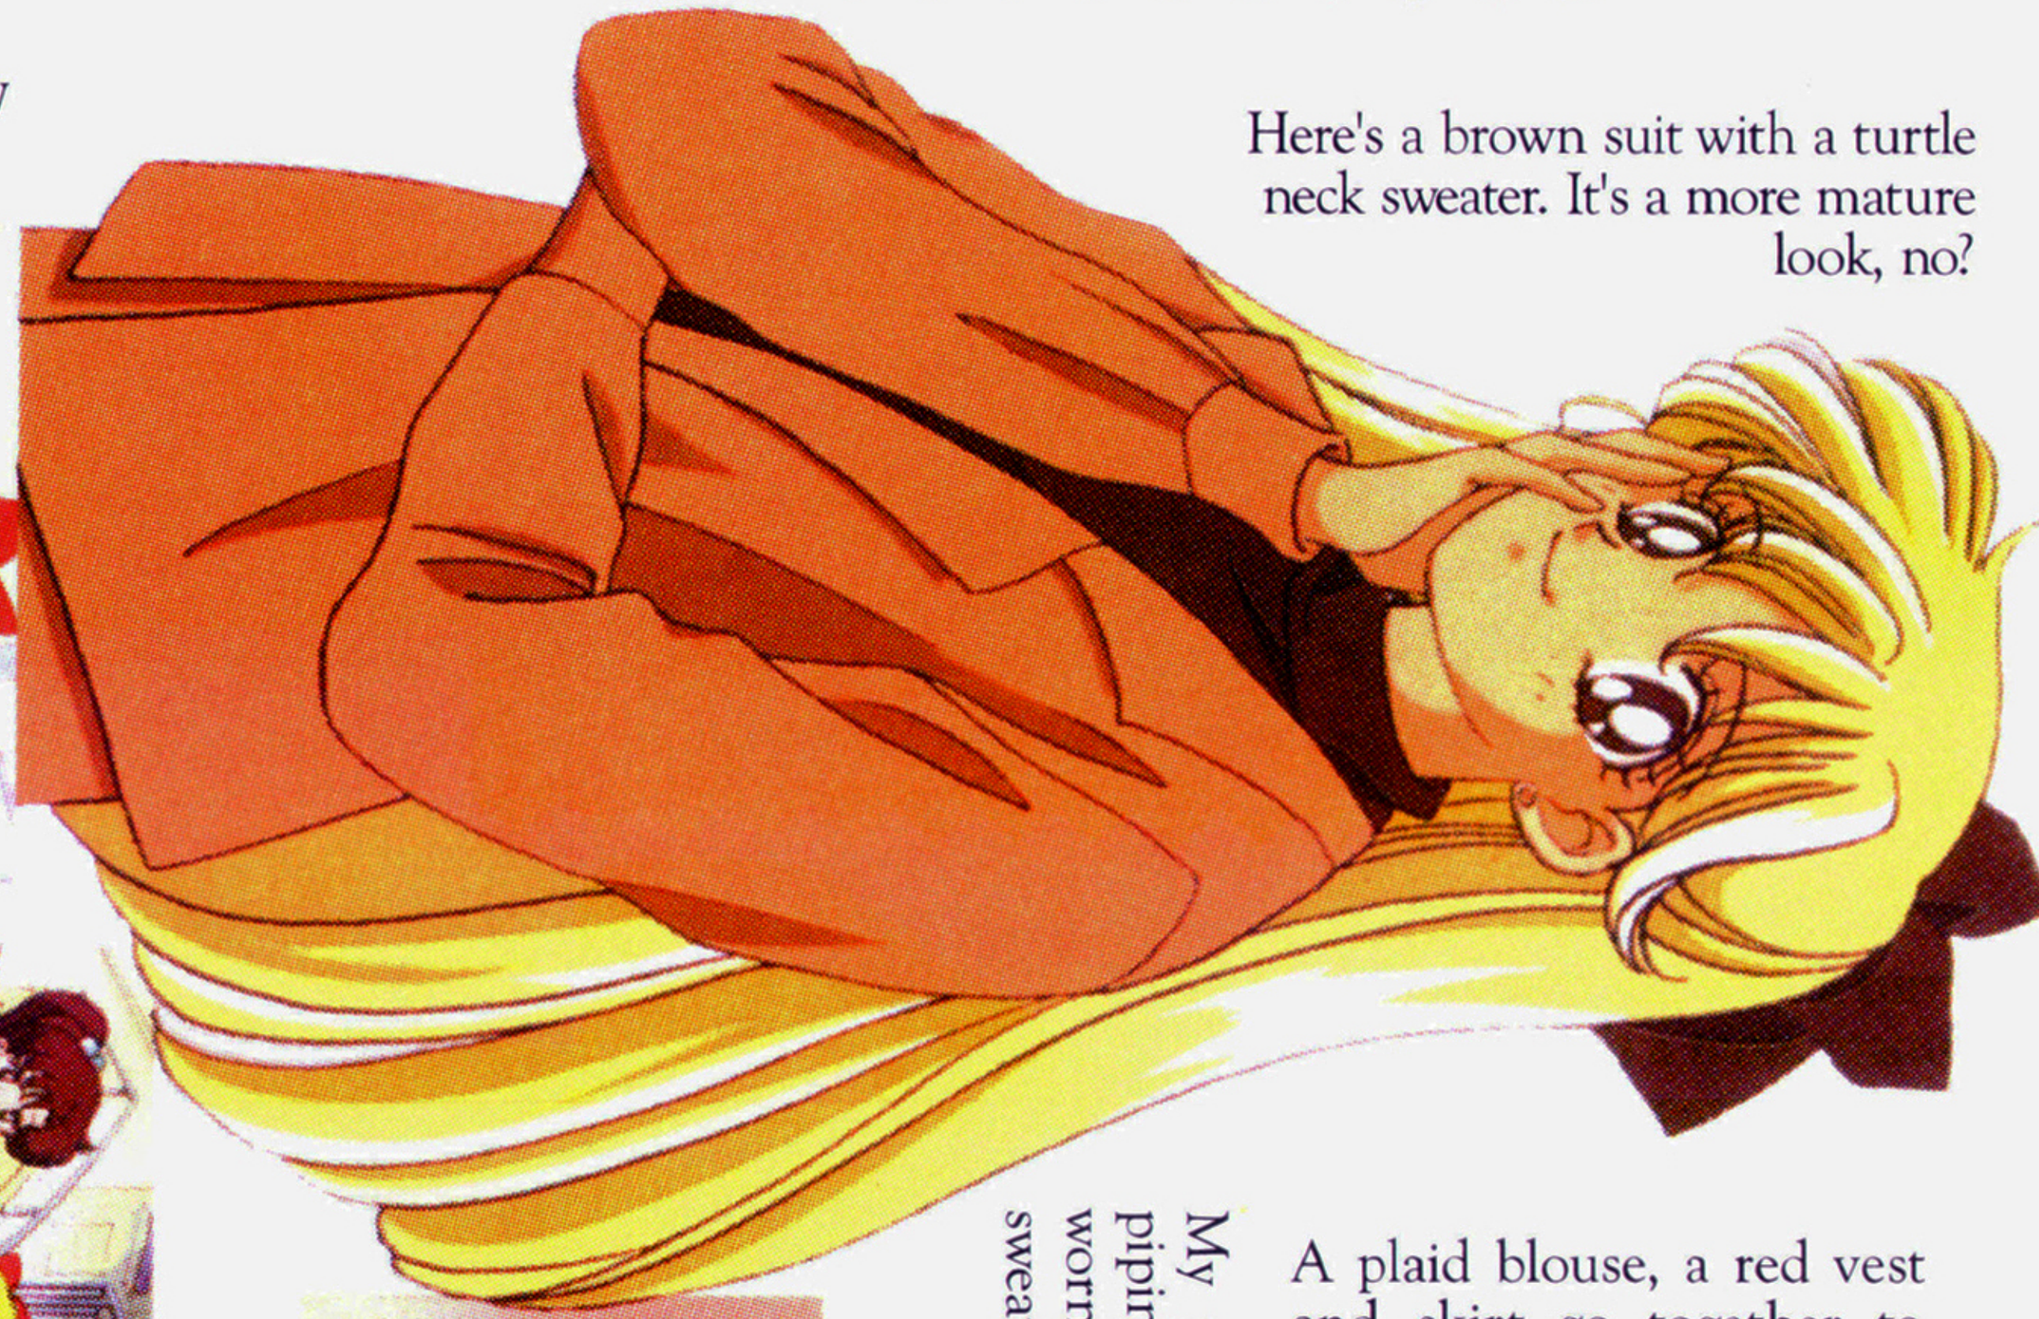
I dream about becoming a famous singer someday. That's why I'm trying for a look that's a little bit different from the mainstream. For the time being, I've got to keep experimenting with new styles until I hit the big time!

My plain white blouse and matching flared red skirt. I wear this when I want to feel young.



This is the dress I wore to the Princess Seminar. It was so hard to move in!

On cold days, a heavy safari jacket is key!

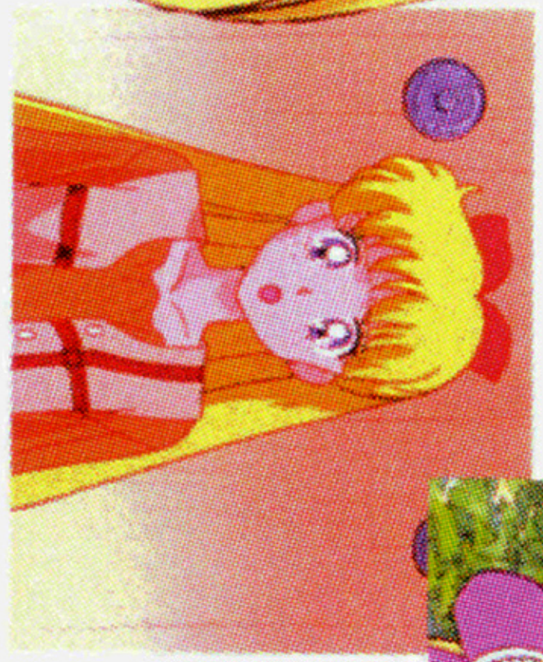


Here's a brown suit with a turtle neck sweater. It's a more mature look, no?

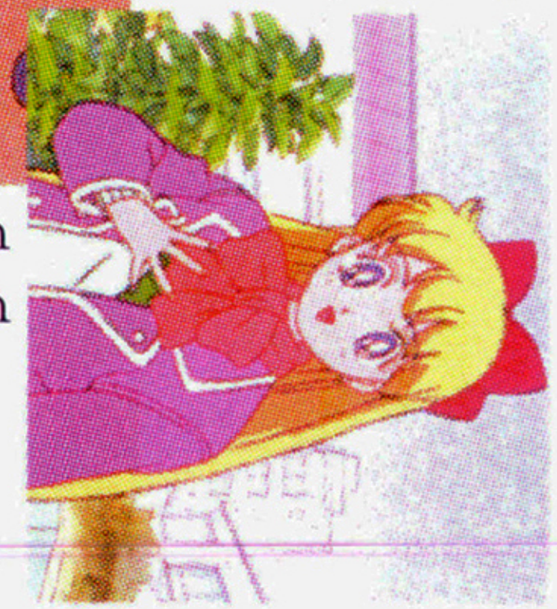
The color orange defines the Venus image.

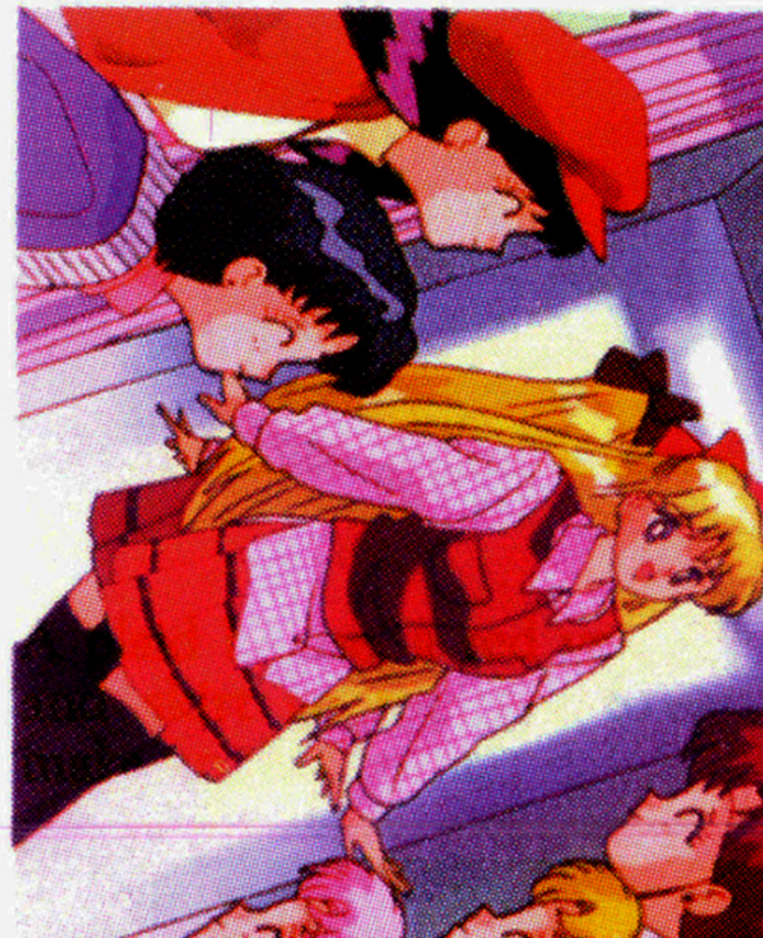
My purple coat with piping on the lapels, worn over a light blue sweater.

A plaid blouse, a red vest and skirt go together to make up this outfit.

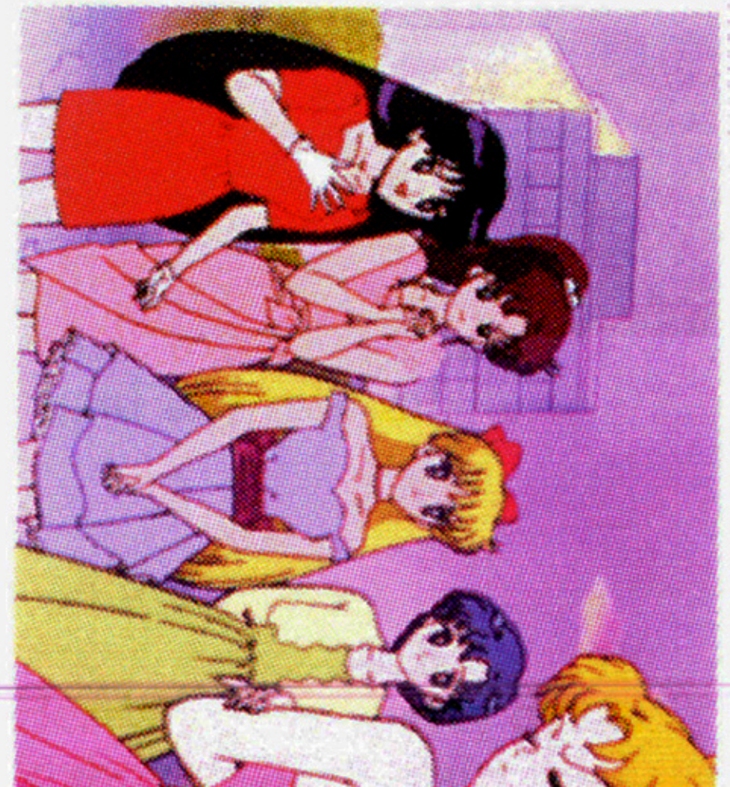


Here I'm in an orange shirt with a simple vest.





Here's a violet party dress. It shows off my waistline.



My purple sweatshirt and pleated miniskirt-the skirt's pretty short, don't you think?

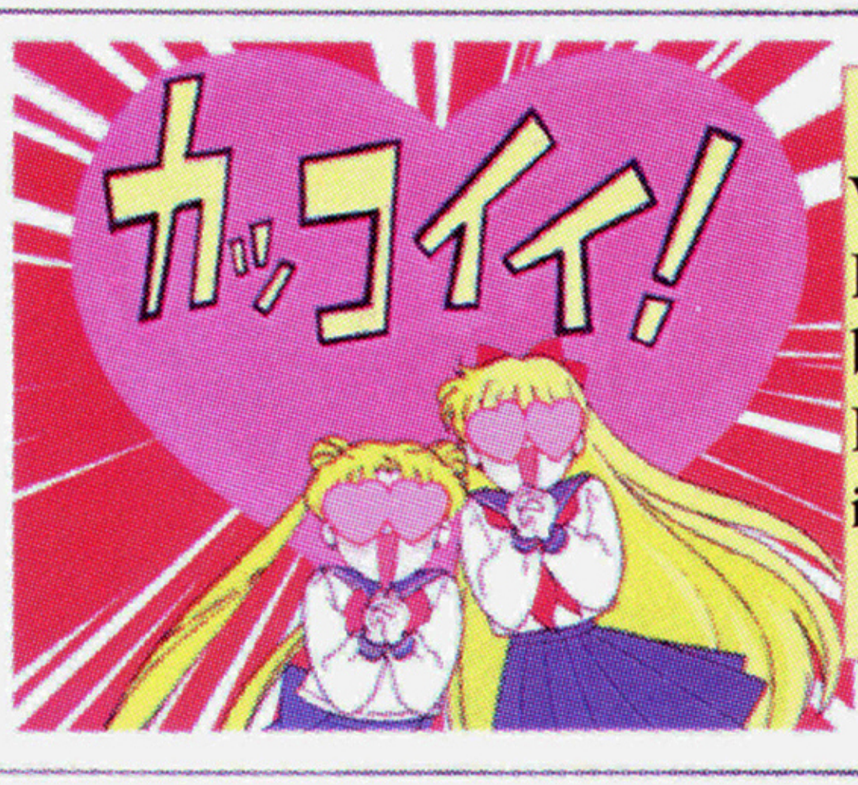
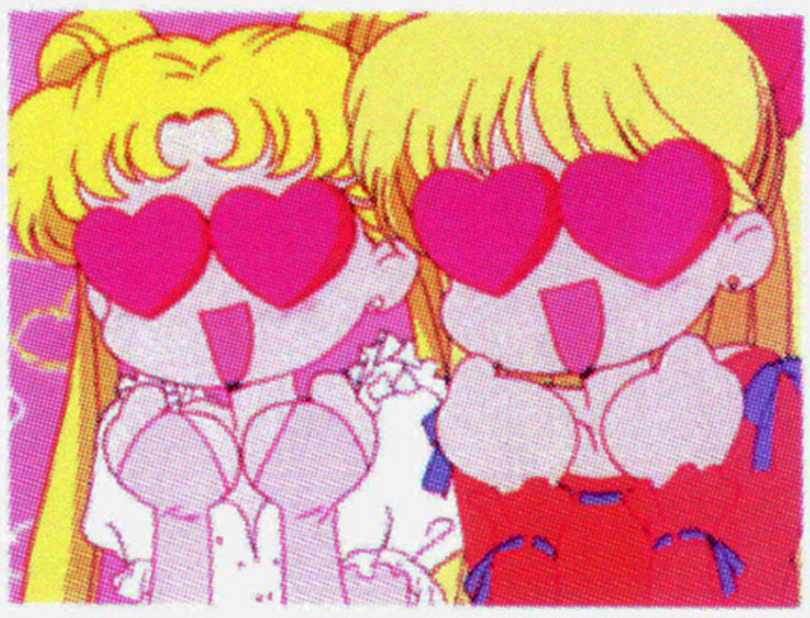
Presenting Mina's fun photos, brought to you by me, Serena Tsukino! Let's start looking!

Scout Guide

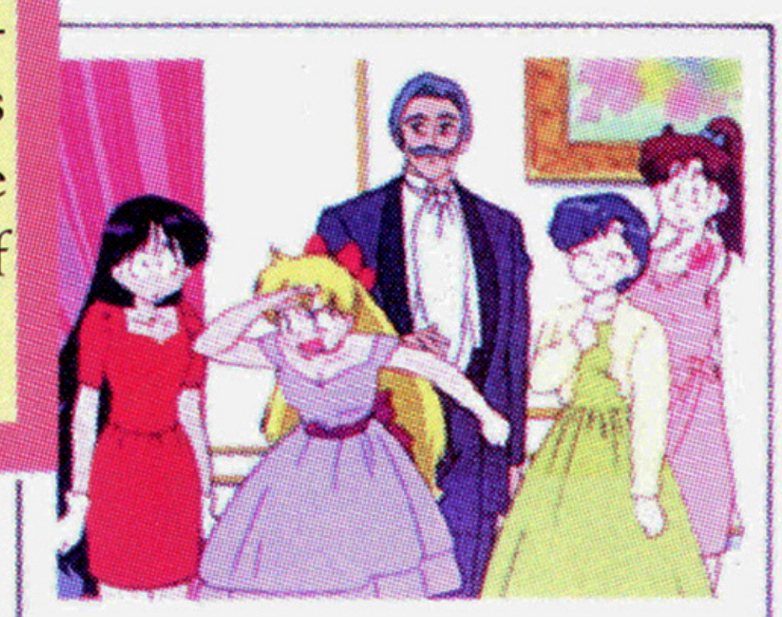


When we first met Haruka, Mina and I both freaked out! Haruka was just so incredibly cool.

Seeing Misha at the skating rink, we were both very impressed. Is it possible that Mina and I have the same taste in men?



Mina cruising for attractive guys at Mr. Edward's party. The rest of us are getting a little tired of this!

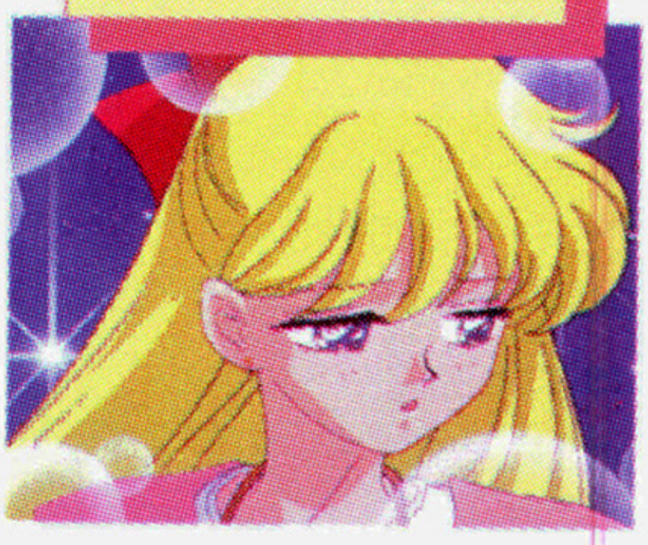


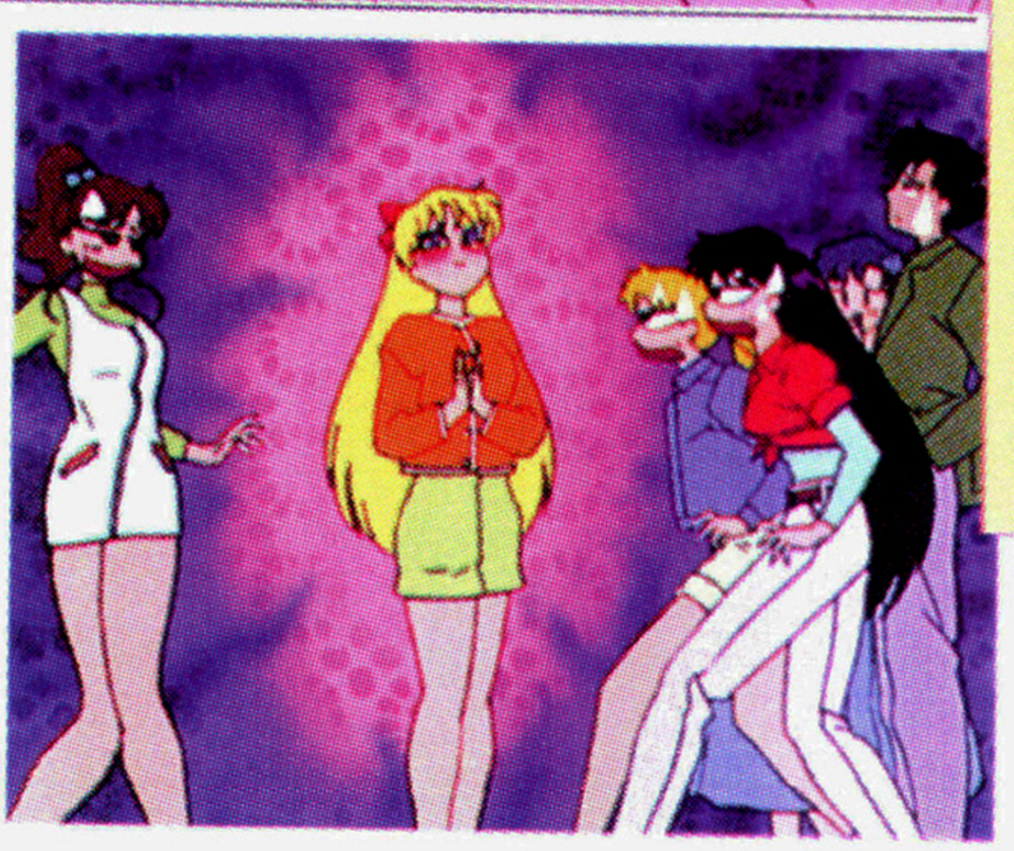
Mina finds out that Haruka is really a girl, and goes ballistic! Things like this always seem to happen to us.

People say Mina and I look alike, but I'm not this bad!

Mina is such an actress, she even fools me sometimes!

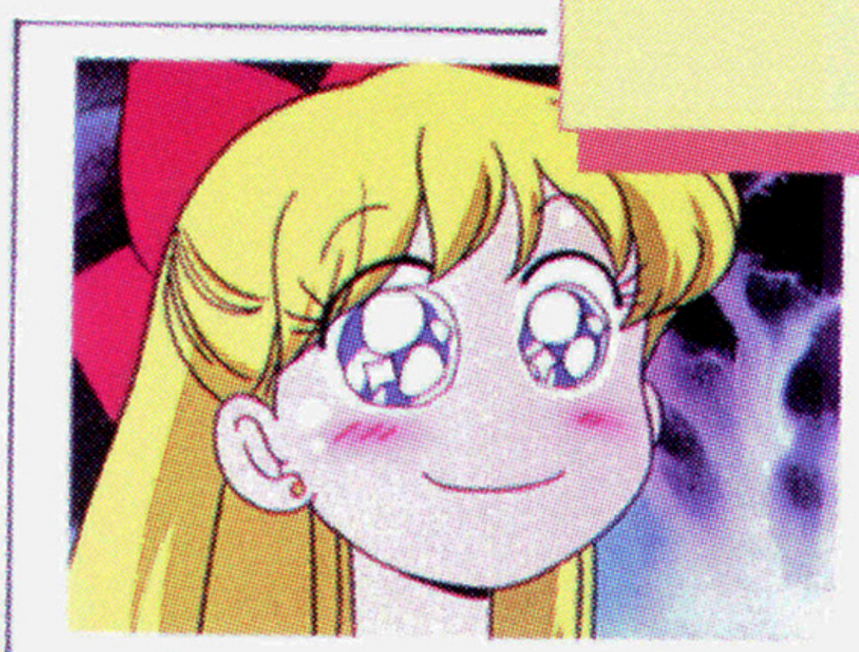
It's hard to believe that Mina is just acting. She looks so serious!

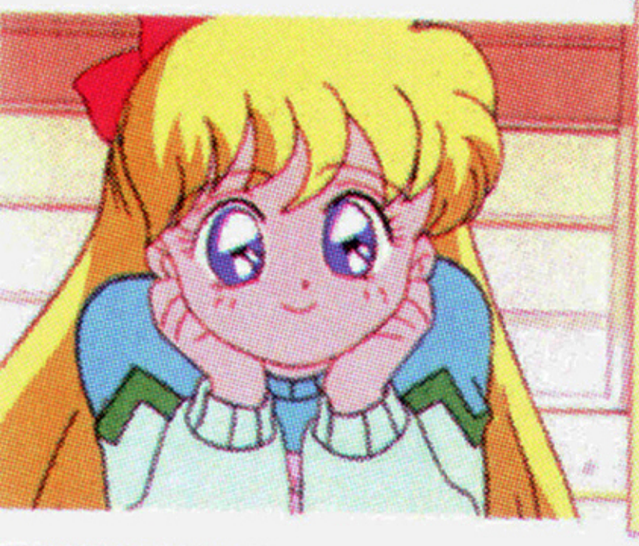




Mina acting cute as we argue over who should be the leader. Everyone else in the gang gets kind of sick of it.

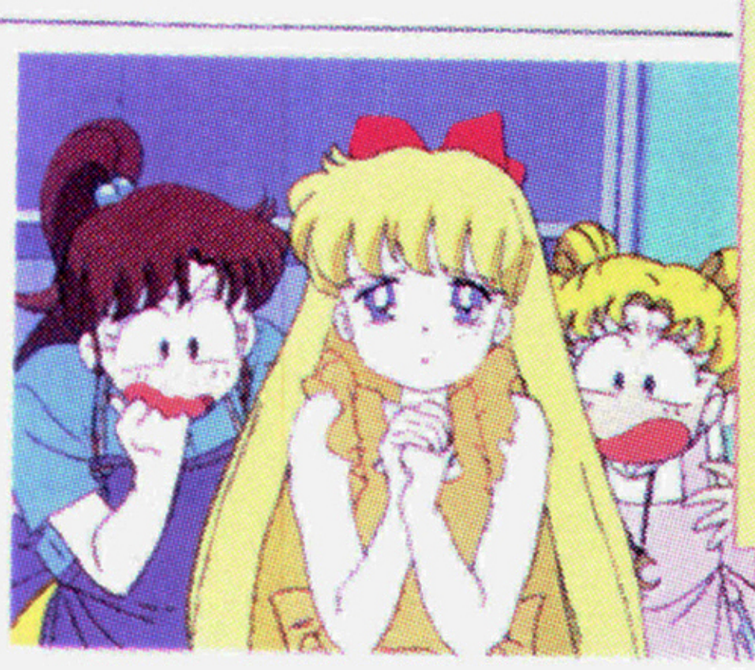
Mina has the best smile!



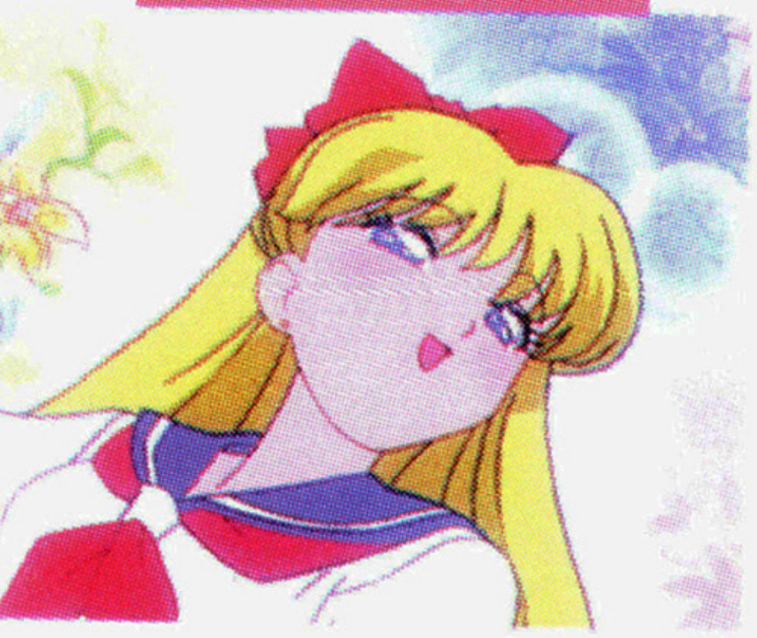


When she looks at you with those eyes, it's hard to stay angry at her. But the porridge she made that day was really, really gross!

Every time she donates blood, Mina gets more stuck up. Hey, everyone, don't follow her example!



When Mina cut her finger, Lita was really freaked out! Actually, though, it turned out that Mina didn't cut anything.



Mina really shines when she's made up to go out on dates. Her beauty is another one of the powers she uses well.

Mina is pretty cold to kids. She just doesn't get along well with them!

When Mina's really upset, she has this weird intensity—it's really scary!

Mina is pretty easy-going, but she can hold a grudge. If she loses it, look out!

Here, Mina goes off because of an unwelcome comment by Artemis! It's hard on Artemis to have a partner with such a short fuse.

Mina can be really sarcastic. Remember Mina, you should try to get along with others–teamwork is the key!

In my nightmare, this is how Mina and Rini appeared. Sure, it wasn't real, but it was still scary!

Artemis blows his nose with Mina's handkerchief. Those two really do make a good team!

A sharp comment gives Mina a pang in her heart. If someone talked that way to me, I'd be upset, too!

Mina thought she cut her finger, and she got really upset. In the overreaction department, I guess we're the same... maybe!

Mina panics when her secret identity is revealed. One of Mina's weaknesses is that she isn't able to lie.

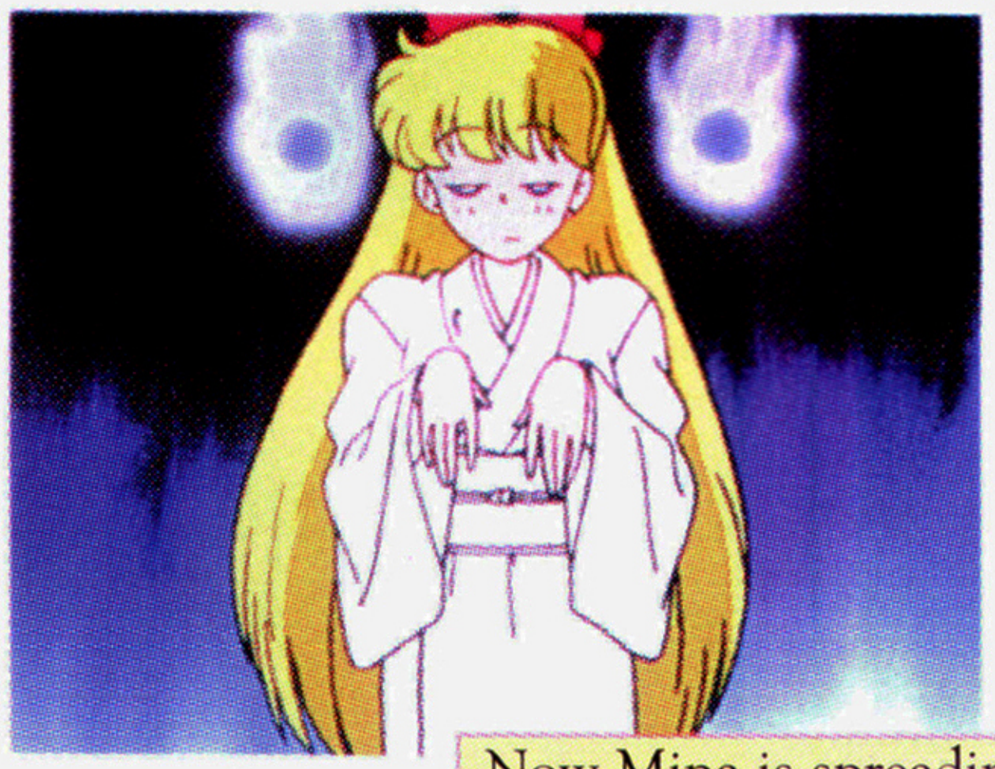
Deceived by the monster, all of a sudden it's game over! This is the trickiest enemy she's ever faced.

Haruka's race driving is way too much for Mina. Haruka's practically a professional driver!

A ball came speeding right at my face, and when it hit, it hurt so much I really thought I would die!

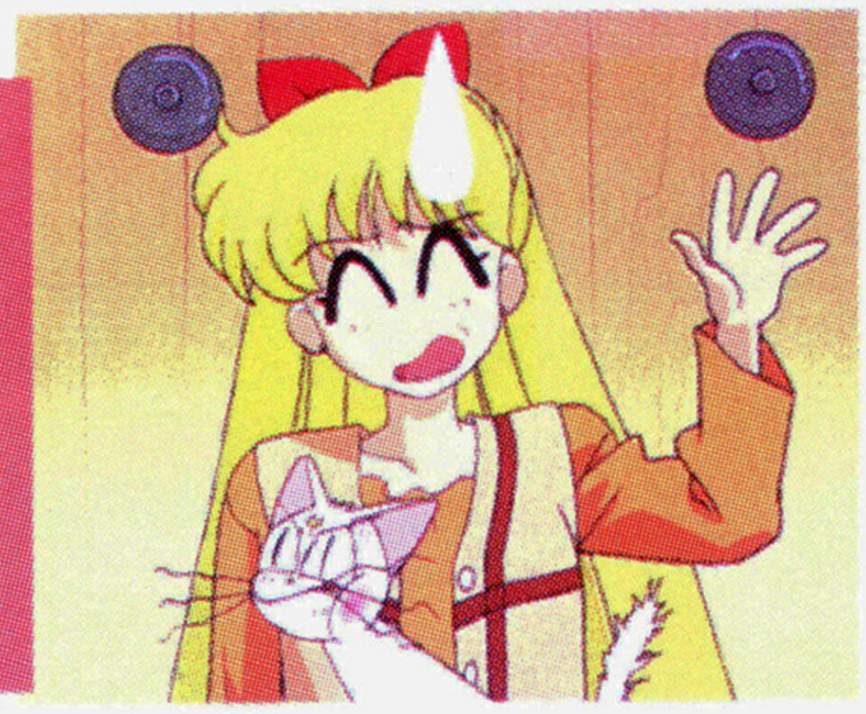
You'll have to practice for years before you'll be able to compete with me in the goofiness department!

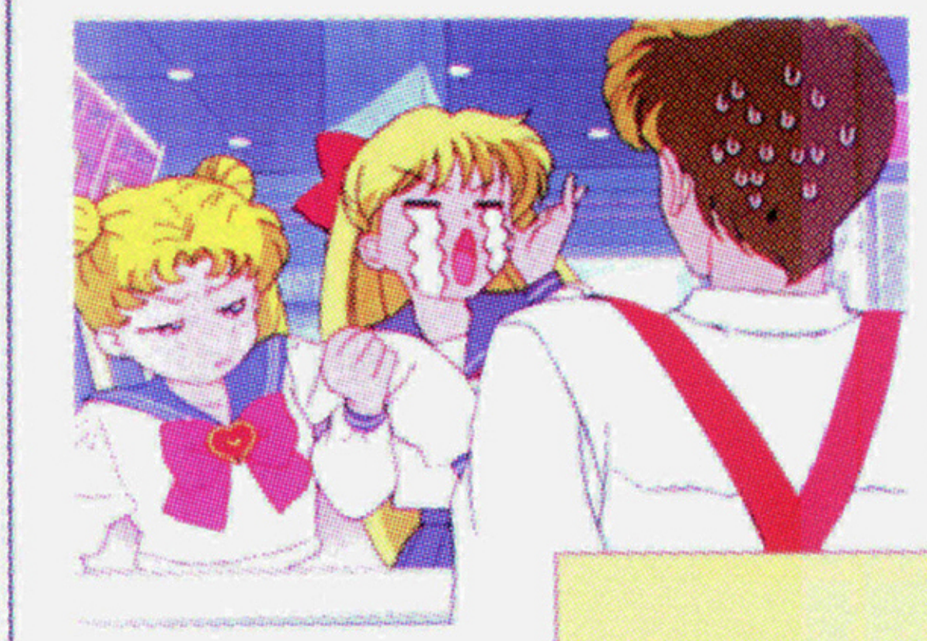
Mina pressed the wrong buttons on her stereo and made it explode! She's toast!



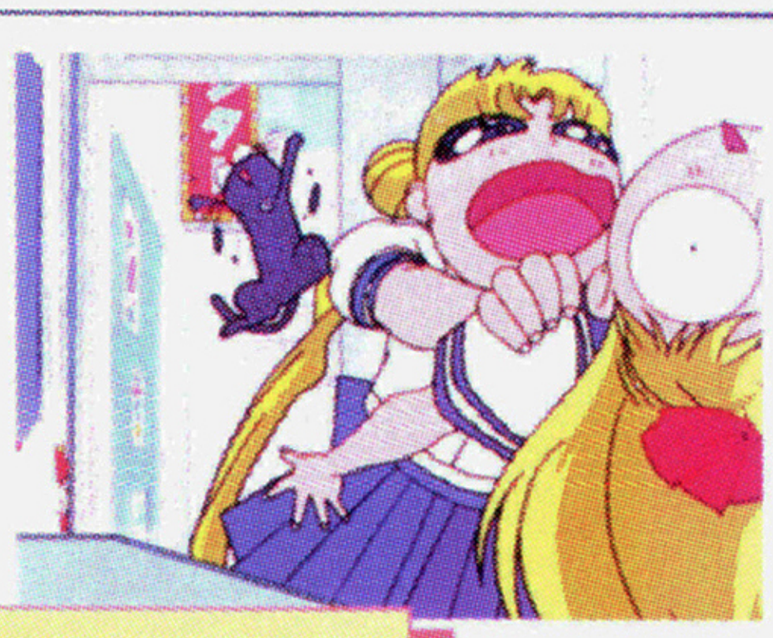
Now Mina is spreading a horrible rumor that Artemis has died! If Artemis hears about it, he'll really be mad! Don't you appreciate your partner at all?

Artemis gets smacked as he's about to spill all Mina's secrets! Let's take it easy on our partners, OK?





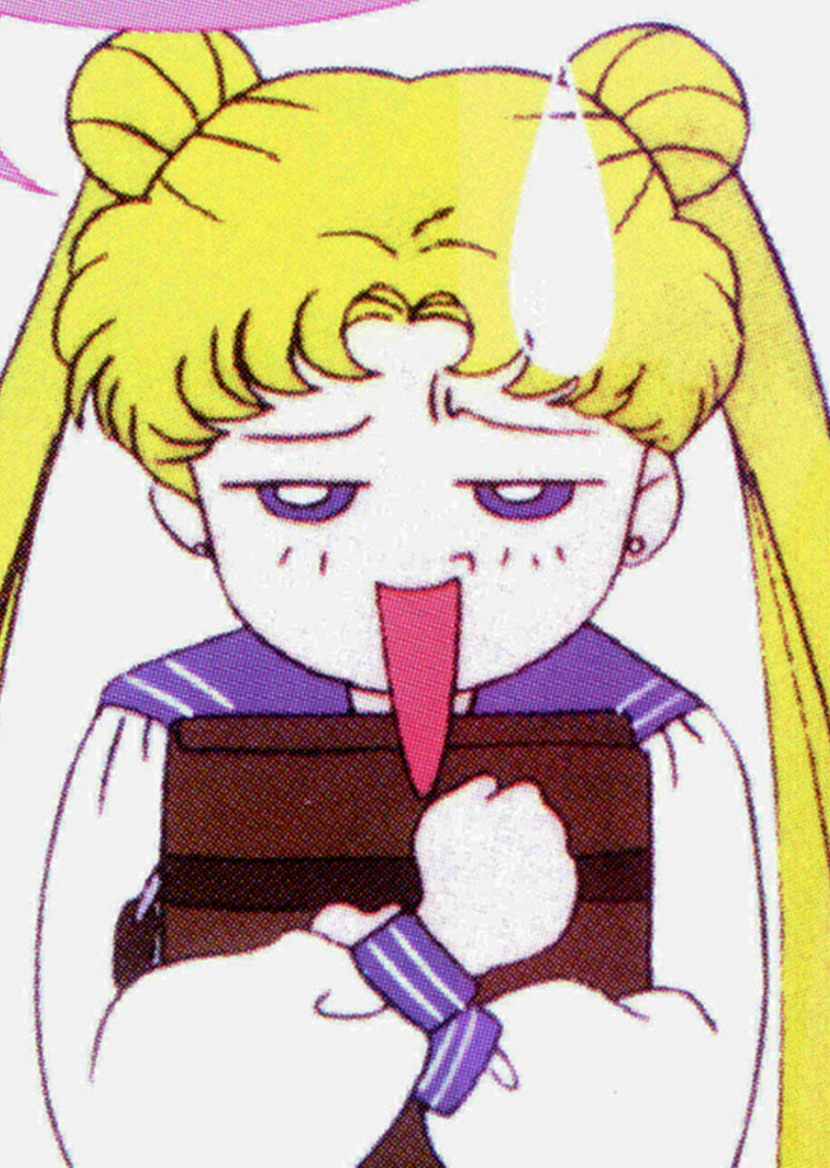
Mina's theatrics get old really fast for Andy.



Even though we worry about Mina's safety, she's always fooling around. Don't do anything dangerous!

Even I was surprised when I saw this. Why don't you use your power properly?

Trying to keep up with Mina will definitely wear you out.



When Mina tries to be funny, no one really ever gets the joke. So sometimes hanging out with her can be really awkward!

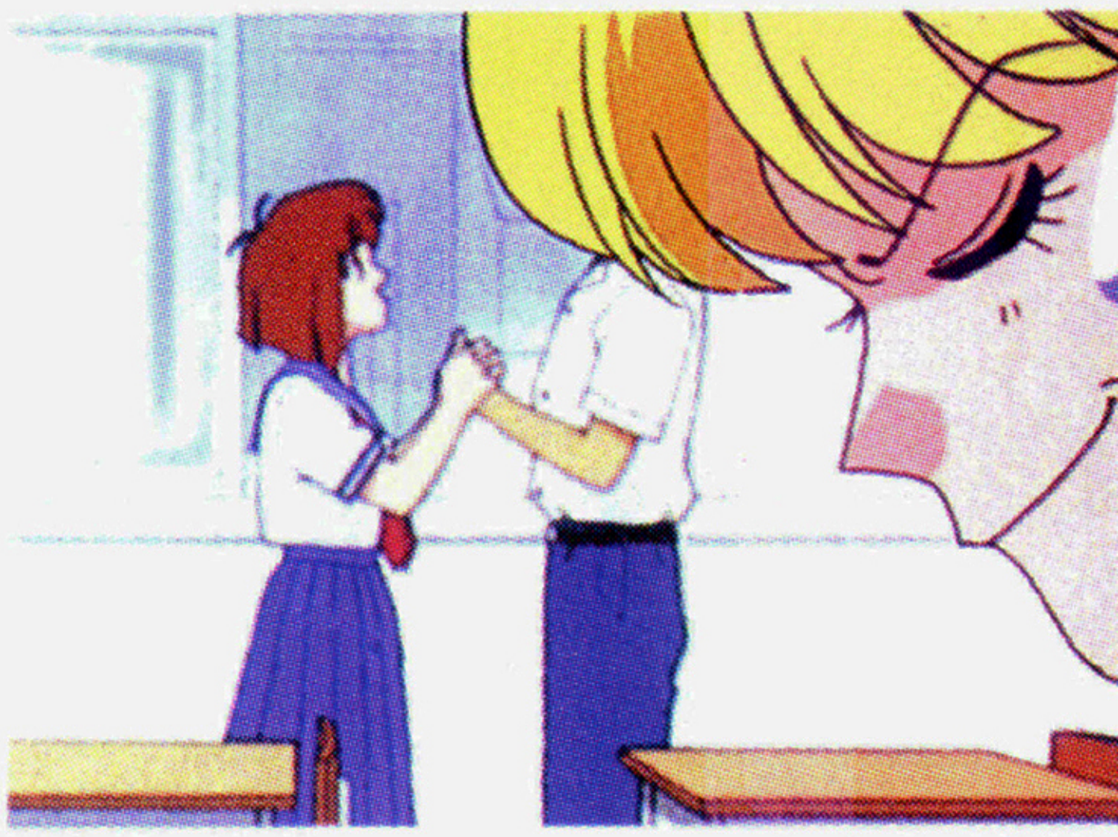
EPISODE 4

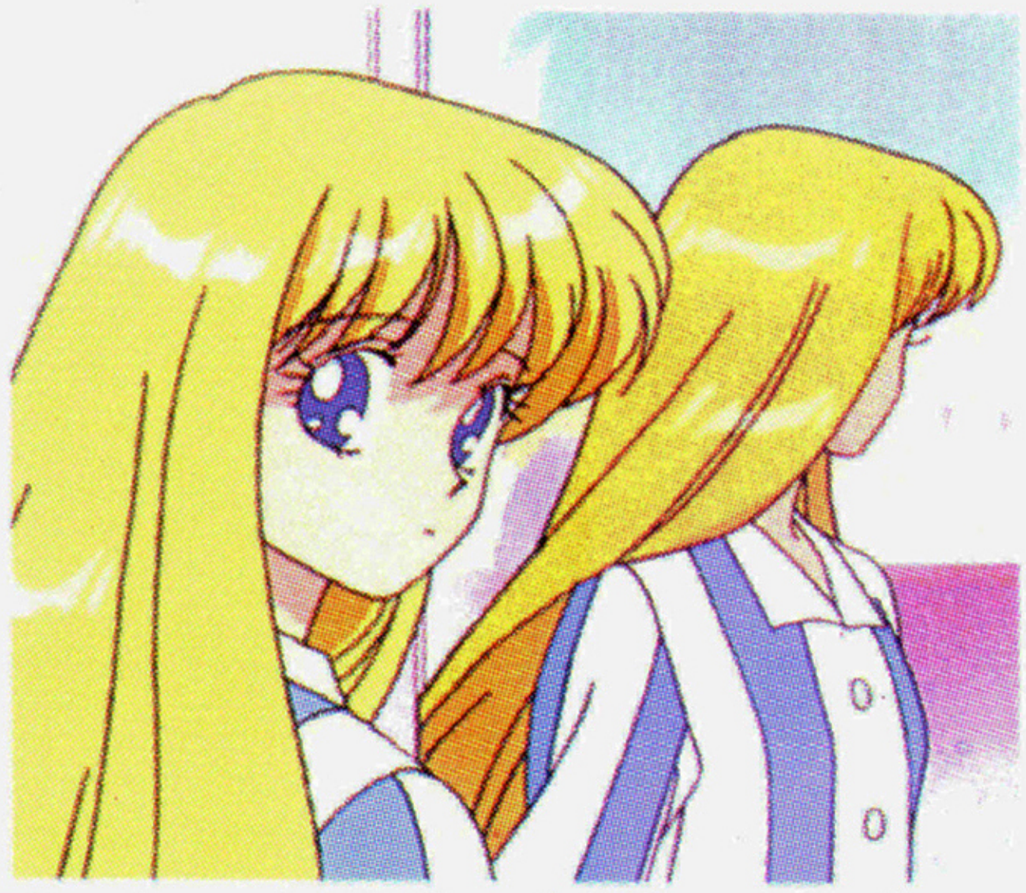
Make up your mind! Love's revolving door!

I want to fall in love like a normal girl. Do I have no choice but to quit the sailor team?

Mina wanted to fall in love, but knew that it just wasn't the right time.

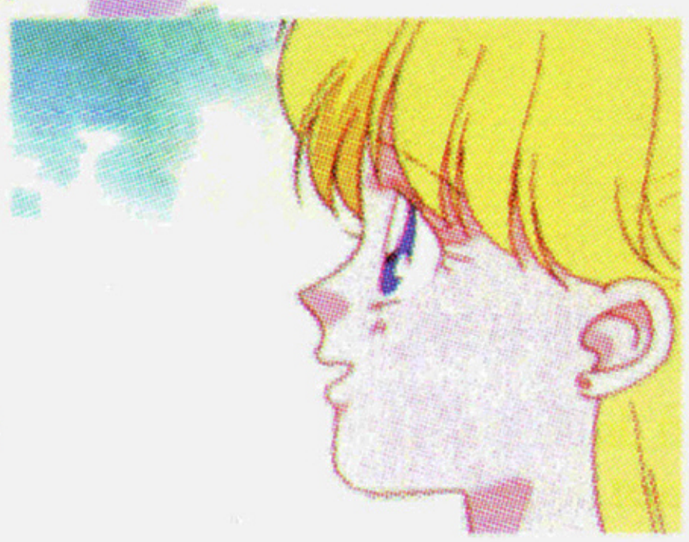


When Mina saw couples in love, she couldn't help feeling jealous.



The things he said made Mina question the way her life was going.

It was Asai, from the volleyball team.



Just as Mina was feeling unloved, someone called to her.

I want to fall in love! I want to be free! Where is my life?

Mina sees people all around her having fun and falling in love, and longs for what she is missing. Mina had to quit volleyball because she was too busy fighting evil. Naturally, she doesn't have any time for dates, either. A boy from the volleyball team reached out to Mina. He asked her why she had quit the team, but, of course, Mina couldn't tell him the real reason. Mina was tormented by having to choose between a normal life and her duty to the Sailor Team. Serena and the rest of the team are worried about Mina, but realize they have to leave her alone for a while. Finally, Mina visits Haruka to talk about her problem.

Asai is unusually flustered after his confession.

Troubled, Mina sat in silence for a while.

When Asai told her he once had feelings for her, it made Mina's heart race.

Mina lets go from sheer desperation.

Mina lets it slip that she wants to quit the Sailor Team. Lita and Raye realize that Mina isn't kidding.

Mina's friends are surprised by her strange behavior.

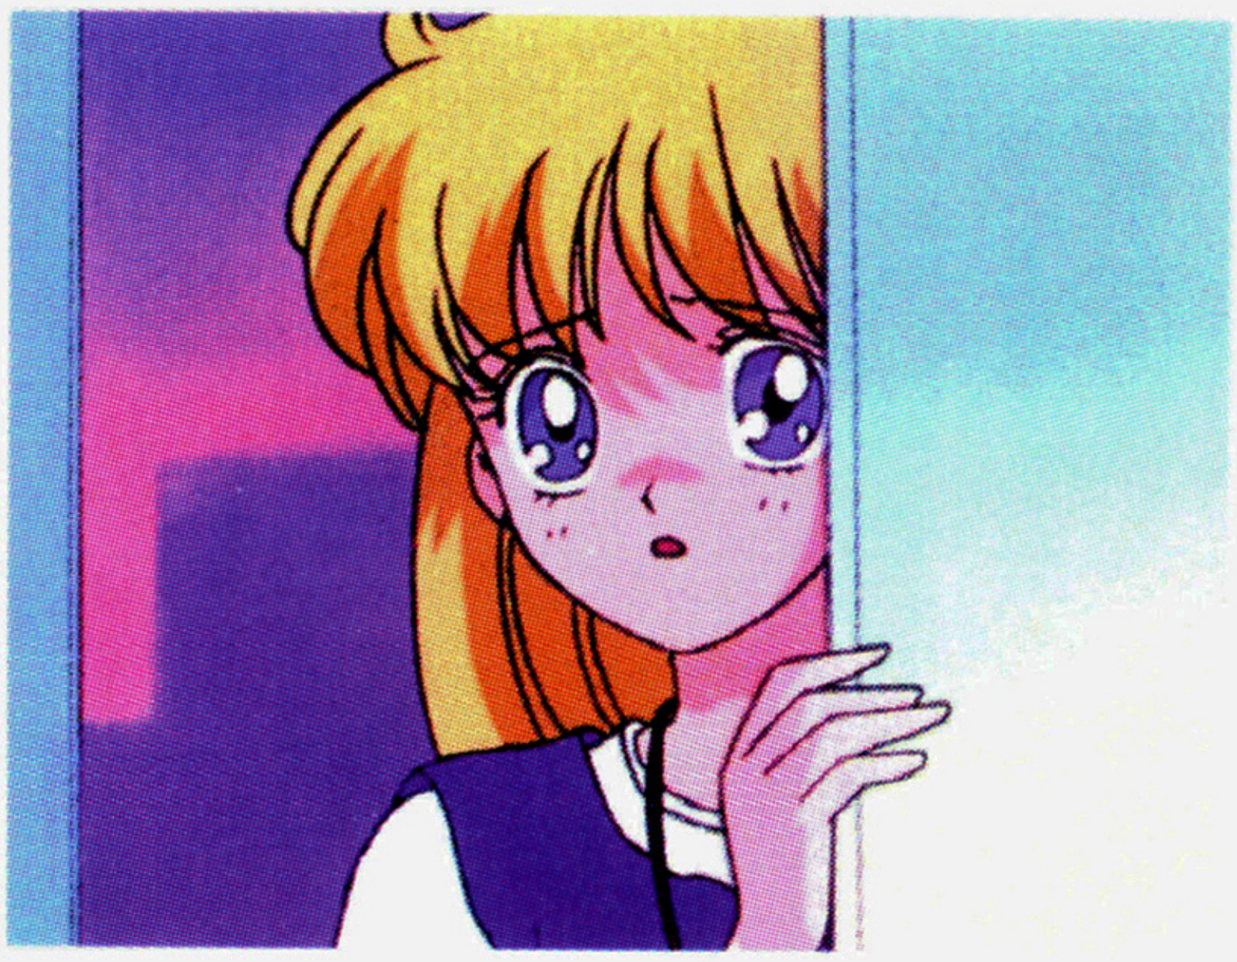
Artemis realizes he has been insensitive.

Luna advises Artemis to leave Mina alone for a while.

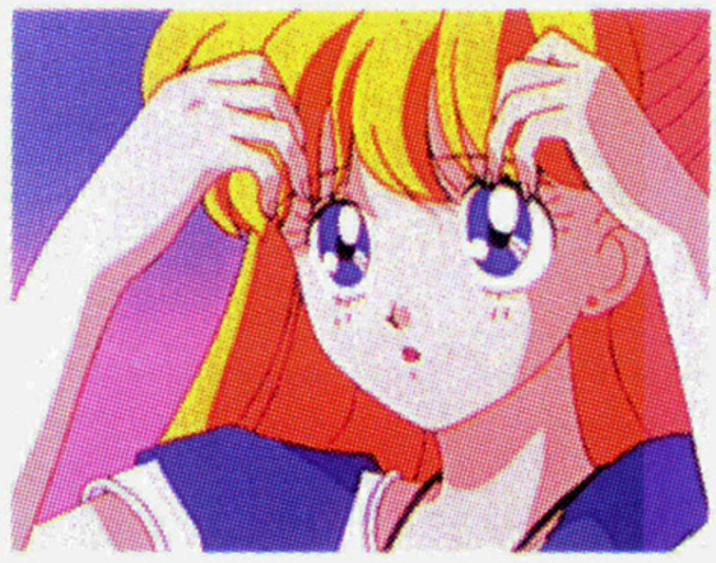
Lita keeps Artemis from running after Mina.

Haruka asks Mina what she thinks is missing, but Mina can't explain her reasoning.

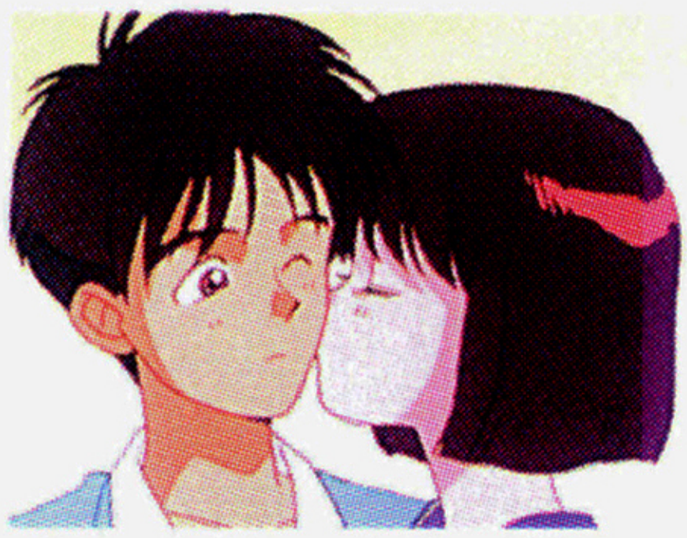
Mina feels that her life is missing something, so she goes to Haruka for advice.



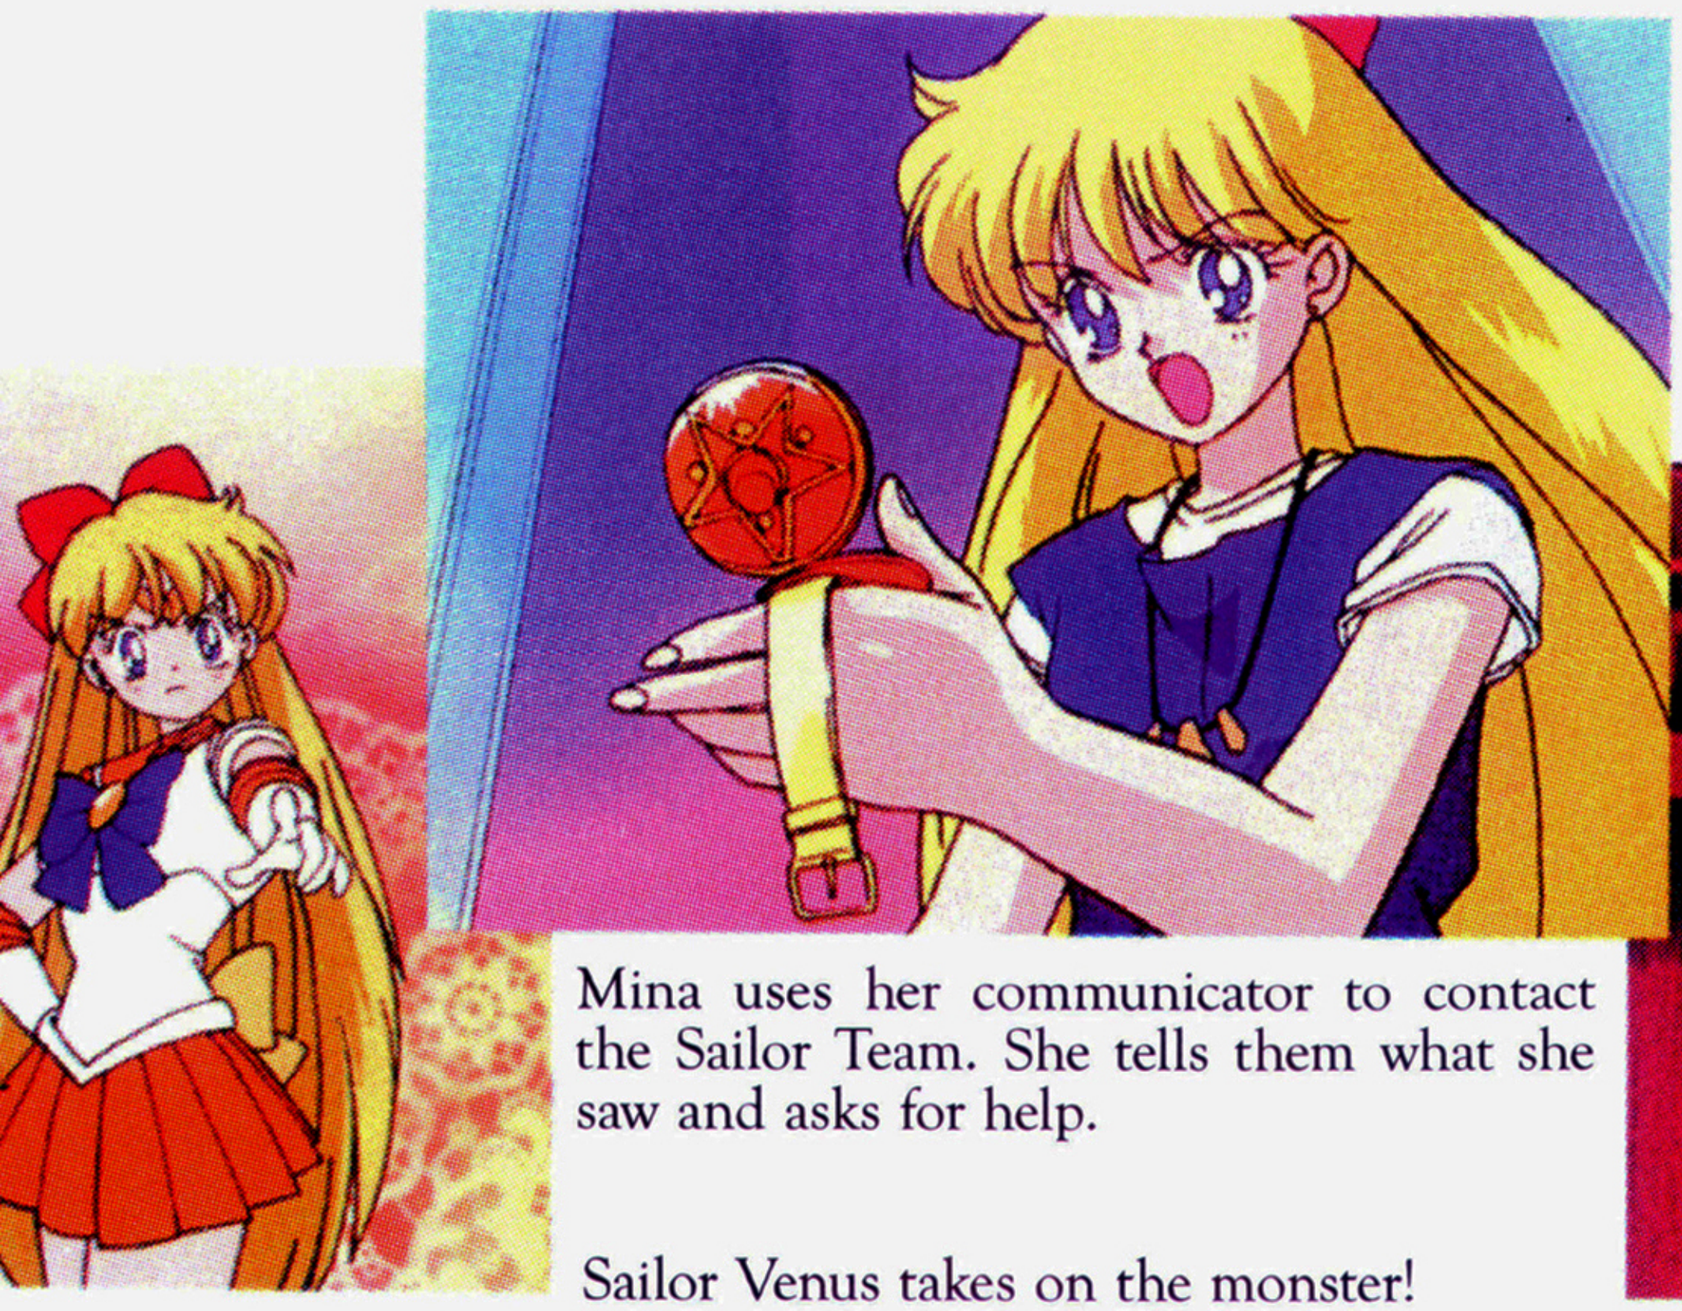
When Mina sees them together, she is reminded of just how much she has given up.



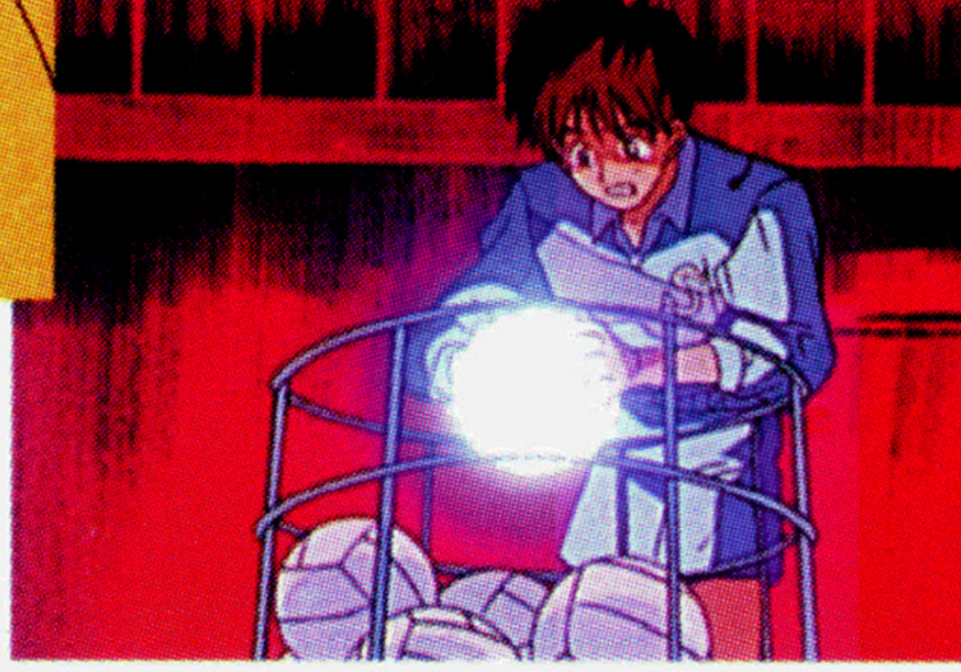
When Mina goes to visit the boy she likes, she sees him with someone else.



Asai has a girlfriend.



When Asai touches the ball, a monster appears!

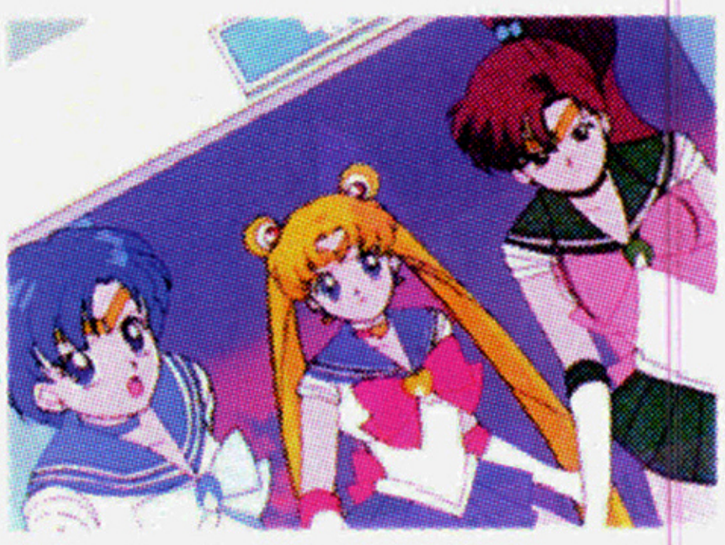


Mina uses her communicator to contact the Sailor Team. She tells them what she saw and asks for help.

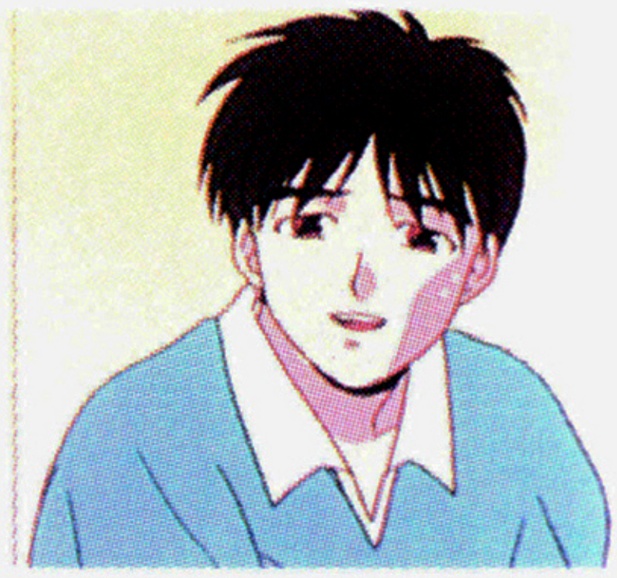
Sailor Venus takes on the monster!

The only thing that can stop the monster's vortex is Sailor Venus' mid-air spinning defense.

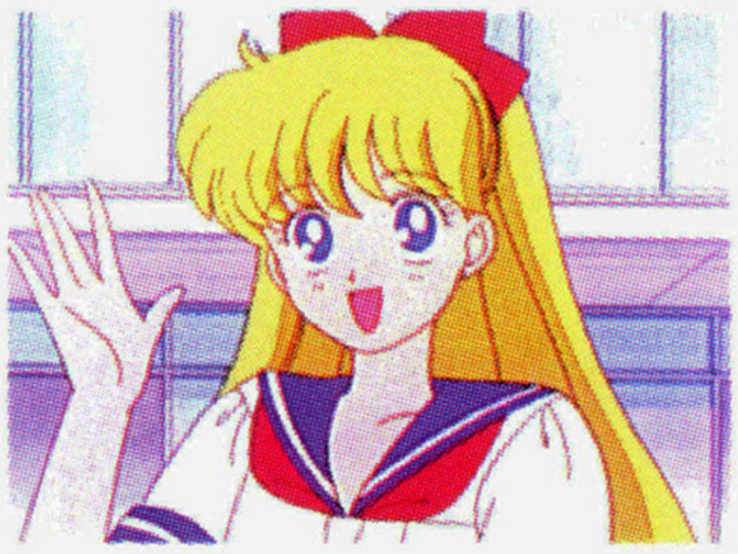
The monster's whirlwind attack hits with a roar.



The Sailor Team shows up, but they can't do a thing against the monster.



Thanks to Sailor Venus, Asai regains consciousness.

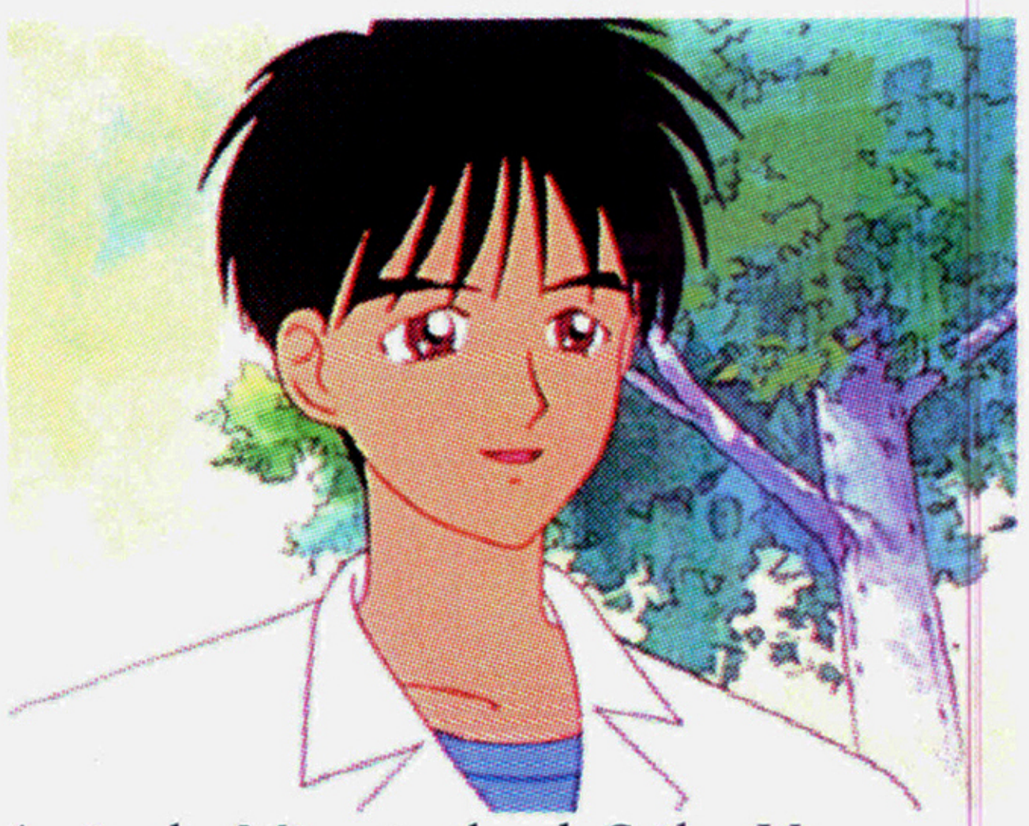


Mina runs into Asai the next day and acts as if nothing had happened.

The use of her mid-air spinning defense restores Venus' spirit.

Mina hasn't lost her touch.

The crisis is over, but Mina still feels down. Artemis tries to cheer her up.



Asai asks Mina to thank Sailor Venus for him. What did he mean by that?

A monster, Yujiaru, sneaks up on Mina and aims a capture gun at her.

Mina downs the drink in one gulp!

A worried Serena prepares a special tonic for Mina.

Mina holds her heart crystal in her hands and tries to escape.

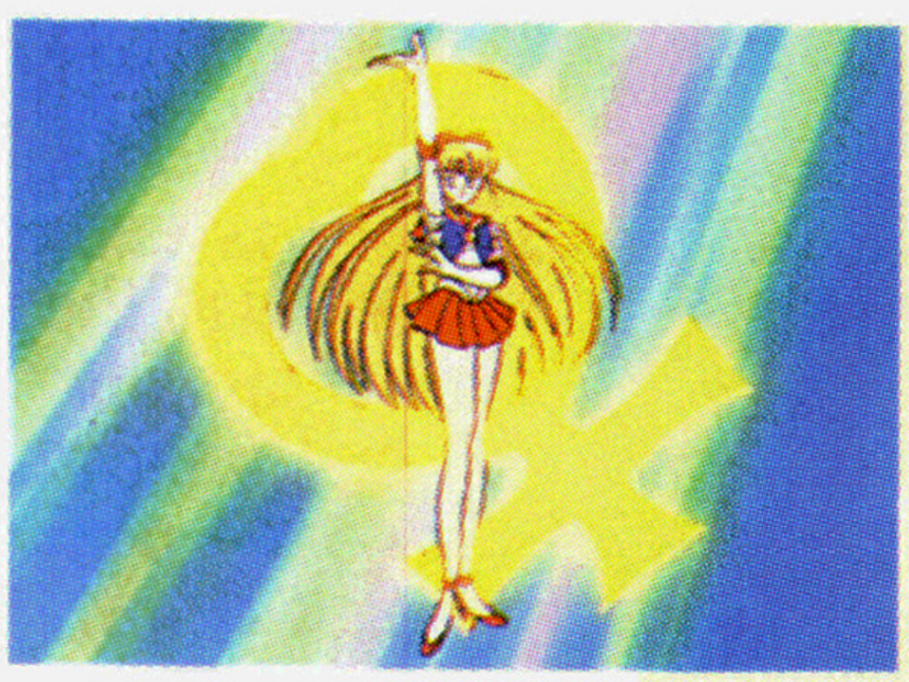
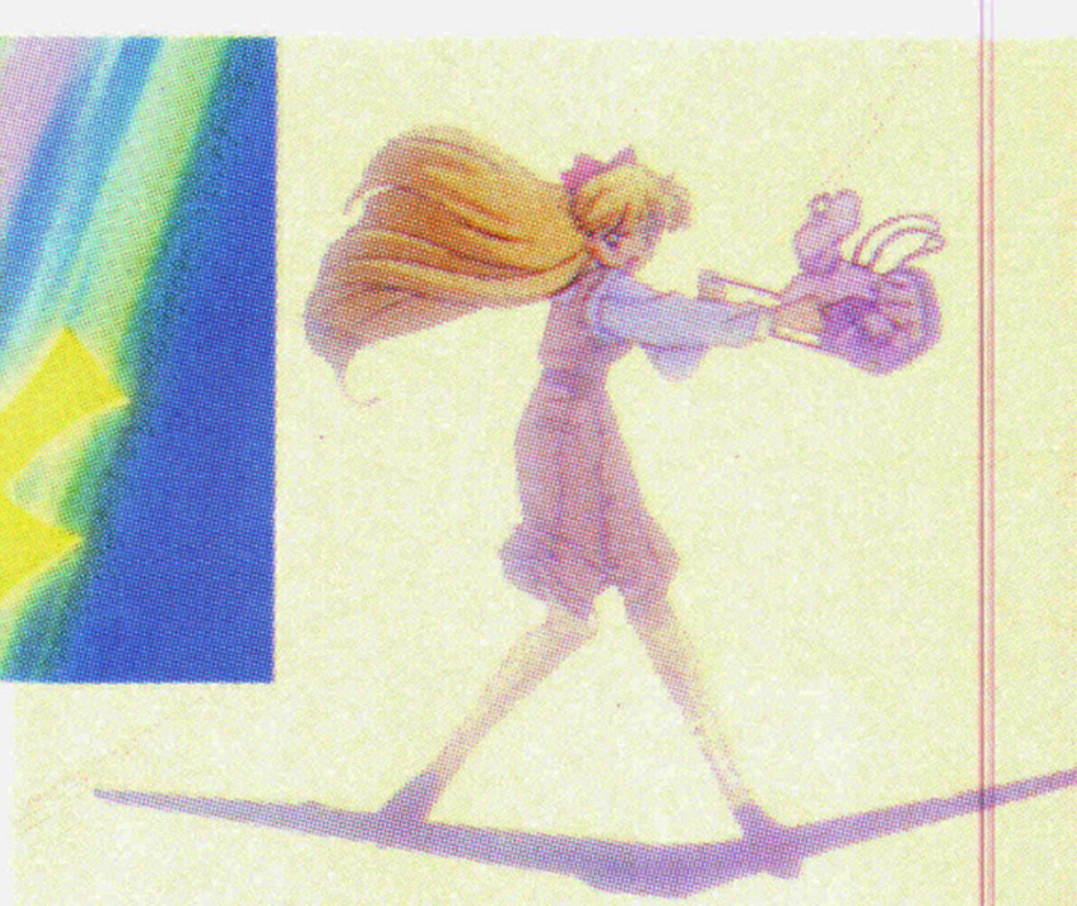
Knowing she is outmatched, Yuujiaru runs away.



Sailor Venus appears! "I won't hand over my pure heart!"



With her pure heart returned, Mina springs into action. She throws a pile of good luck charms at the monster.

Sailor Uranus and Sailor Neptune leave, too.

Secrets of the guardian planet

Do you all know what horoscopes are?
I didn't know much about it till recently,
but it's so accurate, it's scary!

Sailor Venus Encyclopedia

Moon Princess Kimiko -- Fortune Teller

Venus the planet

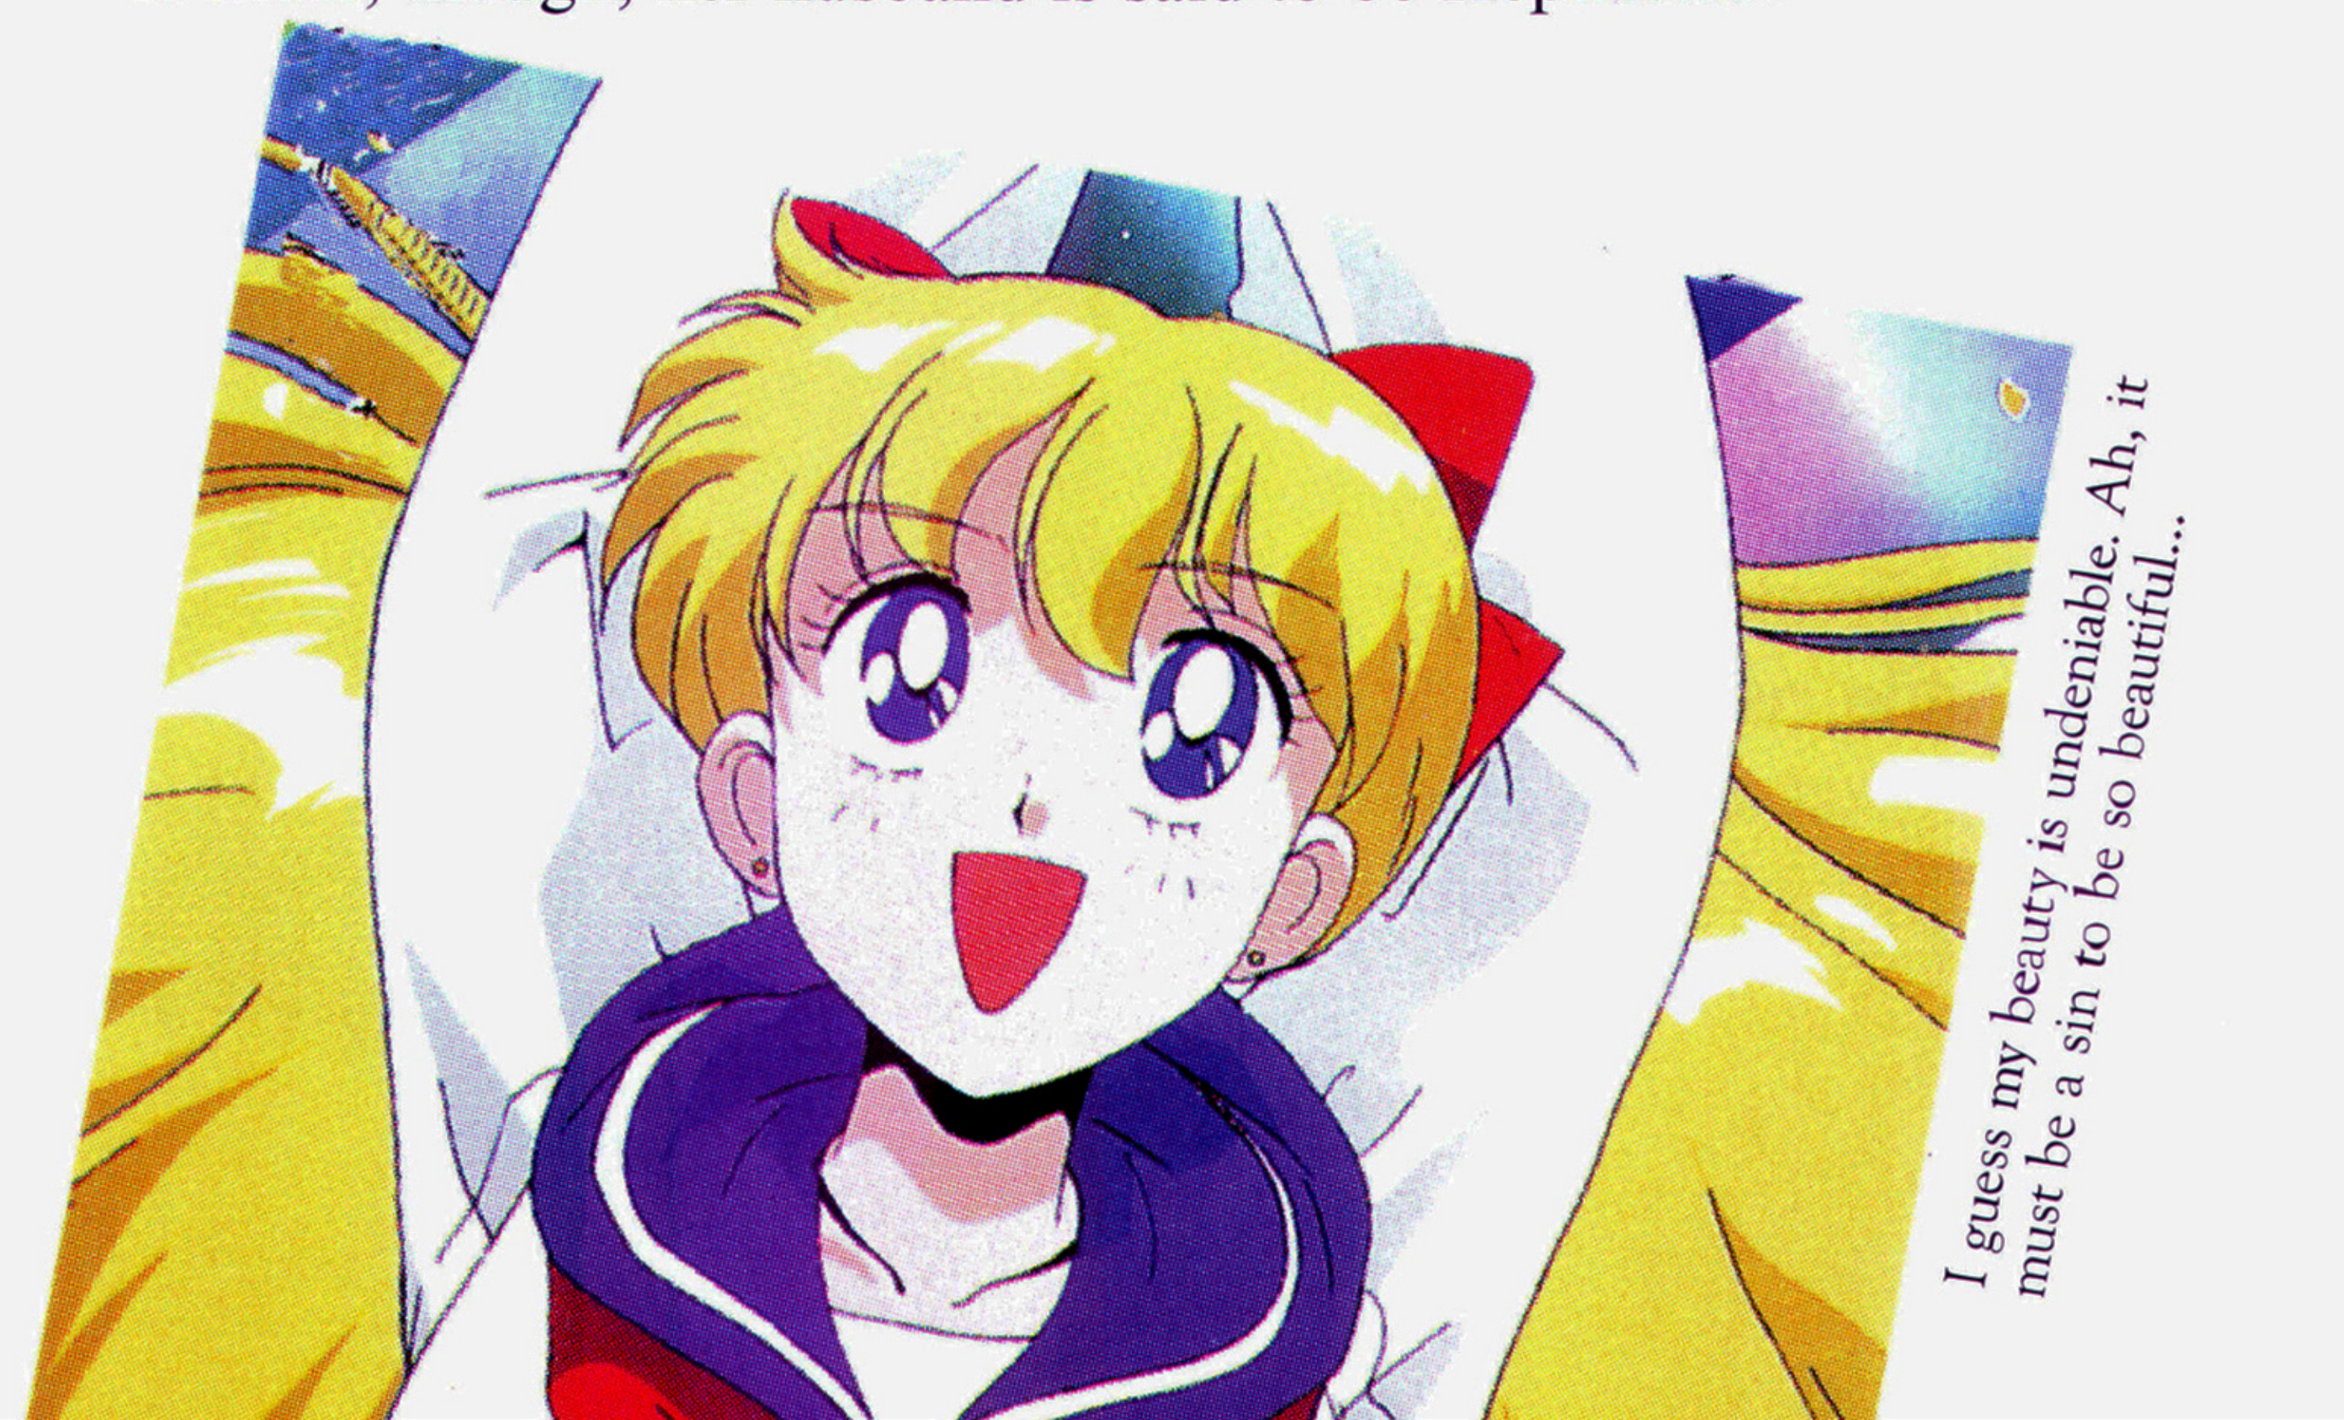
The planet Venus is sometimes called "The Evening Star," or "The Morning Star." It is a bright, gold planet, located one planet closer to the sun from Earth.

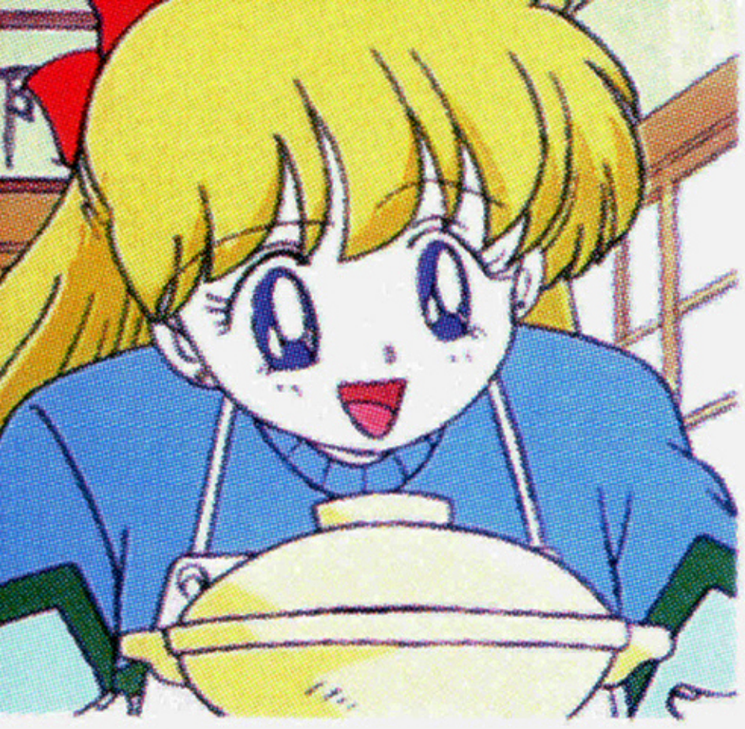
Observe with a telescope and you will find that Venus waxes and wanes like the moon. Venus' shape changes…just like a girl's wavering heart.

The goddess of love and beauty, Venus, presides over this lovely planet. She is a kind goddess, who guards lovers and those who appreciate beauty.

The goddess Venus guards over 2 constellations, Taurus and Libra. Taurus is known to be a representation of Jupiter's transformation into a bull, Libra represents Dimieter's balance of justice.

The goddess Venus is praised as one of the most beautiful of Olympus' goddesses. She was born from a bubble in the ocean. Her birth is often a subject of admiration by artists, like in Boticelli's painting. Her lover is Mars, though, her husband is said to be Hephastus.





Sweet devotion...truly a trait of the goddess of love. So take it easy on me when I goof.

Personality

Venus, the goddess Venus, that is, has 2 personality traits. The first trait is her loveliness. She has a big heart, and appreciates things that are delicious or cute. She is social, and likes to live in harmony with others. She is accessible and charming. At times, however, she can be obsessive, hanging on to things and never letting go. This is where we see the Taurus effect.

The other trait is her strong attachment to beauty. While her desire to live a harmonious, happy life remains, there is a stern and proud side of her that causes her to rid herself of things that do not live up to her standards of beauty. Still, she has an excellent sense of style. No matter how cheap it may be, anything she wears looks great. This is her Libra side coming through.

Love

Full of womanly charm, she is often an early bloomer when it comes to love. She falls in love with men with style, a sense of humor and good conversation skills. Atheticism or intelligence alone will not interest her. Men who are dominating do not interest her either. She picks nice men who are considerate to women. Once in a relationship, she expresses her love by cooking and knitting sweaters for him. She is the jealous type and will get very agitated if she sees her man enjoying the company of other women. She keeps him on a tight leash. Unexpectedly, Venuses tend to marry in their early twenties.

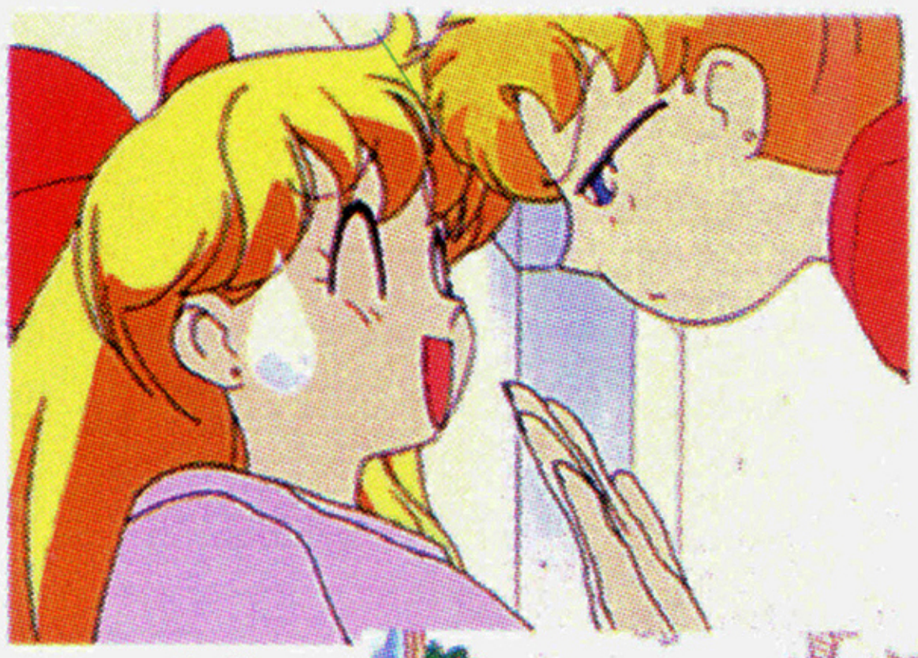
50 secrets of Sailor Venus

All my secrets revealed right here.
All you need to know to become a Sailor Venus expert!

Sailor Venus Encyclopedia

Blood type?

Type B, of course! A typical type B person is always happy and never blue. I can be a little rough…I think that's my weakness.

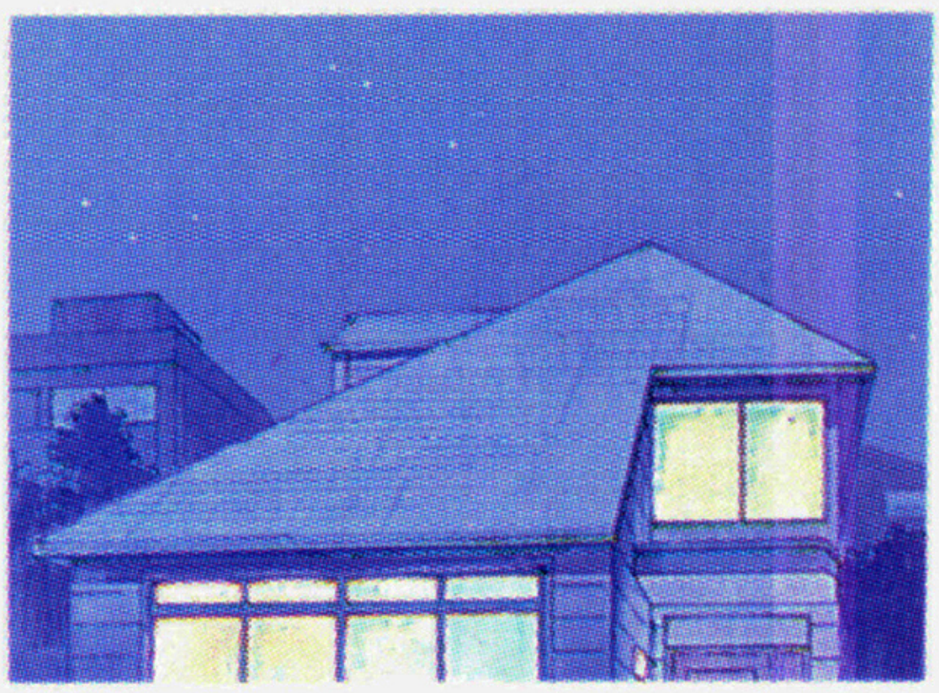


A typical type B getting carried away!

They're right when they say type B's are scatterbrains.

Where do I live?

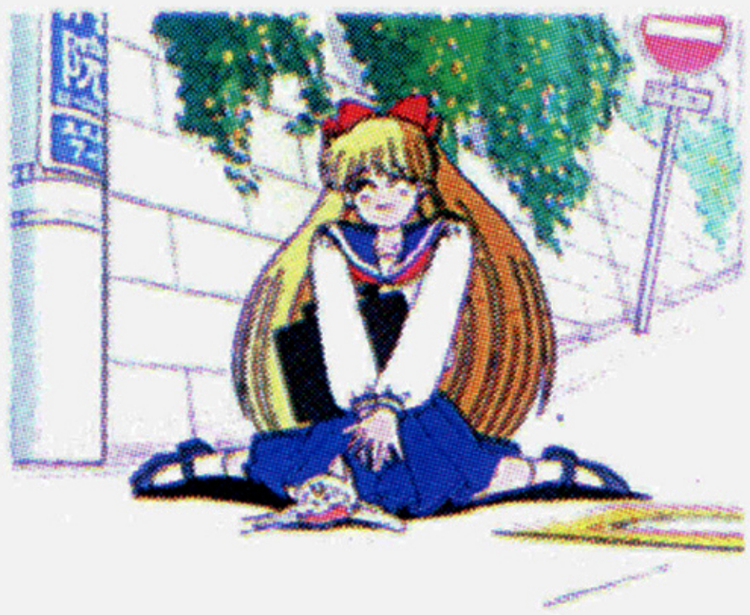
My house is right by Shiba Park in Minato-ku, Tokyo. It's a little far from Crossroads where Bunny and everyone lives.



Here's my house. Pretty styling, right?

Height and Weight?

People say I look like Bunny, but I'm actually a little taller than she is. I'm about Amy's height. My weight…that's a secret!

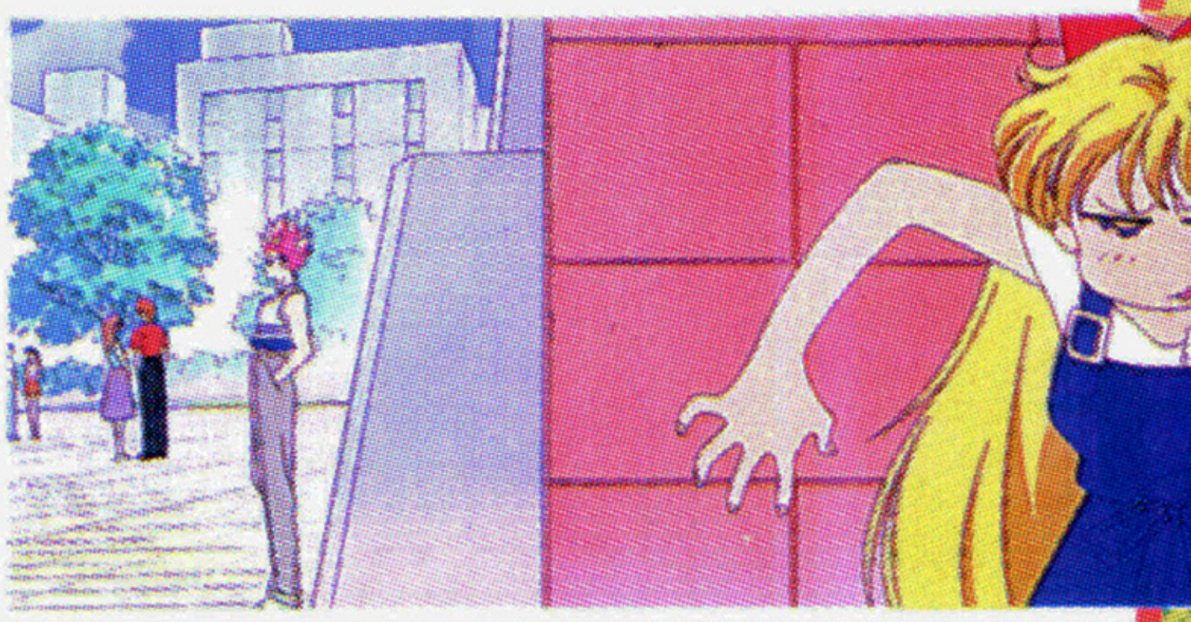


Not that I think I'm all that heavy but...

Birthday?

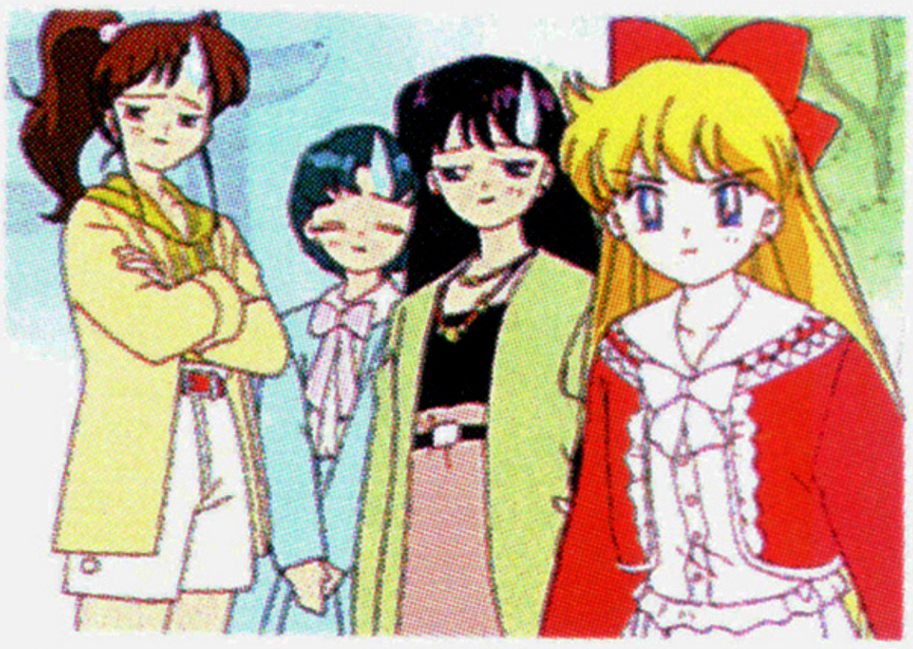
It's October 22nd! Definitely a season for fashion. By the way, I'm a Libra. My birthstone is Opal.

As a Libra, I'm always looking for balance.



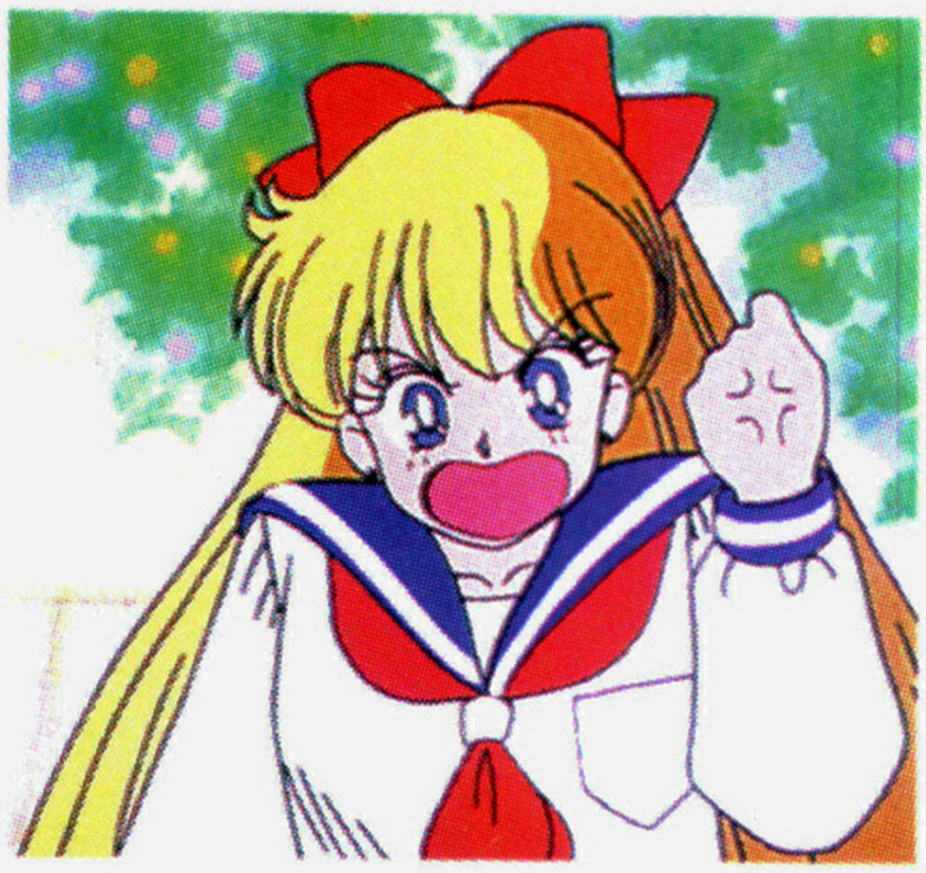
Any bad habits?

The Sailor Team tells me that I'm forgetful or I have a bad temper, but I don't agree. At least I'm not as bad as Raye or Bunny!



I'm not forgetful. I was just kidding then.

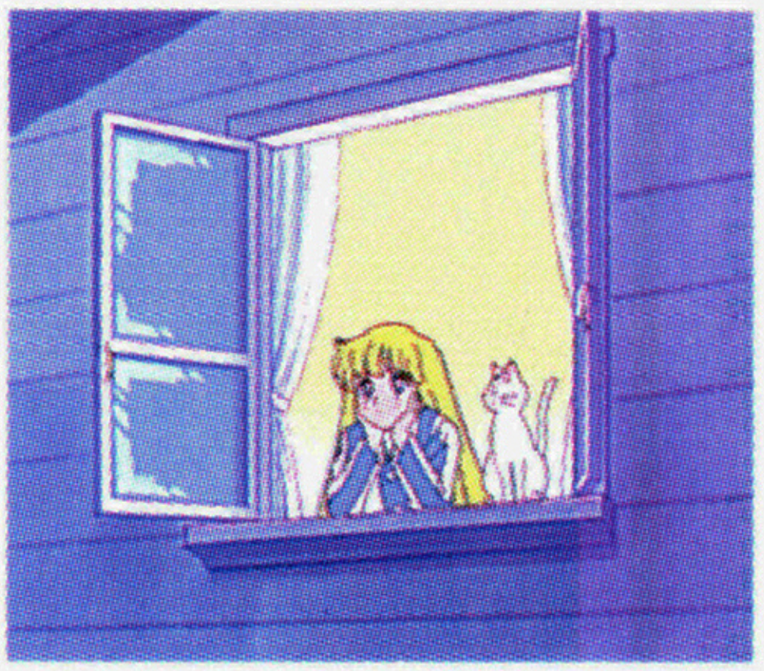
Of course I get mad at times like everyone else, but I wouldn't call it a bad habit!



Life at home?

It's me, mom, and dad; the three of us. My dad works at a trading company and my mom is a full time housewife. Can't forget Artemis! I guess there's really 4 of us.

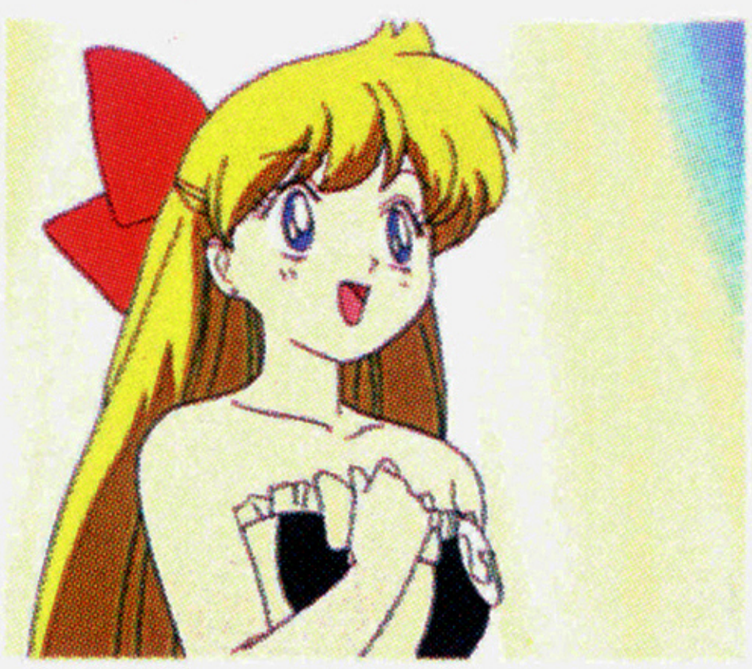
Being the only child is comfy, but at times a little boring.



Dream for the future?

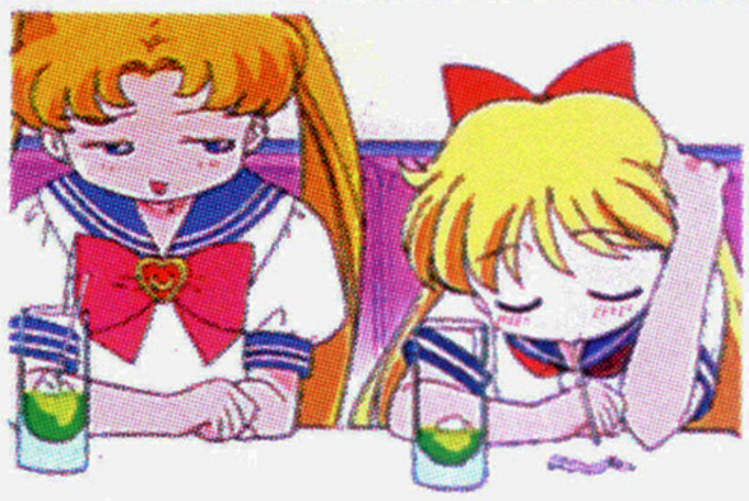
I want to be a star! I will never give up until I bathe in that spotlight!

I was one of the finalist at the audition!

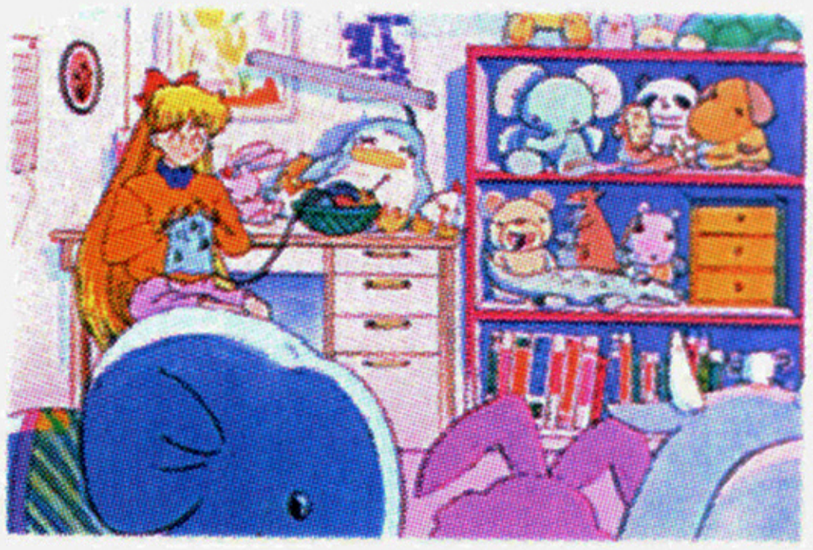


Playing. I have to say that I'm a genius when it comes to having fun. I also collect stuffed animals, too.

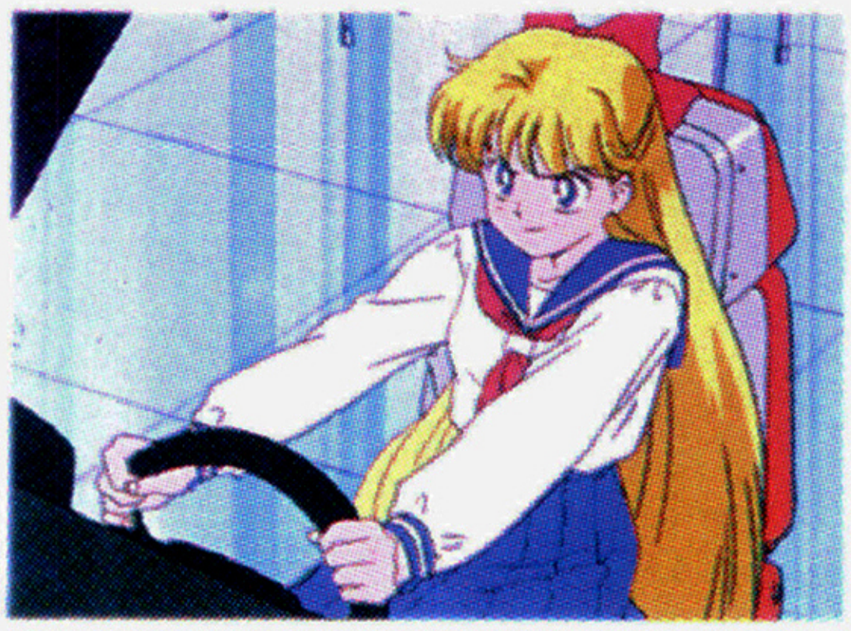
I have a knack for playing with everything around me.



Knitting...Am I feminine or what?

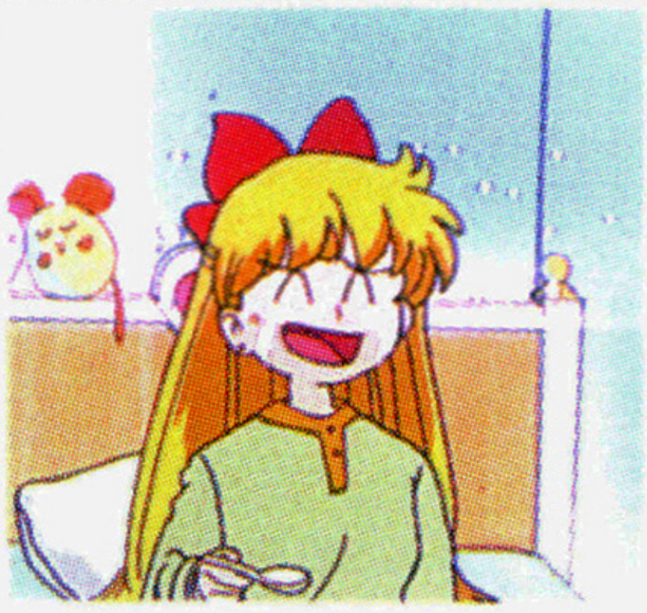


Any hobbies?



My favorite racing game at the moment!
My goal is to beat Haruka!

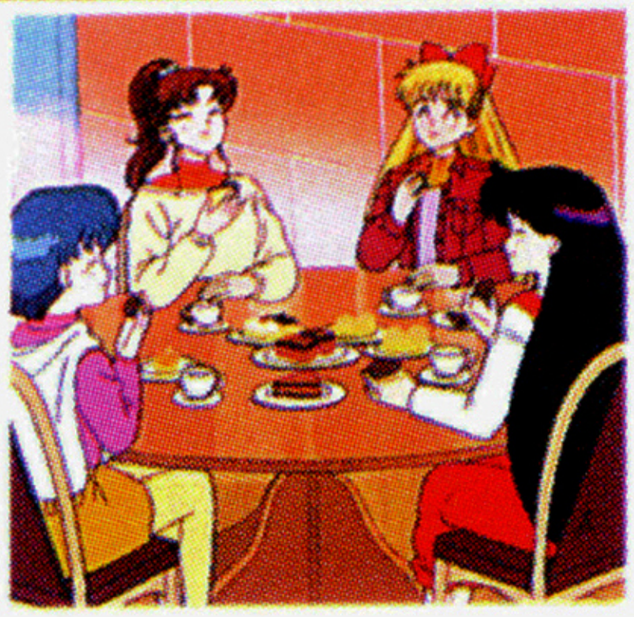
Least Favorite Food?



Bunny's special porridge was something else. More like torture, actually.

For me, it's shitake mushrooms! Everyone has at least one thing they hate, right?

Favorite Food?

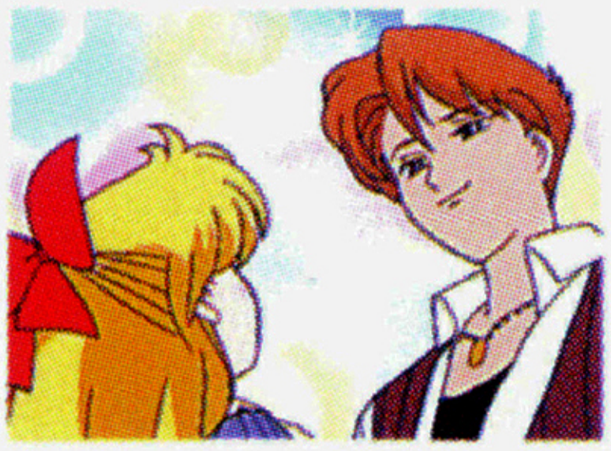


I love cakes and all kinds of sweets. Hey, I'm a girl. Ugh, but my weight...

My top 3 choices are ramen, pot stickers and curry.

Favorite Type of Guy?

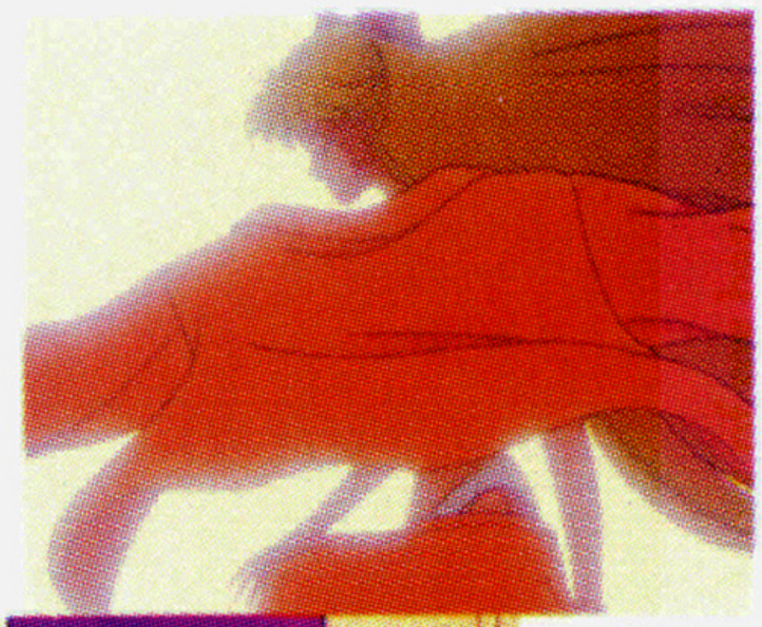
Great looks definitely come first! He's perfect if he's nice and tall, too!



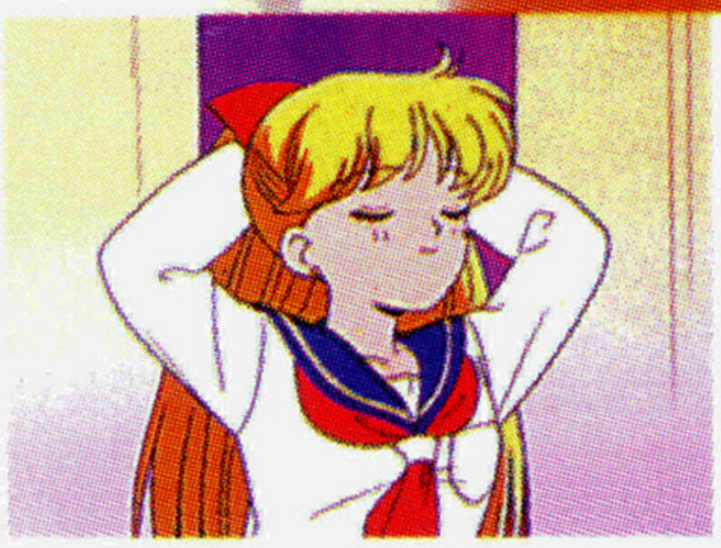
You've always got to aim high.

Favorite Color?

I guess it would be red and yellow. My ribbon is always red. I also like Venus' theme color, orange. My clothes are mostly red.



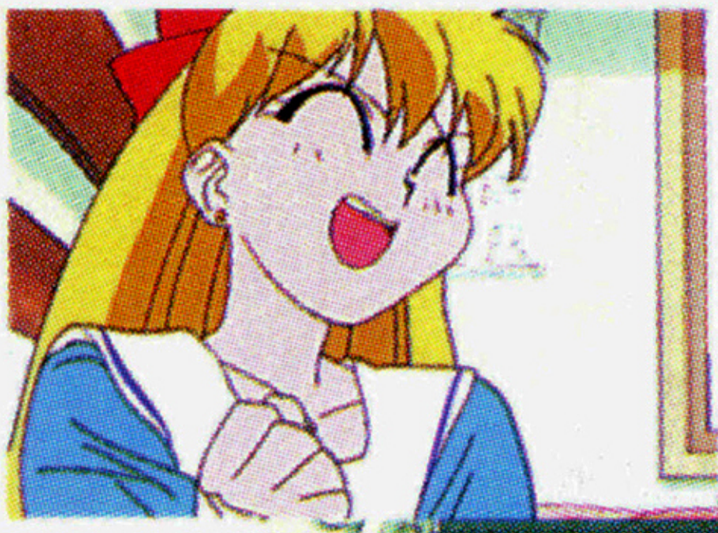
Most of my bags and clothes are red.



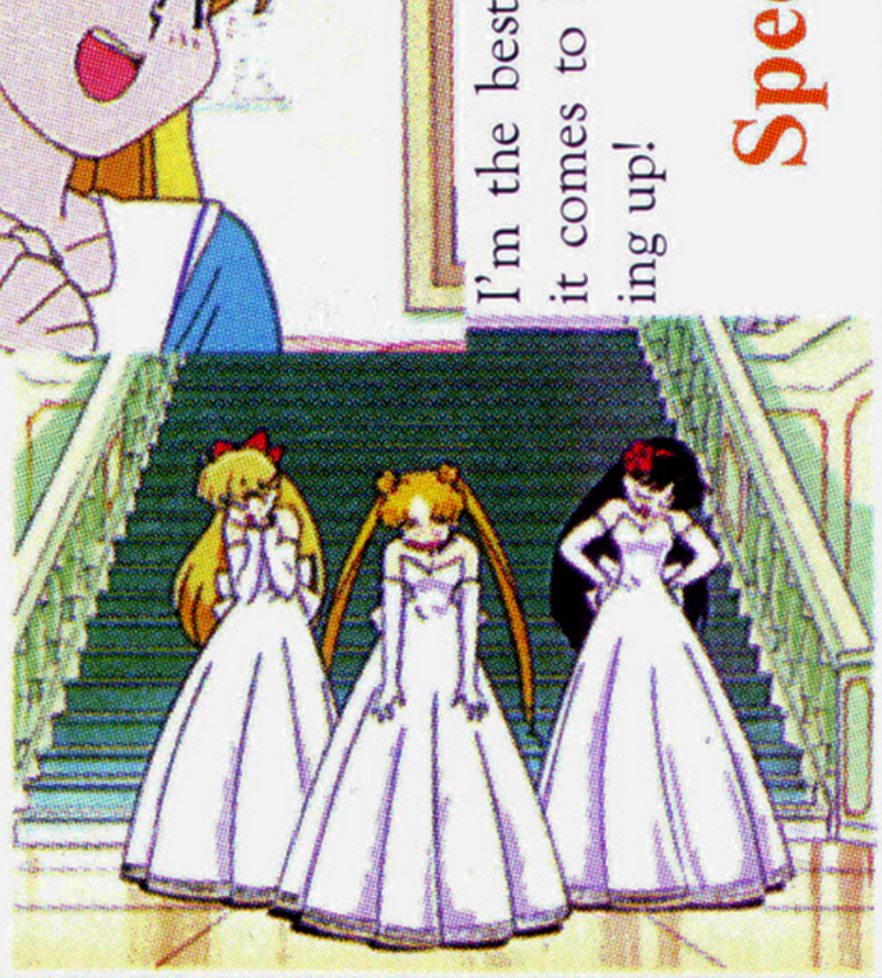
My red ribbon is my favorite, but I'm willing to try some different colors, too.

Special Power?

I'm good at flattering people. Nobody can top me in this department. I'm also good at remembering proverbs.

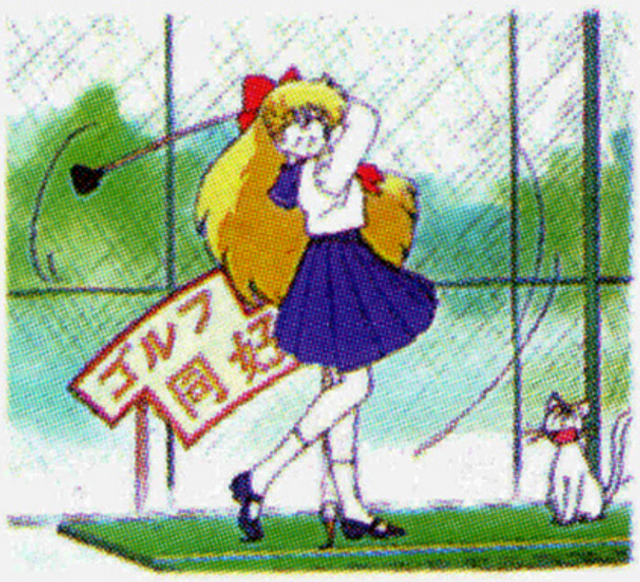


I'm the best when it comes to buttering up!



I'm athletic yet terrible at dancing. Isn't that strange...?

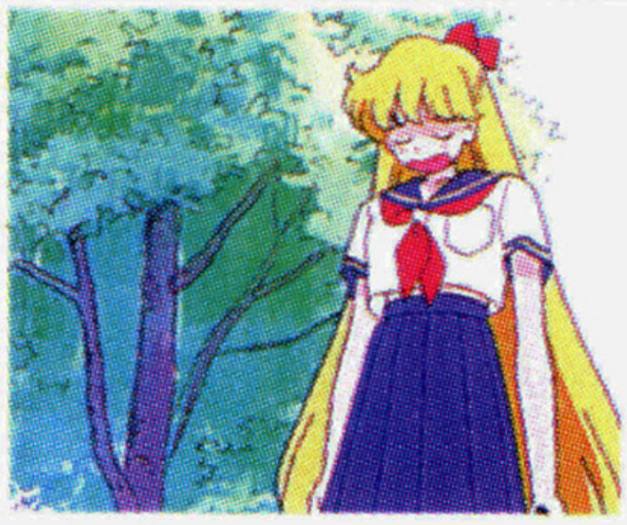
Favorite Sport?



I missed the golfball, but it was my first time at golf! Don't laugh.

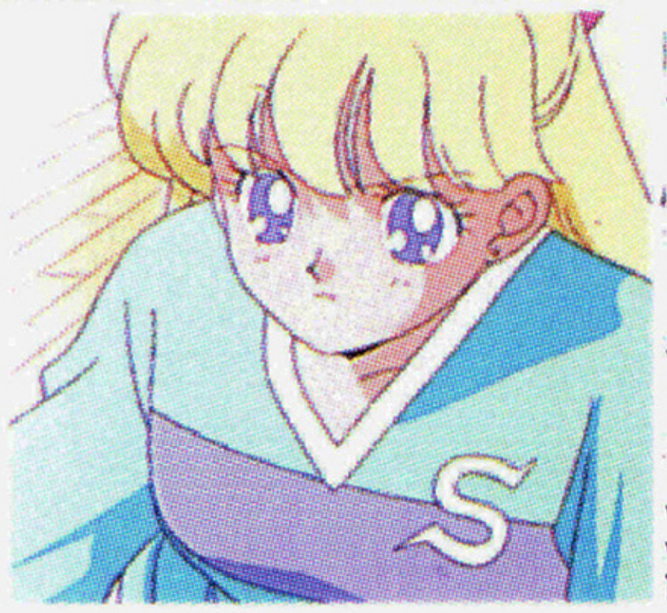
I'm good at most sports. I'm best at volleyball.

Worst School Subject?



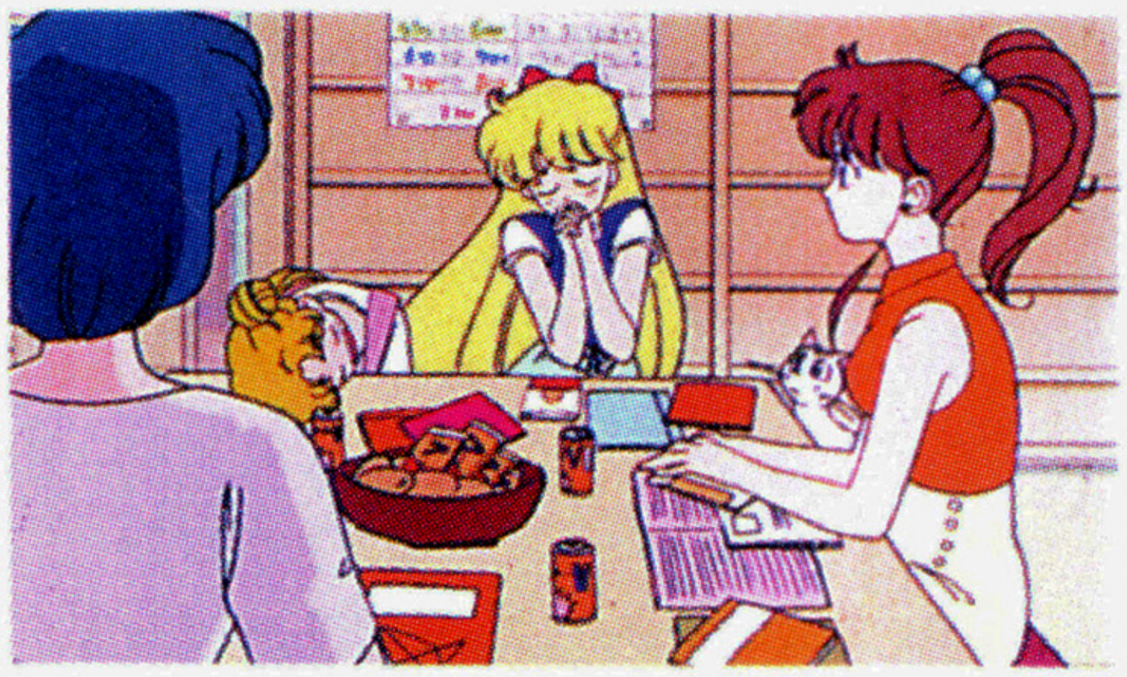
To be honest, I'm not too good in English (remember, I'm Japanese).

Favorite School Subject?



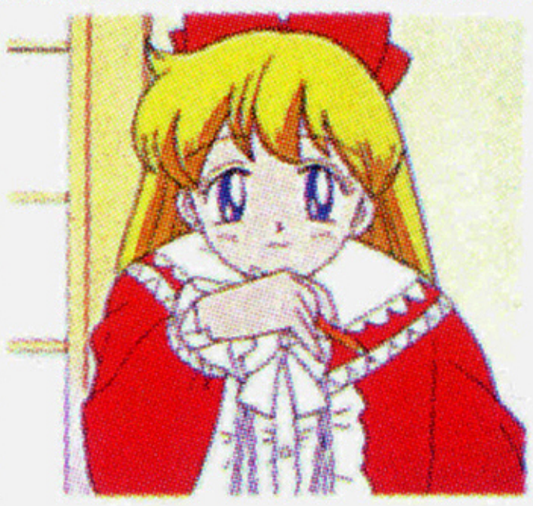
I'd be an honor student if all my classes were gym classes!

Definitely gym class for this athletic girl. It makes me feel great inside and out after a good work out.



Oh, how could I let slip that I'm an anime otaku?

Favorite Fashion?



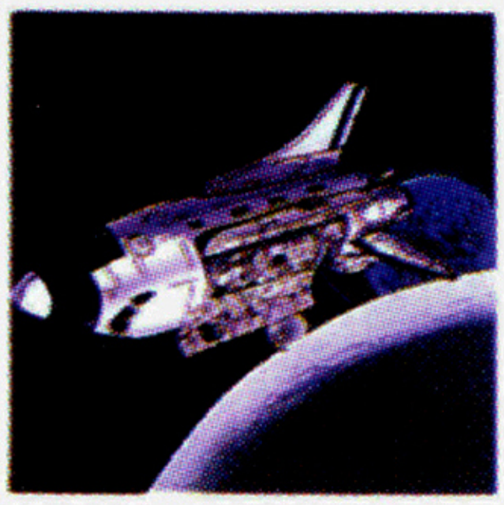
I'm cute with the best fashion sense. I'm so perfect!

I like cute clothes with lots of frills. I also like sporty clothes!

I don't like guards either because they look like police officers.

Least Favorite Activity?

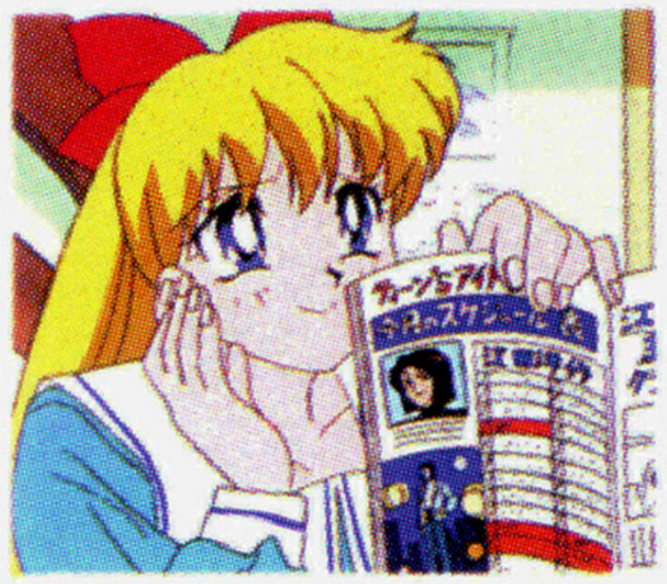
The police. As a mysterious, pretty scout, I can't have them catch me and find out who I am. Katarina used to be an international police officer, so it might be because it reminds me of the sad memories of England.



I've been to space for battles, but obviously didn't have a moment for that.

Favorite Place?

Inside a space shuttle. I want to look down at the big blue earth!



I need a lot more time to dedicate myself to being a groupie.

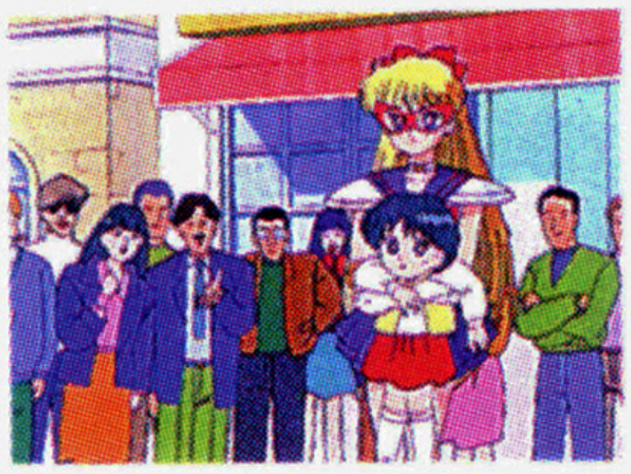
Most Wanted?

I want more time. Between being a star groupie, and playing, I never have enough time.

Why did you go to England?

I headed to England after hearing a rumor that the evil arms of the Dark Kingdom were conspiring something there.

I kicked butt in England!



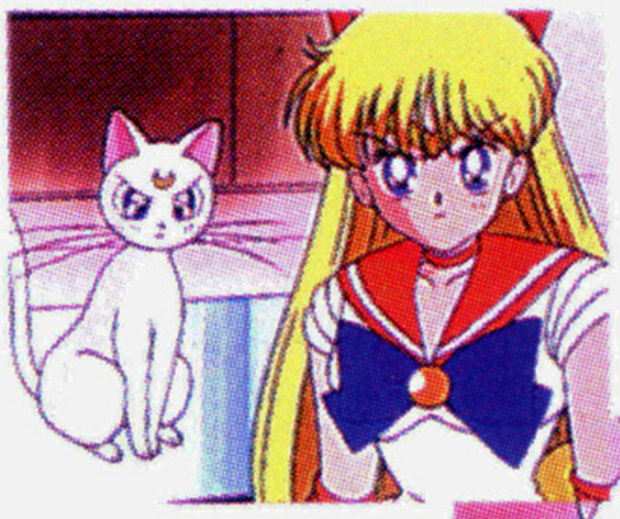
How's school?

I go to Grass Valley Junior High. I enjoy my school life but it's tough to balance my battles with school. I can't get up in the morning and I'm always late.

I run to school every-day. It's a great work out

What kind of relationship do you have with Artemis?

He's a bit annoying but he's a very dear partner. We're a great team because we have a long track record. We've been together since I was Sailor V!



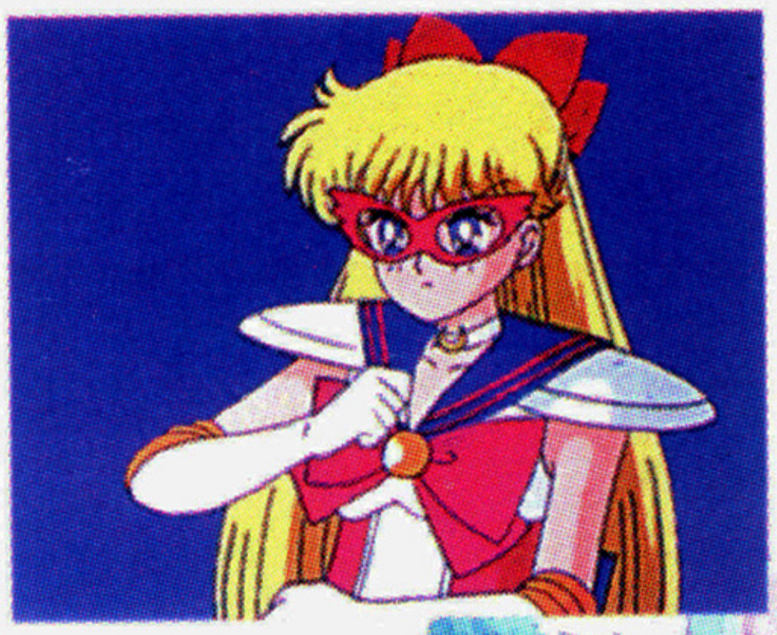
I've been resuced by Artemis many times.

I wish he'd wake me up every morning so I'm not late for school.

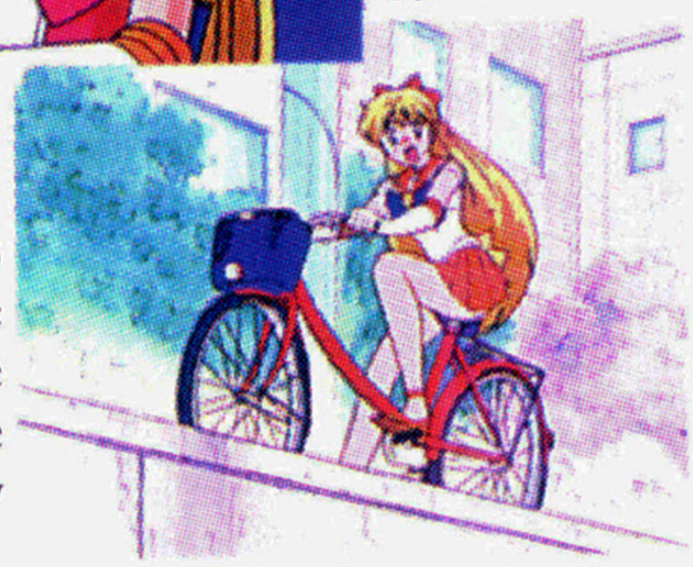
How do Sailor V and Sailor Venus differ?

Our basic powers are pretty comparable, but now I have friends and that adds to my powers.

The costumes for Sailor V and Sailor Venus are quite different. Check them out and compare!



Sailor V wears a mask.



The image color is different, too. The biggest difference is whether we're showing our belly buttons?!

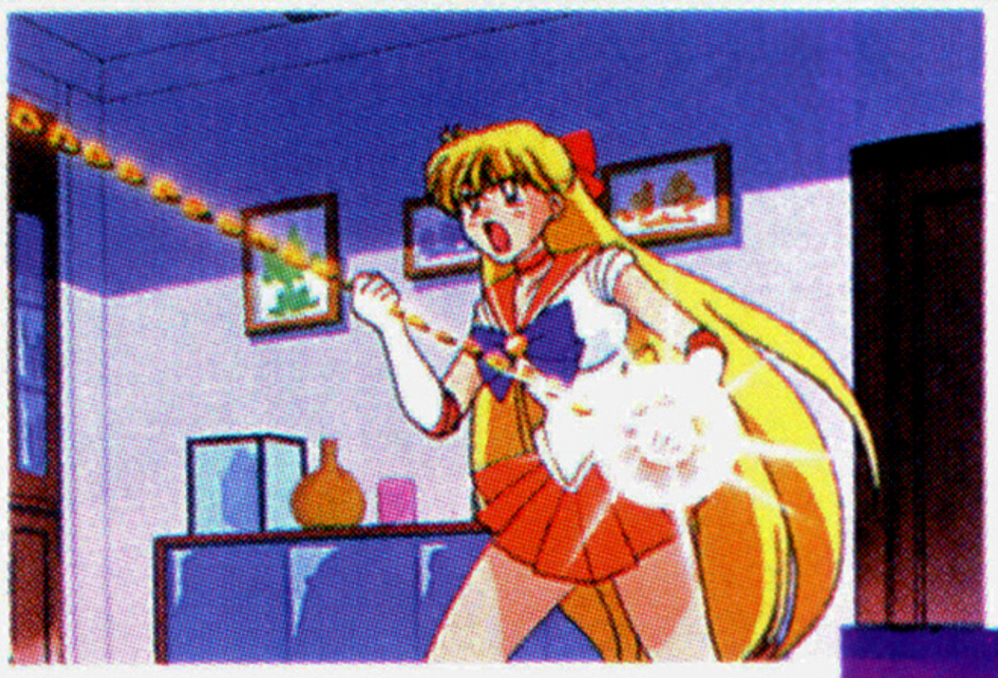
Why did you quit playing volleyball?

The battles kept me busy, I couldn't fit it in to my schedule anymore. I'm a little bummed.

I want to go back to playing volleyball once it's peaceful.

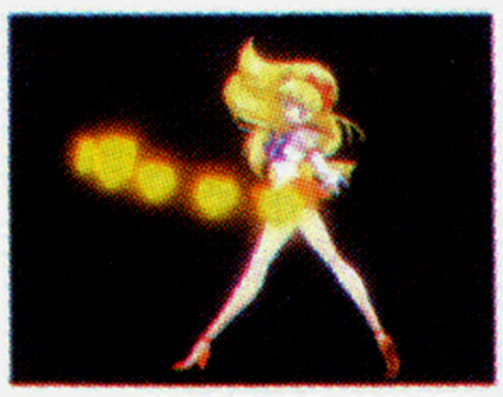
Special Attacks?

Crescent Beam and Venus Love Me Chain are my main spells, but there are others, too.



I can catch the enemy with Love Me Chain. I've powered up with my new spell, Venus Love and Beauty Shock recently, too.

This is the great Crescent Beam!



This is Venus Love and Beauty.

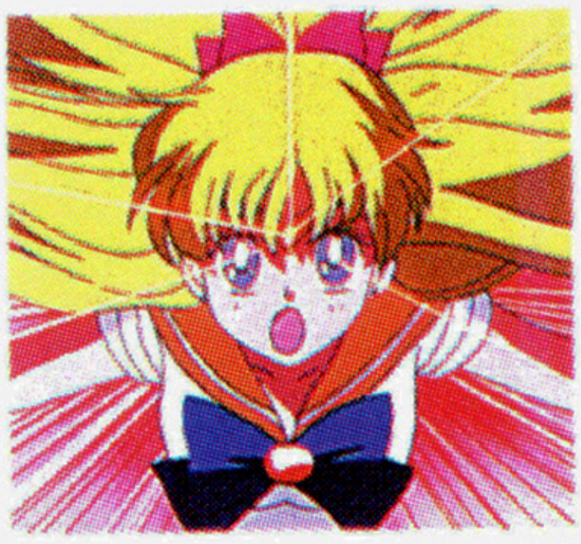
First Transformation?

Unlike Bunny and the others, I wasn't flustered. I was happy to become a heroine of justice. I was burning with courage and a sense of purpose.

I was in raptures the first time I saw myself transformed.

Venus Star Power?

I can concentrate my power to the tiara's jewels and help Sailor Moon, or use it for a 5 person combination spell. I need a lot of energy to make them work, though.



This is a special spell reserved only for when we need extra power.

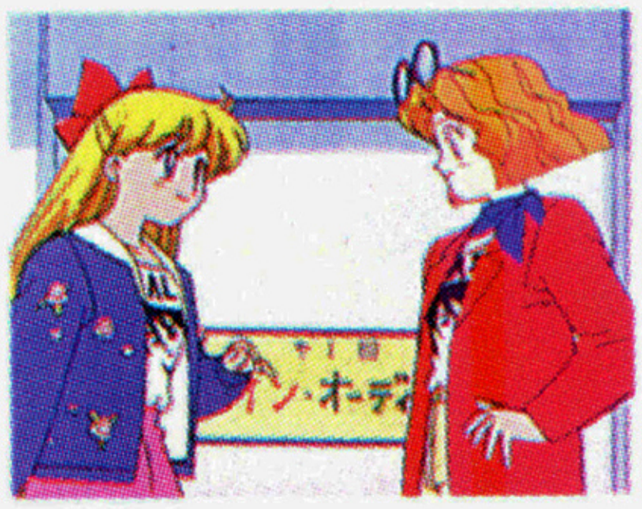
Which was the hardest battle?

The battle with Papillon was so sad I don't even want to think about it. I couldn't stand the fact that I had to fight Katarina!

I would be dead if Bunny hadn't helped me.

Most Powerful Enemy?

In battle and in being a groupie, Mimet and I were a close tie. She reminded me of myself, though she was an enemy.



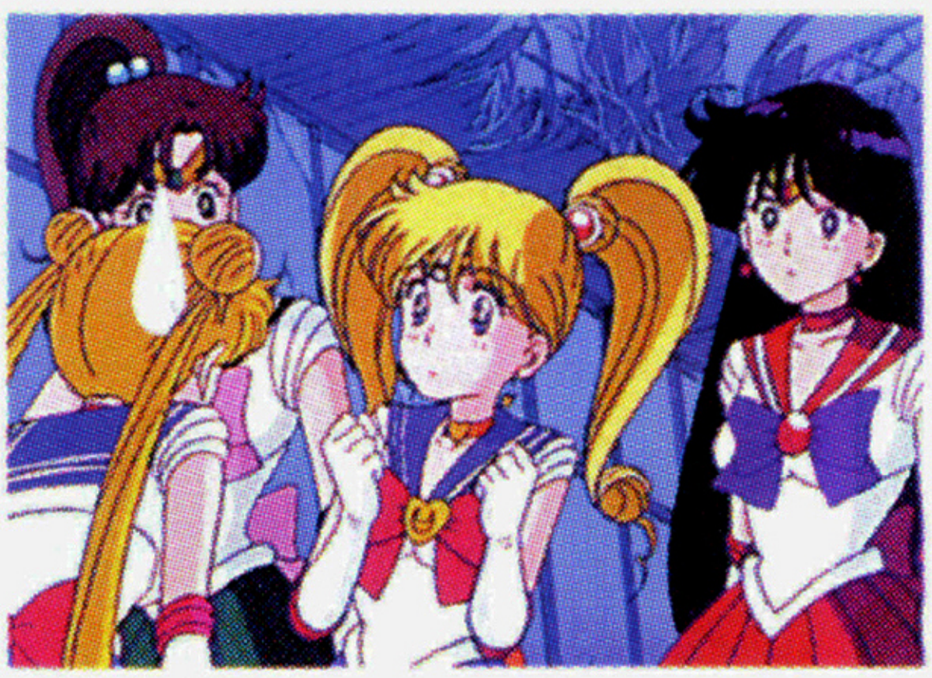
We had some huge battles over Jinta Araki.

What's your role within the Sailor Team?

In my past life, I hear that Venus led the 4 scouts, but I can't say I'm taking charge now. I'm an all-round talented scout, effective in both offense and defense. Got it?

Leader of the team.

I'm good at uncovering the enemy's strategies and locations.

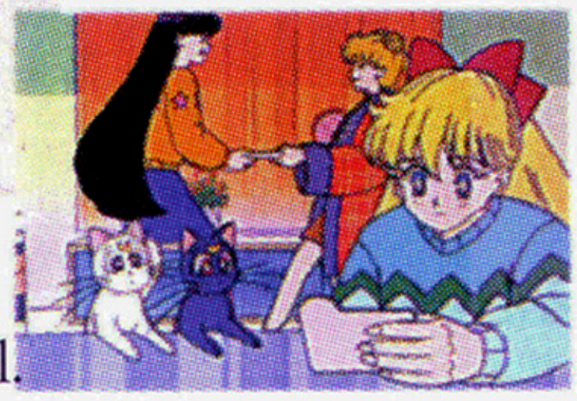


I look like Bunny, so I've been her body double in the past.

What does the transmitter do?

In an emergency situation, I can contact everyone. Not only can they hear me, but we can see each other, too. The first model was hand held, but now it's a wrist watch.

Here's the old hand held model.



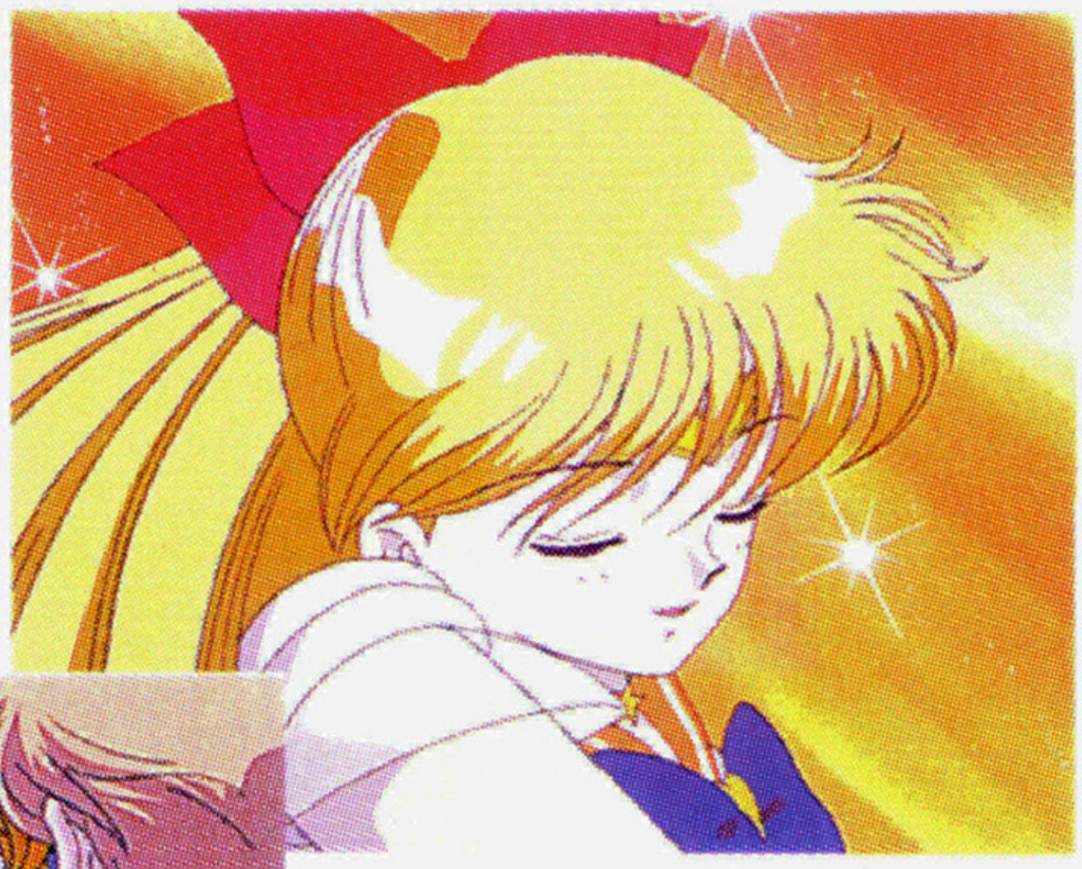
It matches our theme colors.

Why do you pose so much?

I love attention, and that's why I want to be a star. I want to look cool, even when I'm fighting.

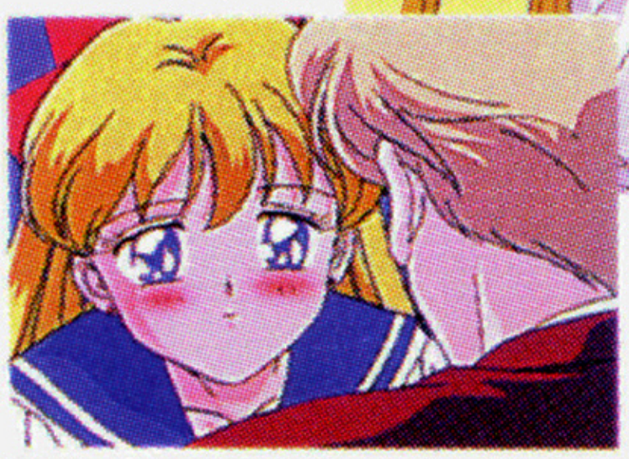
Just can't stop posing in front of enemies.

Tell us about your Guardian Planet?



My guardian planet Venus is the goddess of love and beauty in Greek mythology. This is where I get my charm. The day is near when my incredible beauty will take over the Japanese entertainment industry.

In my love life, they say my match will be a man with a great sense of style. Can't wait!



They say we like cute things. I like stuffed animals so this makes sense.

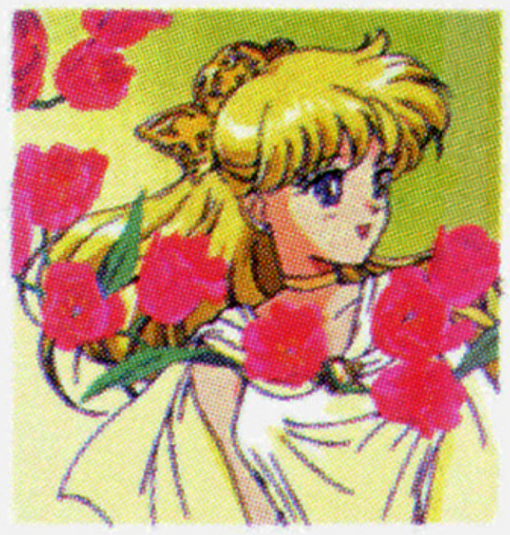
Crystal Tokyo?

I was fighting to protect the future city from invaders. On normal days, they say I looked after Small Lady.

We're still together, even in the future world.

Silver Millennium?

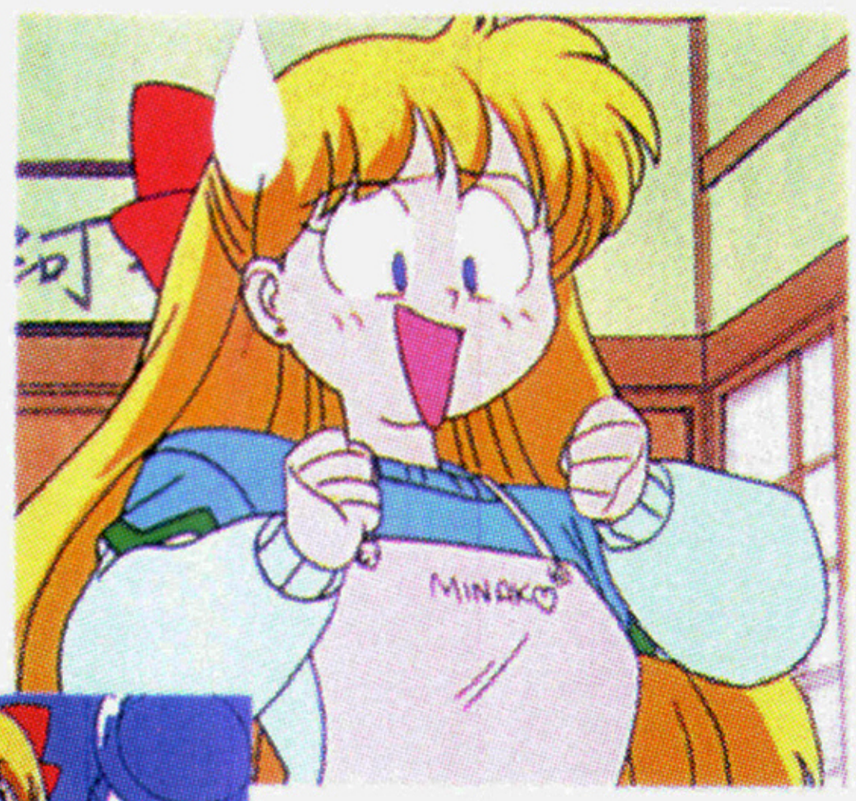
I was well respected as one of the scouts assigned to protect the princess. There was hardly any discord on the peaceful Moon Kingdom.



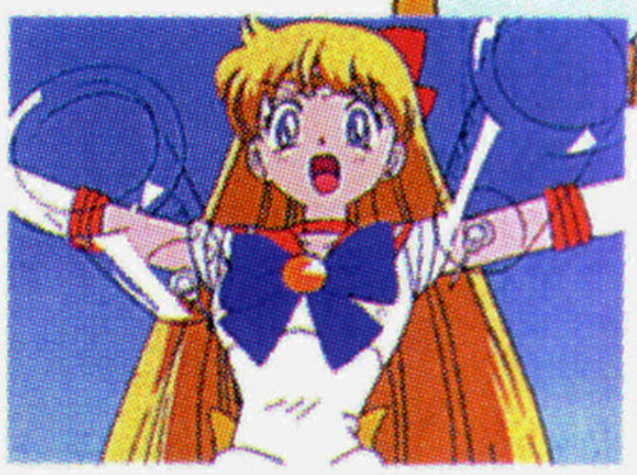
The Silver Millennium was an ideal, peaceful world.

Sailor Venus' Weakness?

I like cakes but never thought I'd be one.



I'm such a scatter-brain that I always fall right into the enemy's traps. I also get carried away, so once my guard is low, I tend to cause trouble for everyone.

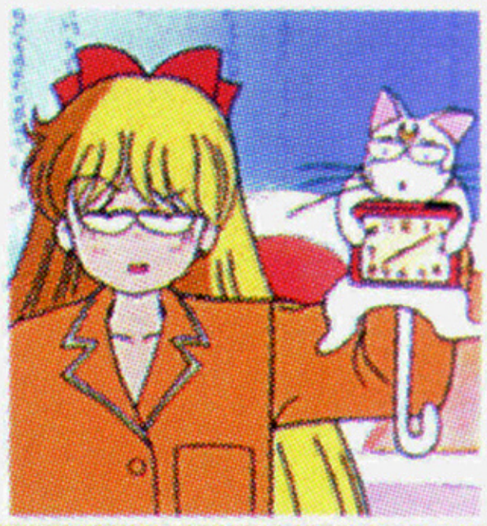


My carelessness is my biggest weakness.

I often get carried away, running into situations where I can't get out.

Sailor Scout difficulties?

The fact that I never have any free time. I will never complain, though. My mission as a Sailor Scout is so important.



The mission comes first, but I've got to say not getting enough sleep is tough!

Sailor Scout Advantages?

You can't beat making great new friends. Amy helps me study, and everyone helps me out.

I'm so happy I've met everyone!

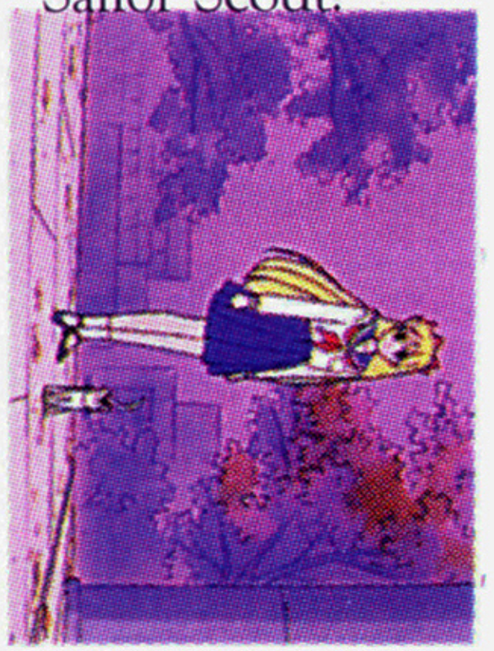
Of course, I'd go shopping! Clothes, accessories... Too much to buy!

Looking gorgeous!

If I had $10,000?

I used to fight alone so it's no big deal. I won't wimp out!

I'm the original Sailor Scout!



Ever fought alone?

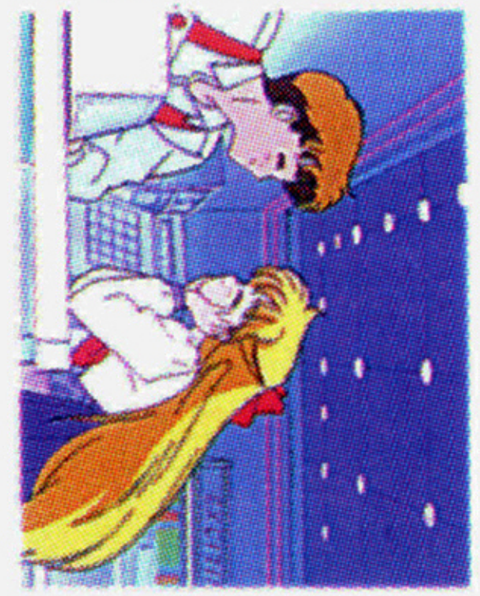
I was hard at work as Sailor V so I never had time for friends. I was very lonely.

I didn't have anyone to discuss my problems with-it was lonely.

What were you like before you met Bunny?

I probably would've been a normal girl, pondering about things like love.

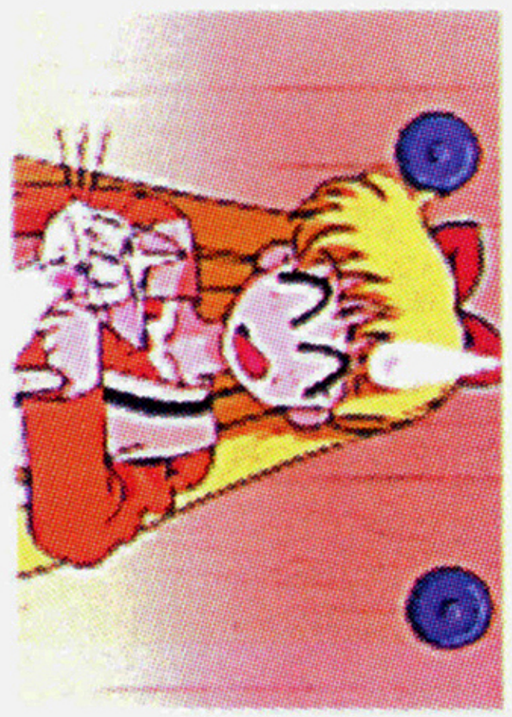
I wish peaceful days like this would continue.



If not a Sailor Scout?

I don't need one. I've got Artemis. It's too much of a hassle. I like animals, but it's too much work taking care of them. Artemis is easy so it's great.

Taking care of Artemis is not that easy, though.



I think Luna is much easier to handle!

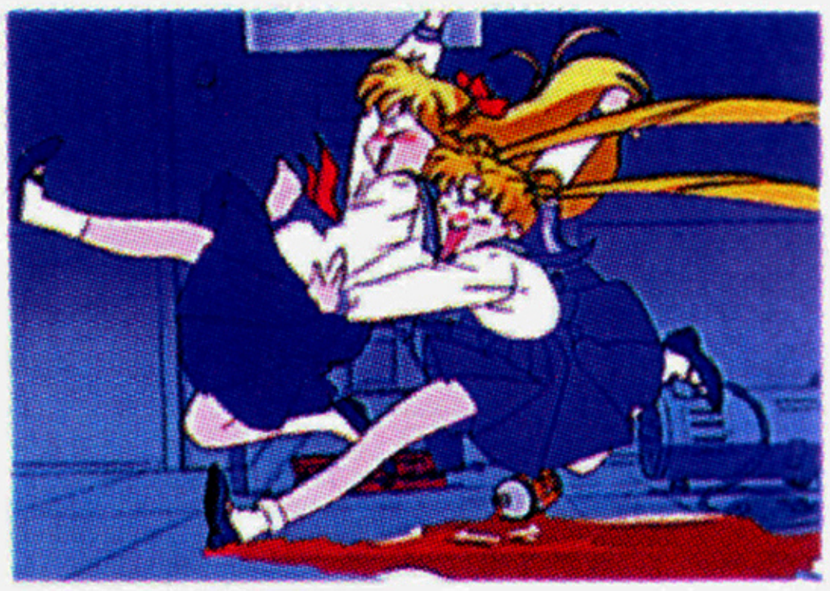
If you were to buy a pet?

I'd love to have a big sister and be spoiled.

I'm an only child so Katarina is like the sister I never had.

If you had any siblings?

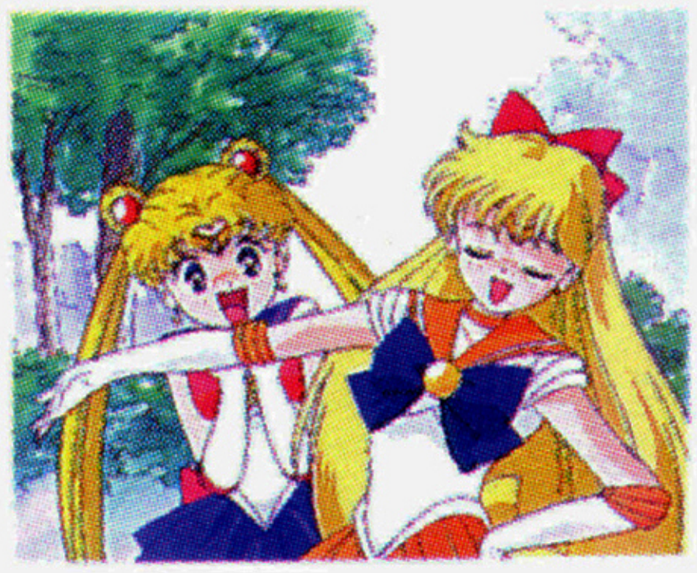
I'm always pretty clumsy, but I don't want to ever be clumsier than Bunny.



Right now, they're both just as goofy. There's still chance for recovery.

Wanna be better than Bunny at...?

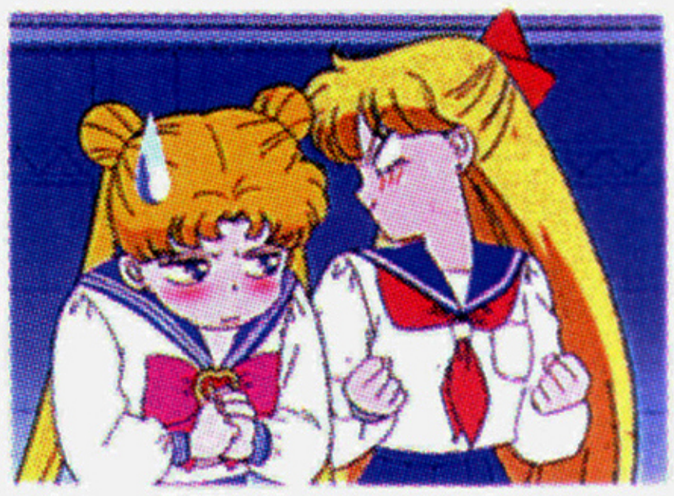
I rescued everyone during a hard battle they had. That's when I first met them.



She was a fan of mine, and very excited to meet me.

How did you meet Bunny?

I want her to stop checking out guys! I want them all for me. She's already got a great boyfriend named Darien!

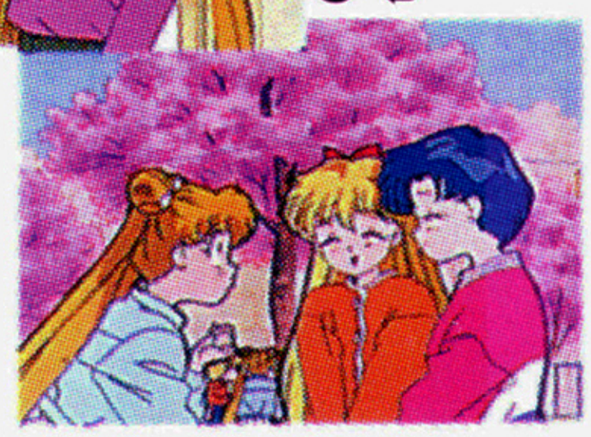


Bunny's too greedy!

Serena should stop...?

I would say the ability to get what she wants by whining and crying. Can't beat it. Also, her appetite is amazing.

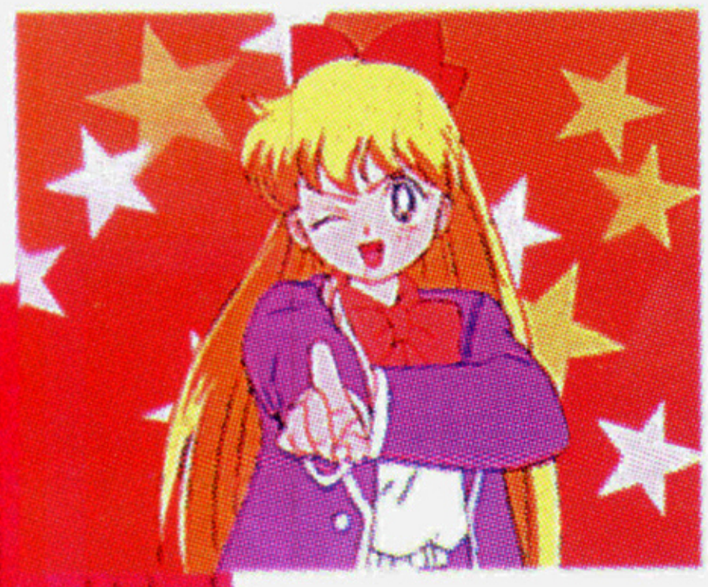
Can't say no to this.



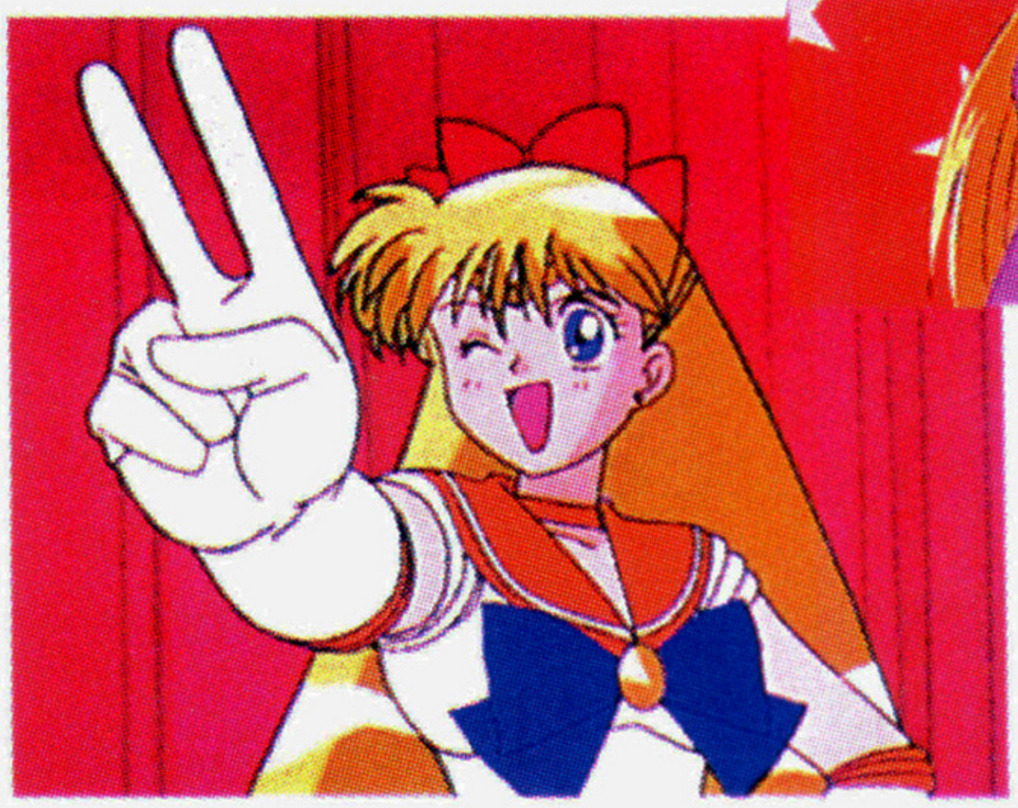
I can't top her appetite.

Things that you can't top Bunny at...?

Even if I goof up, I will keep moving forward. Sailor Venus will keep fighting until all the love burns out.



Don't get up from falling without picking up something! I make a lot of mistakes but I want to learn from them. Isn't it a great motto?



Courage to keep moving, and 1000 watts of energy are the keys to a good scout!

My Motto?

Sailor Venus' greatest lines

I'll share all my cool lines, right here! I'm the best scout when it comes to saying cool lines.

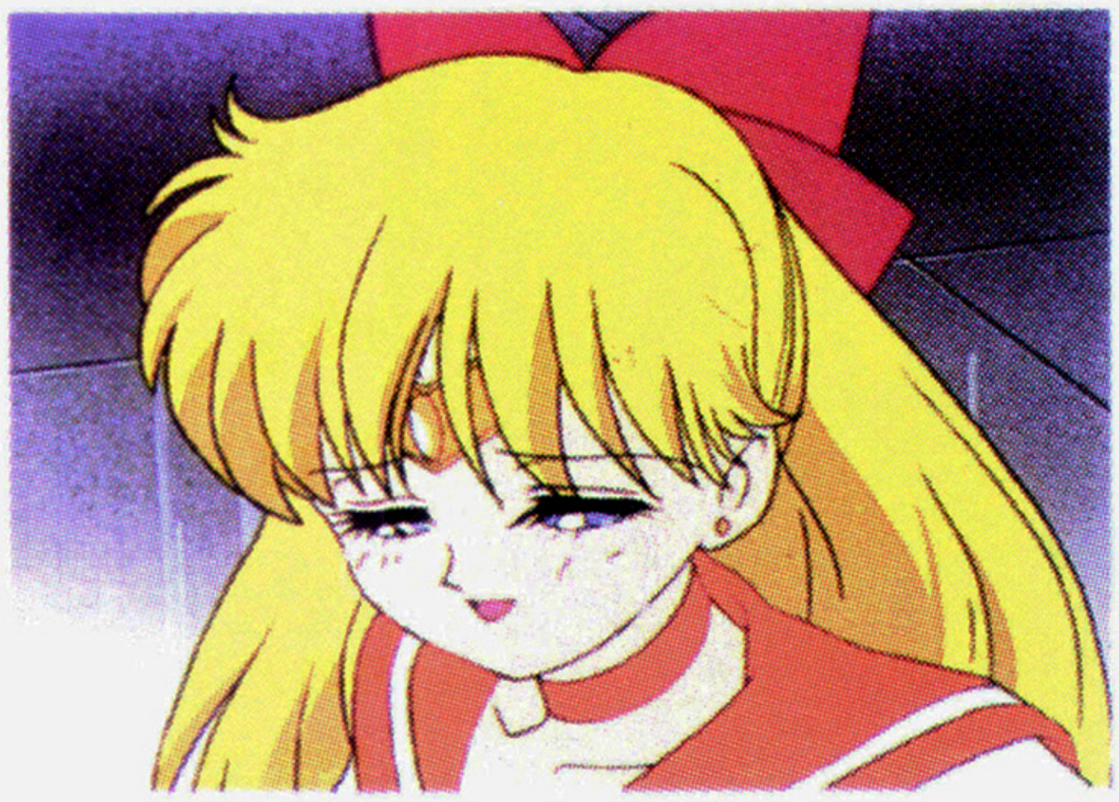
Sailor Venus Encyclopedia

I'll throw down your punishment of love from heaven!

This is my cool line when I make my appearances. When I shout this out to enemies, I feel my courage and power build up inside. I like the idea of a punishment from heaven. It makes me feel like a super-heroine of justice.

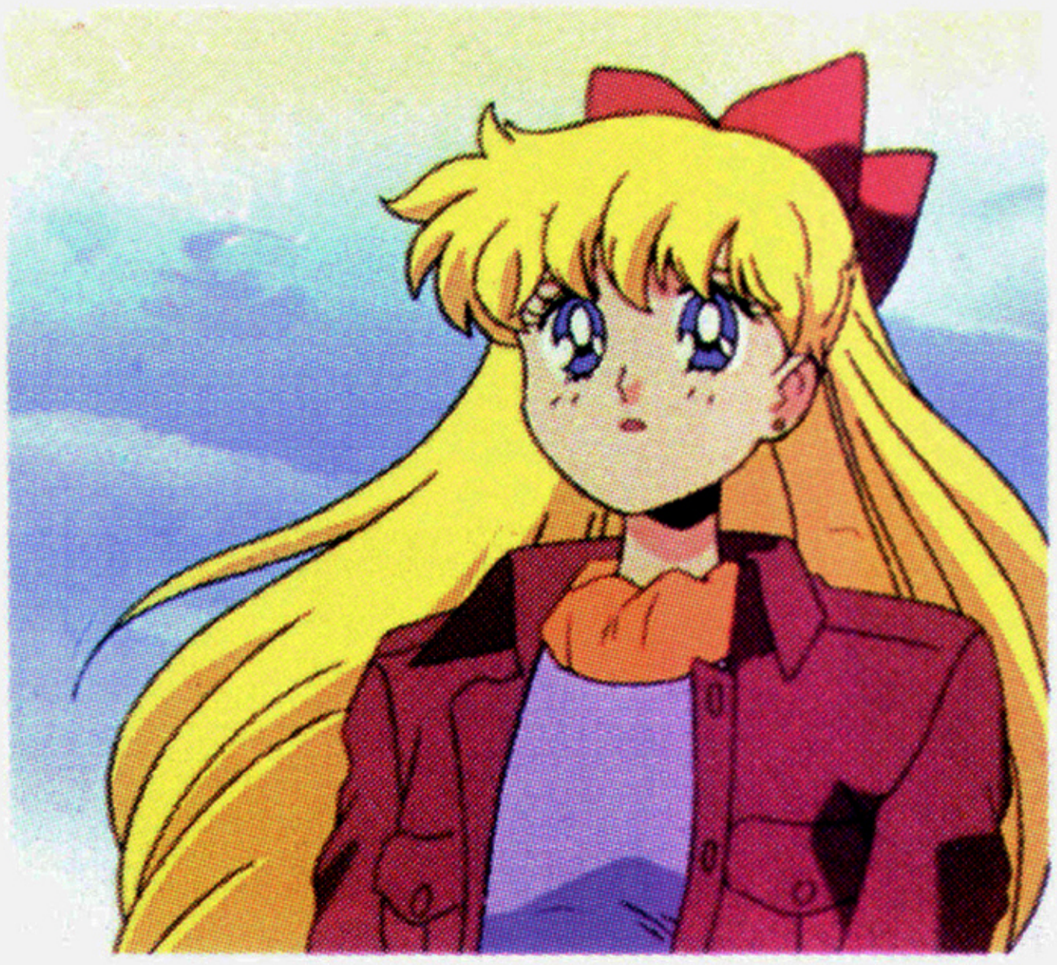
If she is the person Alan fell in love with...

My crush on Alan is over, but I will not look back. I will be praying for their happiness.



I just want them to be happy.

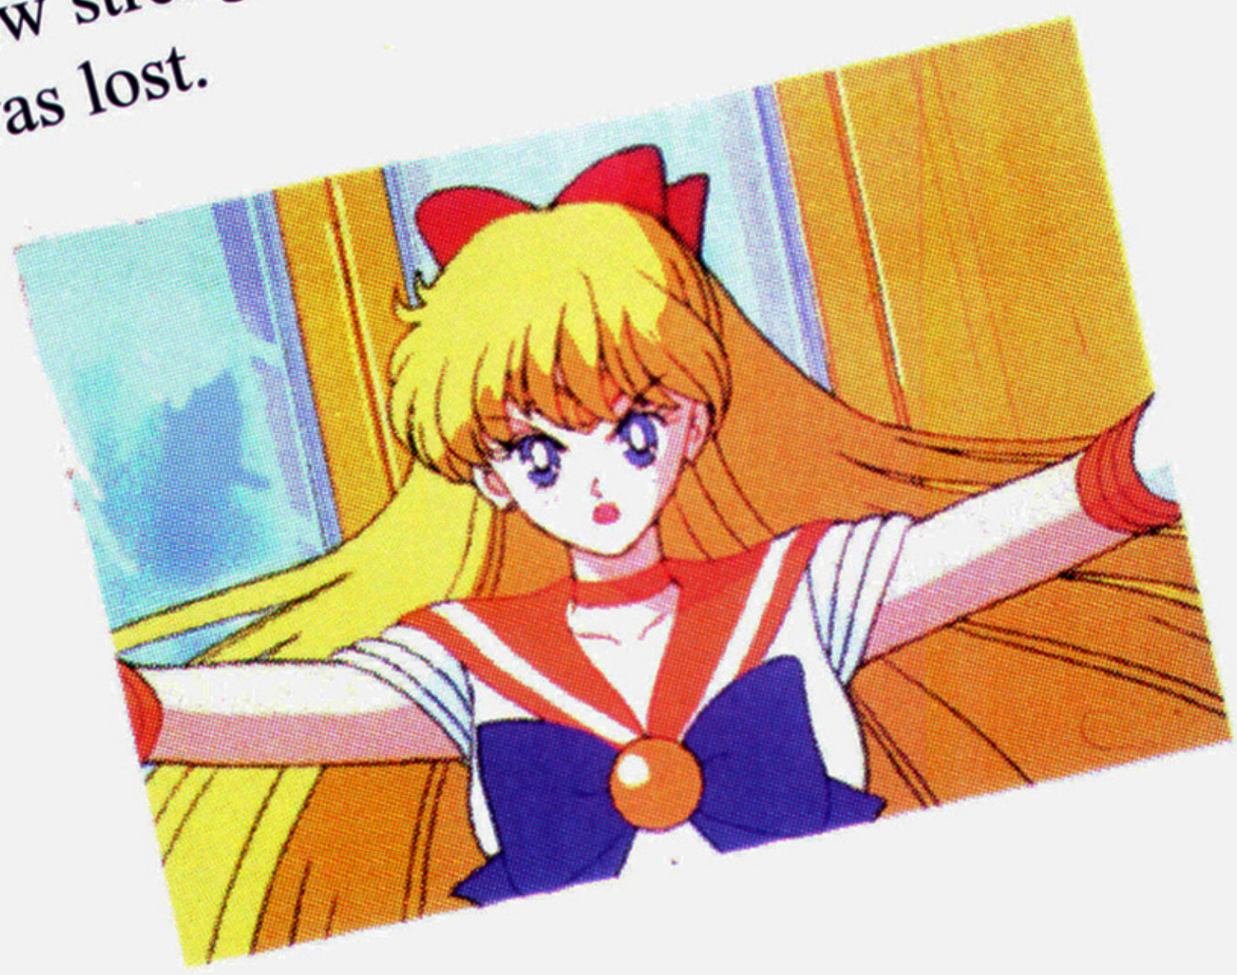
I was sad when I found out that Katarina and Alan had become a couple. But…if that's what he wants…



The children taught me the importance of believing... And I will protect that!

The children's cheer gave me my new strength just when I thought all was lost.

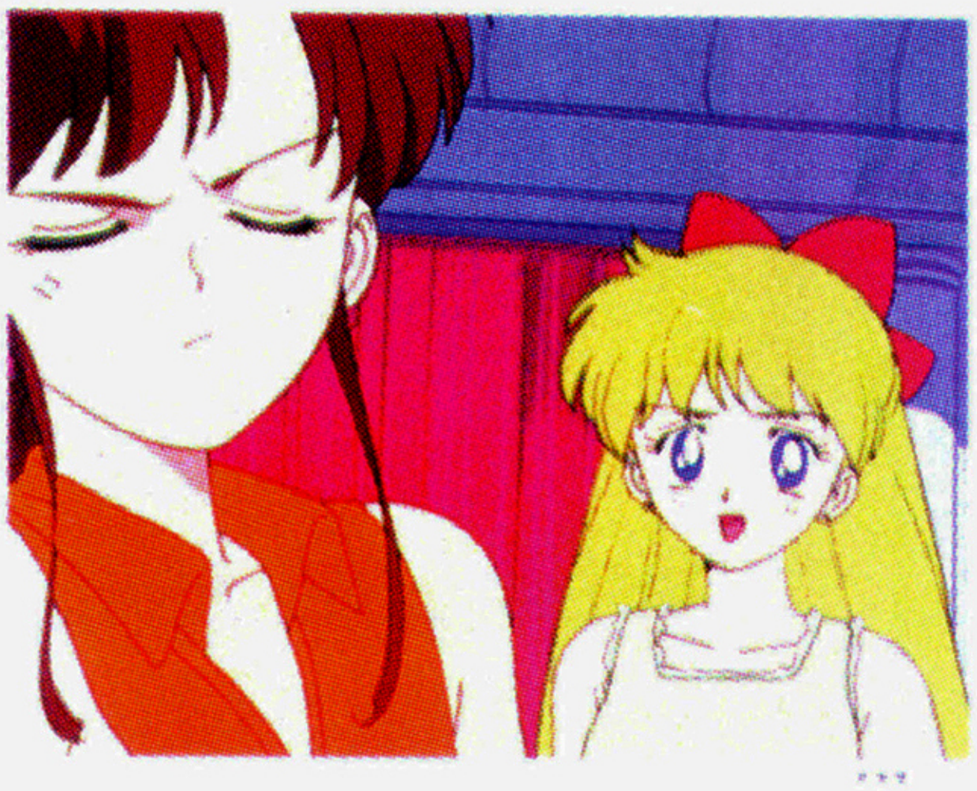
You do that, and I will never forgive you!



I couldn't help myself when I said those harsh words to Sailor Moon. She was about to give up. If I had known those would be my last words, I would have been nicer.

Everyone else looked good but, I have to say, I looked the best. I'm a stunner.

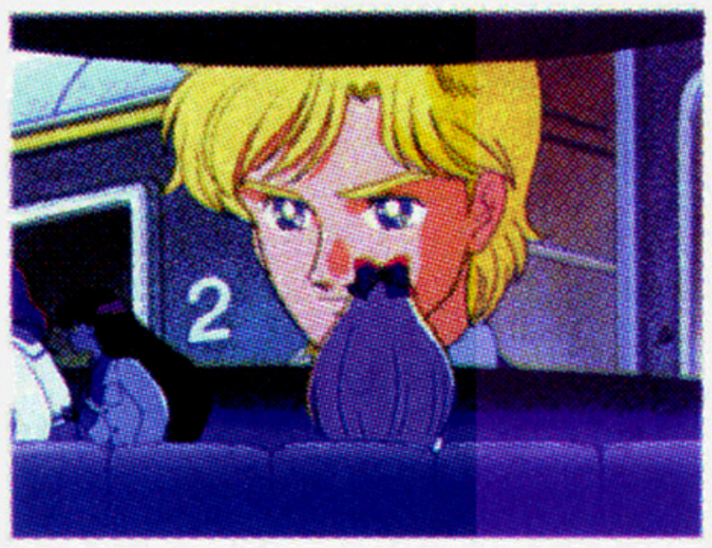
The legend of the mask now in the past, her true beauty is revealed.



Sailor Venus

Lita, you're so dear to me. I want you to experience the best of love.

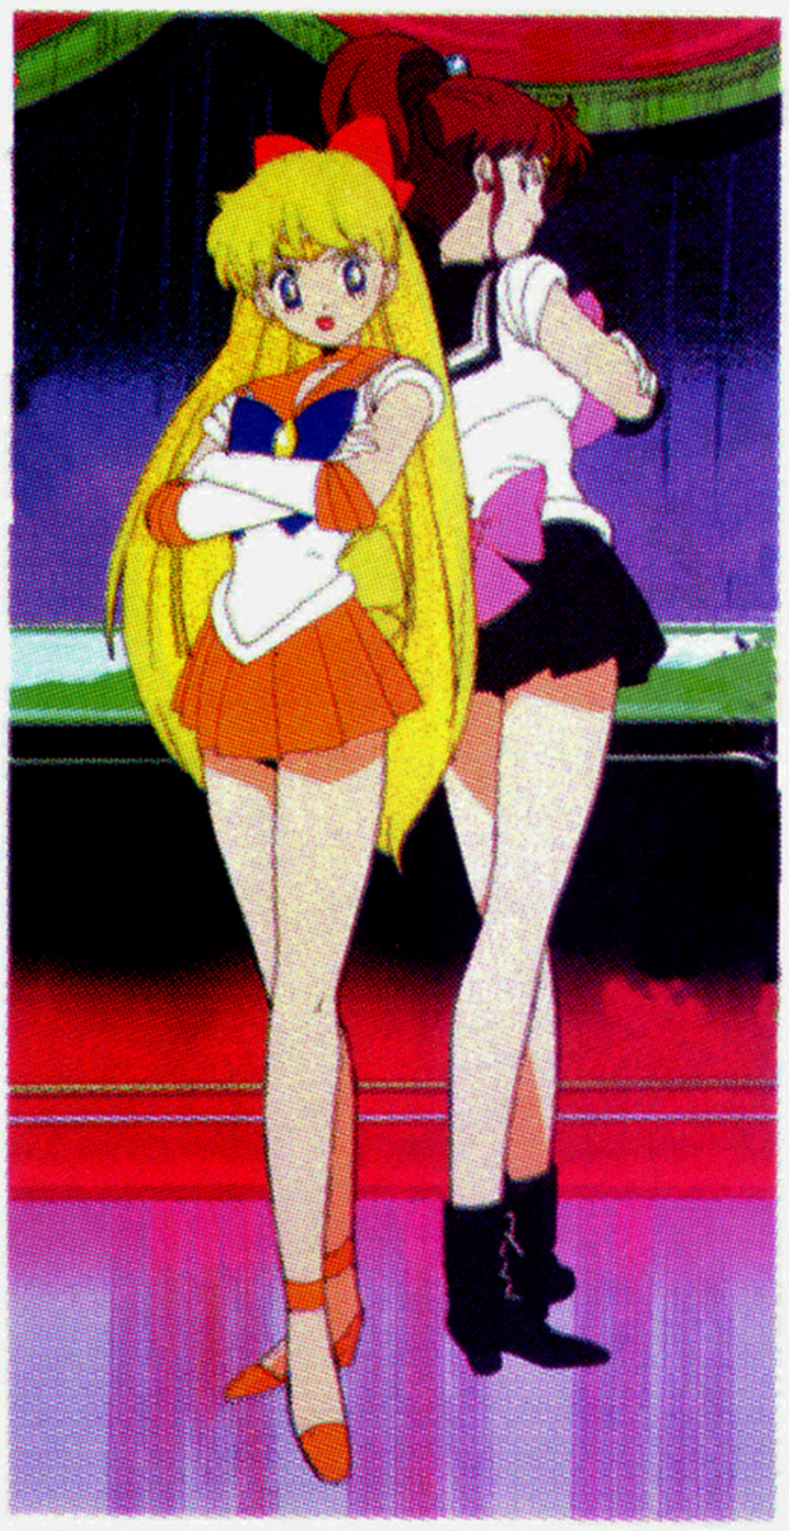
I understand Lita's pain. That's why I want her to be happy.



He looks just like Alan...

I thought I was over Alan, but... I'm turning into Lita.

Jupiter: Let's show them, Sailor Venus!



The power of love! Venus:

Jupiter and I were furious. The enemy was stepping all over the most beautiful emotion, love. Not being able to believe in love is sad.

The thought of losing Bunny…I was already screaming when I started to imagine that.

Don't take her away from us!

You're a really important friend to us, too!

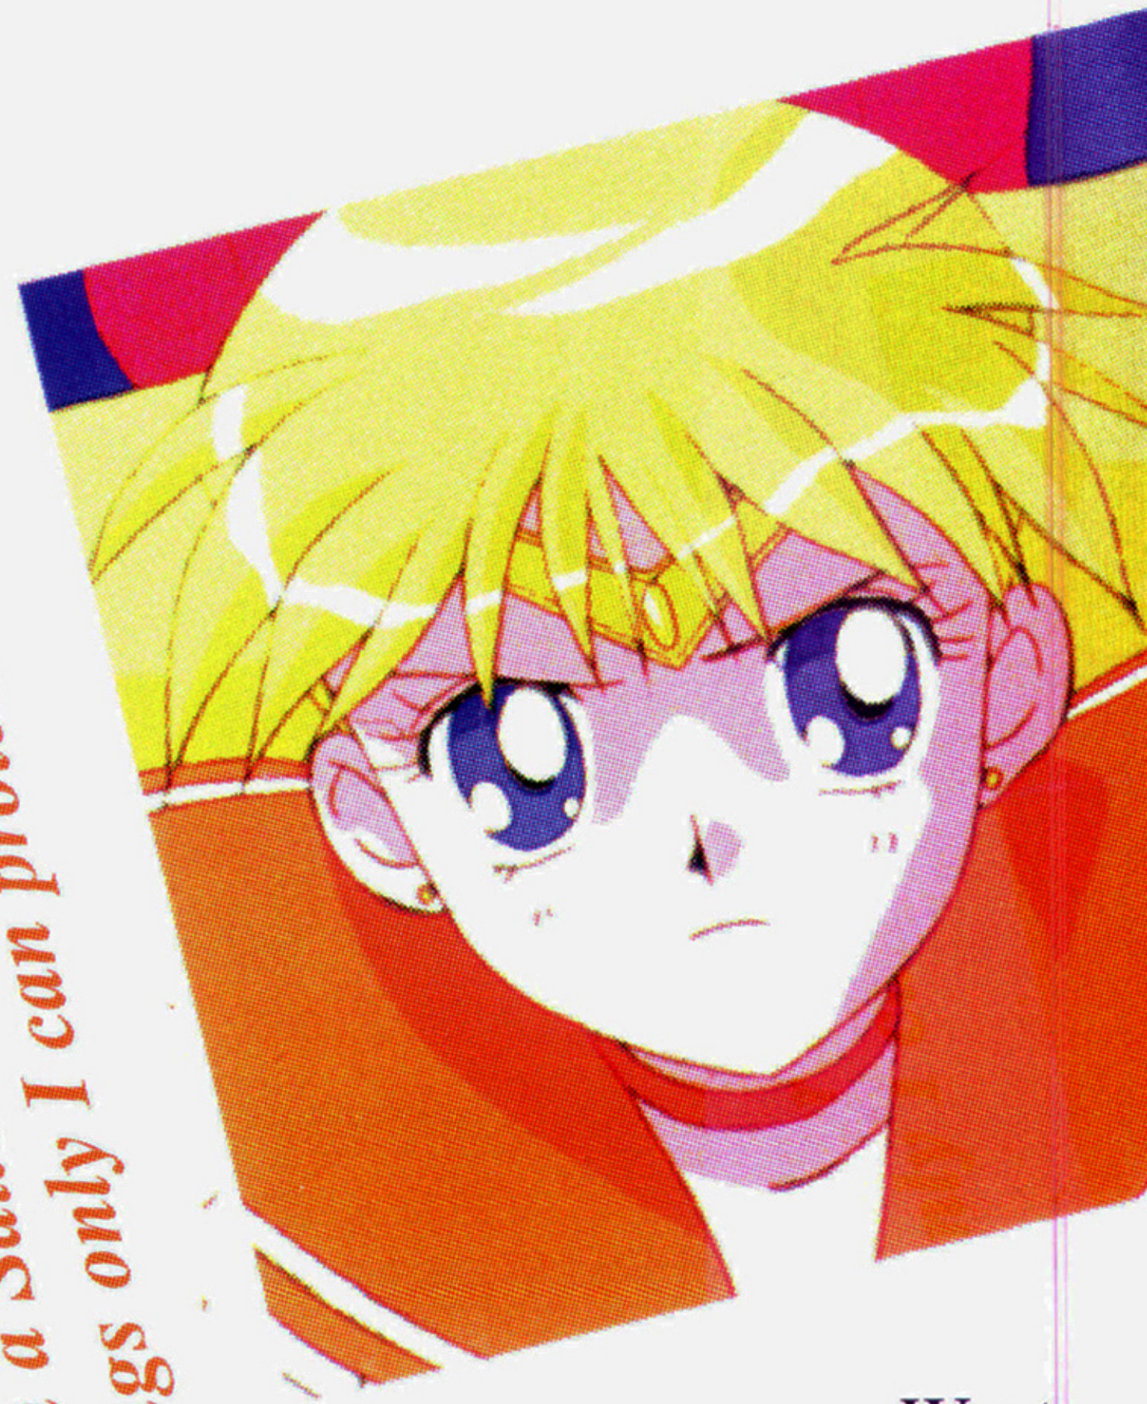
Rini got turned into Black Lady. I called out to her, wanting her to come back to us.

If I quit now...

Who will lead the future F1 world?

I give my all, even when I'm just having fun. That's the spirit!

I am a Sailor Scout! There are some things only I can protect!



Want to return to a normal life?! That's me giving up. When I realized that, I regained my pride as a scout.

Mina's Friends

You'll find all the members of the Sailor Scouts, my best friend Artemis, and more!

Sailor Venus Encyclopedia

I fell in love with him when I was in England. He was very kind.

Mie Sayama

She's a big fan of Sailor Moon, but she's now a fan of Sailor Venus, too.

An amusing old man. I know him from when I worked part-time at the temple.

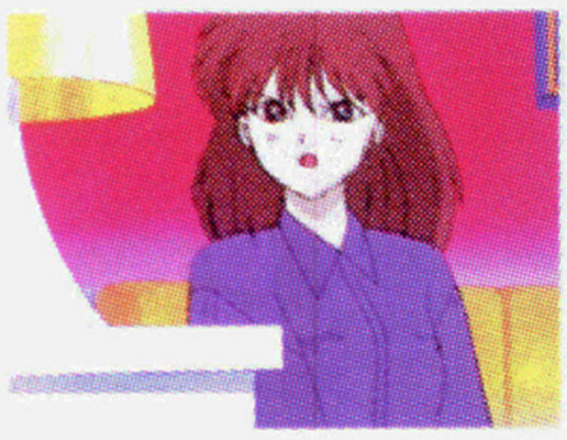
Ann Granger



She has a secret identity—Alan's girlfriend.

Ann pretended to be Alan's sister, but she's actually an alien, too.

Alan Granger

His real name is Aire, and he's really an alien!

He might seem like a really cute boy, but that's not quite on the mark. He's actually a space alien.

Jinta Araki

His nickname is "Aladdin."

He's a pop star I've admired since my first year of middle school.

Elsa Gray

Elsa was attacked by a monster named Hardlaa.

She's the top student at school, and a very interesting person.

Silver Crystal Power

I'll take the sorrow

Sleepless nights
I'm still thinking of you

I open the frosty window
I look up to the stars that remain in the sky

Good night to you
I loosen my red ribbon

Scold me from afar
The weakness I don't show to others

I love you always
So if it had to do with you
I will take the sorrow any day

Will that day ever come
Where I will hug you with my fragile arms

If I saw you again
I know tears would fall

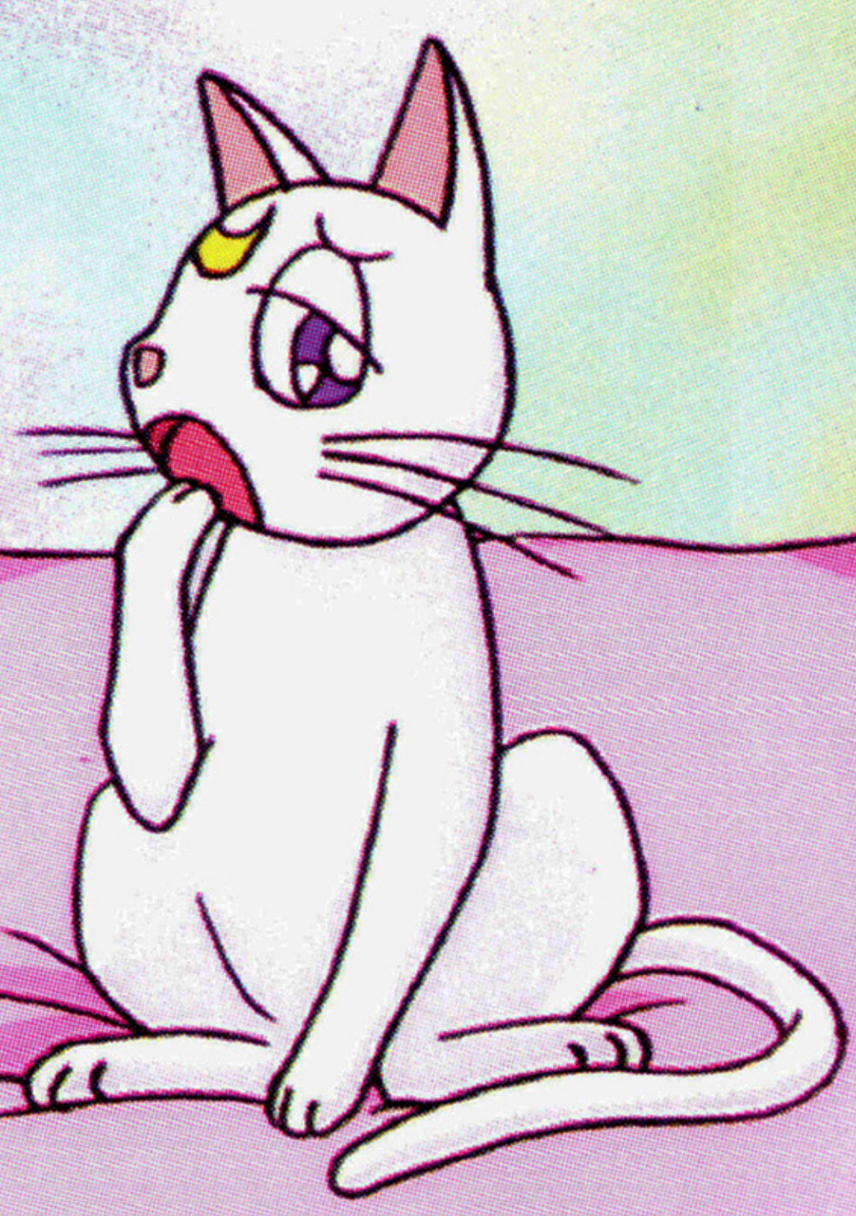
I carry with my heart
The longing eyes of your profile

I love you the way you are
But you can change
More and more like yourself

Hug me from afar
The weakness I don't show to others

I love you always
So if it had to do with you
I will take the sorrow any day

(written by Rui Serizawa)



Illustrations and Poems

I saw you in my dreams

We frolicked by the ocean at sunset
A warm summer night's dream

My heart danced with first love
I loved you more every time I saw you

Seasons went by, with sparkle and laughter
Always believing we would never change

MY LOVE, the talks of our future
Ah...to think I'd look back at them
As longing memories

What do you dream about in that distant town
I ask the blue sky as I open the window

MY LOVE, you may be in love with someone else somewhere
Ah...but please think of me sometimes
In a corner of your heart

MY LOVE, talks of our future always so bright
Ah...keep shining as you are Forever for me

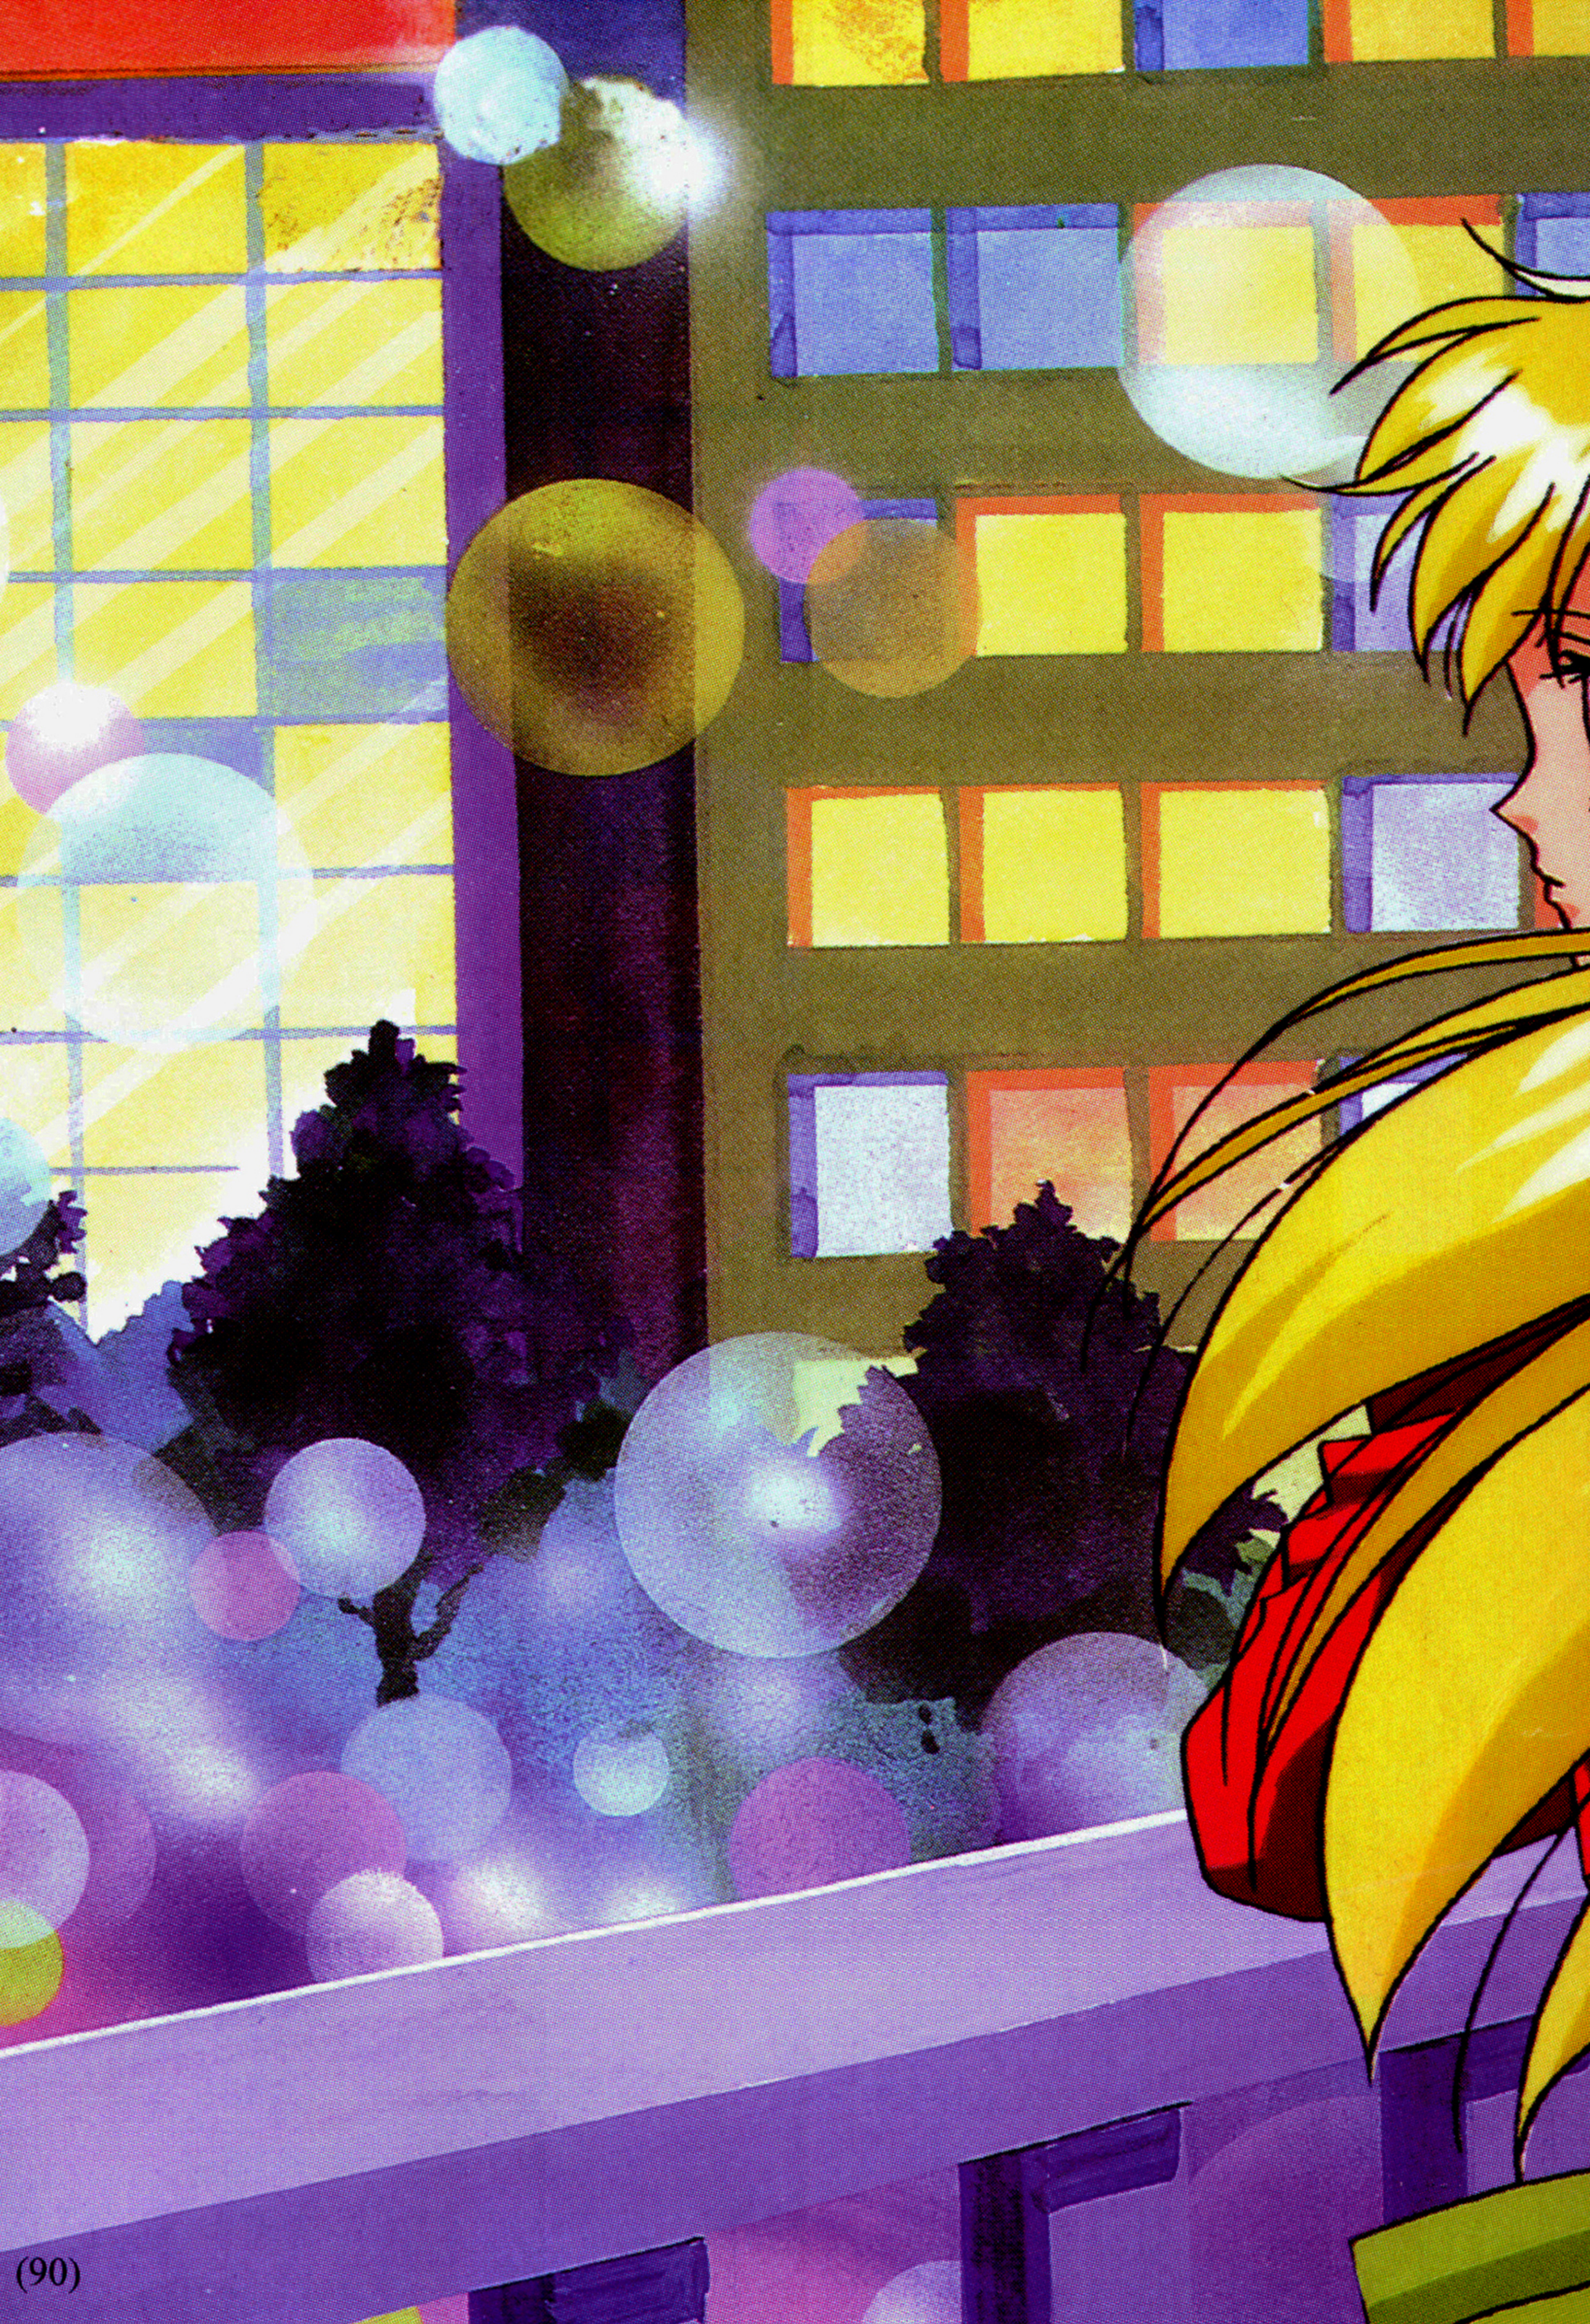
(written by Mitsuko Shiramine)



The forest in fog
Where dense trees
dye my senses green

The wind billows
white clouds around
your hot breath warms my cheek

Who are you?
In the deep green forest, I see...

It's you

A withered leaf...
The color of gold
A sign of maturity?
Or ending love?

It's you

Mina
Just once
Call my name
Is it your new lover?
Please
Don't come by just to tease

No I take it back
No need for words
You've come to see me
And I know

Your hot breath
On my cheek

That's all I need

(written by Yukihiro Tomita)

Route Venus

Open that door
Our time remaining
Starts ticking
Open your eyes
Take a good look
Give me your last kiss
And walk away

The truth is
My heart screams stop
Till it tears the strongest wind to shreds
But the road splits here
Our fate, the stars decide
The white road
You chose
Your future ahead
Keep walking

The ocean rises
Winds gust
It's a little cold
But run

I will never forget
I love you so much
It pains me

But I'll stay right here
And stare at the desert dawn

Open that window
And your time
Starts ticking
Remember
the last kiss I wanted
With your eyes open
that night

The truth is
My heart is crying
Till the sky above
drains itself
But the road splits
here
Our fate
the stars decide
The blue road
I chóse
My future before me
I will not forget

The morning dawns
People start moving
It's a little frightening
But walk away

Don't forget me
I love you so much
It pains me
But I'll stay right here
And stare at the desert dawn
